Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I understand that last evening on a television program entitled "Capitol Correspondents," which originates in Harrisburg, one of my colleagues who I thought, up until today, was a fairly good personal friend of mine, Senator Yosko, saw fit to term Senator Kessler and me as cowards and fakers. I think that any Senator who resorts to name-calling on television or radio of a colleague in this Senate certainly should be called to task about it.

I understand that the reason Senator Yosko saw fit to call Senator Kessler and me cowards was because he said we ran out on him yesterday before he got a chance to ask us some questions. Yesterday, we had completed the order of business of the day up until Announcements by the Secretary, as I remember it, and I had some appointments down in my office, and I did not think there was anything further coming up in the Senate. I left to go down to my office to fill the appointments. I think Senator Kessler had some other business to which he had to attend at that point in the order of business of the day.

Senator Yosko had talked probably longer than any other Senator on the floor yesterday, and if he had anything to ask of me or Senator Kessler, certainly he had plenty of opportunity to do so when he was on his feet talking to us yesterday. Surely, if what he had to ask was in relation to anything about the cut in the budget which we are recommending for the Department of Public Instruction, we told him the day before that we were not going to give him that breakdown of information about that particular cut in the budget because we thought, at this time, it was premature. We told him that we were going to wait until such time as the House passed the appropriation bills and got them over to the Senate. Then we were going to go into detail about the cuts in the budget of these various departments which we were recommending. Therefore, I told Senator Yosko on that day that if he were going to ask the same question again, I was going to refuse to answer because I felt that any information at this time about that particular subject was premature. To save us all time, there was no use for Senator Yosko to ask the question again. Therefore, I thought that he understood that, and I did not think he was going to ask any more questions yesterday because, as I said, he did sit down after he had made a long speech and we had almost completed the business of the day when I left my stand here and turned the duties of Majority Floor Leader over to the Assistant-Floor-Leader, Senator Pechan.

Why Senator Yosko, whom I always considered to be a good personal friend, would see fit to call me names, over the television, which I do not think were justified, and certainly names I have never been called in all my life up until last night, coward and faker, I certainly resent it, and I want to tell Senator Yosko that I feel quite badly that he saw fit to call me those names. I feel that he owes on apology to both Senator Kessler and myself, and certainly I cannot stand still and allow myself to be called such opprobrious names over television when I do not think the Senator was justified in any way in resorting to such tactics.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I do not know whether Senator Mahany heard the television broadcast last night or whether he did not hear it. I do not know whether he is making his statements this morning on the basis of hearsay or whether it is on the basis of the manner in which they prepared the figures recommending budget cuts.

Mr. President, I resent his statement to the effect that I called him or anybody else a coward on the program last night, and I now ask him to withdraw his statement in so far as it applies to that portion of it. I did not call him or anybody else in this Senate a coward. I did say that I had asked for a breakdown of the fiugres and those who were in a position to give them, or should be because they compiled the proposed budget reductions, left the floor, and I named Senator Mahany, I named Senator Kessler and probably one of two others, I am not sure. However, I called nobody in this Senate a name.

I think I conducted myself on that television broadcast last night as a gentleman, as I always do. I do not resort to name-calling and I did not resort to it last night. I again ask that Senator Mahany retract those statements from the record.

Mr. President, I do not know whether the television station made a recording of what I said last night. If they did, I will have them come down here and play it. I see two of the interrogators sitting over here, and they tell me just by their motions, the shake of their head, that I did not call Senator Mahany or Senator Kessler or anybody else a coward. I repeat, I resent the accusation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I tried to tune in that television program myself last night, but we were unable to get it.

Mr. President, I will say this to Senator Yosko, that the information about what he said was given to me by a person who saw the television program. Now if he was wrong, then certainly I was wrong in stating that Senator Yosko called us those names. I got that second-handed, Senator. I did not hear the program, but I did get it from someone who did hear it.

Now they have made a recording, and I am going to listen to the recording of it, and if those names were not called by you then, of course, I will withdraw anything I said about that. However, you said you did not call us cowards, but did you call us a fake, Senator?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. I said here on the floor yesterday that the figures were a fake. I say that they are a fake now unless you can substantiate them.

Since you are here I will ask you now, will you give us a breakdown of the total figure of $33,000,000 recommended as a budget reduction for the Department of Public Instruction?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Does the gentleman wish to interrogate Senator Mahany?

Mr. YOSKO. Yes, Mr. President.

INTERROGATION

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Mahany, can you give us a breakdown of the total figure of $33,000,000 recommended as a budget reduction for the Department of Public Instruction?

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, I told you a couple of days ago that any information which we would now get relative to the breakdown of the budget cuts, other than the total amounts which we had suggested, was premature. We said that we would give a breakdown when the appropriation bills came to us. At that time we will study them, we will consider them and we think that we will probably be able to justify a cut in the appropriation of $31,000,000 to the Department of Public Instruction.

That is the way it has always been done before, Senator. You have been here several Sessions previous to this one and you know that the appropriation bills are initiated in the House and they come to the Senate. When the Senate gets them, that is when we go into the budget requests, and that is when we cut the budget if we feel the budget is too high. We did that I know. We spent a lot of time on that in the Senate in 1951 and again in 1953. As I remember it, we, in the Republican Caucus, spent hours with a blackboard down in our Caucus putting on the figures of the budget and trying to cut down here and there on every one of those items. We also took estimated receipts from the various taxes which we were enacting and we were trying to find out whether or not those might be raised.

Mr. President, if you will pardon me, I would like to perhaps deviate just a bit here by bringing in the name of a constituent of mine who is now Secretary of Property and Supplies, a fellow by the name of William Thomas, who comes from Sharon. I see by the papers that he has stated that the Republicans were in power for a long number of years, and if they were ready to slash budgets, why have they not done it up until now? I want to tell that constituent of mine, Mr. Thomas, that if he had been down here and working as we have during the past Sessions, instead of running his little flower shop up in Sharon, he would know that we have always done that.

This budget request of Governor Leader is far beyond the budget request of any Governor that we have ever had here in Harrisburg. Certainly we have cut the Republican Governor's requests and we figure that we can cut the Democratic Governor's request. We want to justify those cuts and we feel that we can justify them to you, Senator, when, as and if the time comes. If we cannot produce like we say we can, then I say to you that that is the time for you to look down your nose at us and say that we were faking a bit. That is the time for you to decide and not now, Senator.

Last year, Mr. President, if I might bring this in, your candidate for Governor, George Leader, was going over the State telling everybody that he was going to balance the budget without very many more new taxes, and that he was going to make it up through economies.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, if the Majority Leader wants to make a speech, let him make a speech, but he is supposed to be answering a question and the answer was not responsive to the question. Now he has gone into a half a dozen details.

Mr. President, as I said before, and I said it yesterday, if he wants to debate any phase of the budget or any other question which comes before this Senate, I will be glad to accommodate him. However, right now the question is, do you or do you not have a breakdown of the total figures which you submitted as budget reductions? You arrived at those total figures some way. You either pulled them out of the air, or you guessed them or they are a fake. It is one of the three. If they were presented to you and you did not compute those totals, then I will say to you, as a friend that they made a fall guy out of you. If you will take a look at the statement which was issued, it was issued in your name and your name only, and you are too nice a fellow to be made a fall guy out of. I say that in all sincerity.

I just do not belive in getting figures together, suggesting budget cuts without foundation. Apparently you did it for no other purpose than for window dressing. You did it to try to make an impression on the public. Now we are calling on you to substantiate those figures and tell us in which part of the Department of Public Instruction budget, and there are many parts in it, that that total figure is applicable either in lump sum or in itemized form. If you cannot do it, just say we cannot do it at this time and that will end it.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, we can do it at this time, but we do not choose to. I have told you in every sign but Indian smoke signals that we are not going to give you that information now. We do have the information; it was properly compiled. At the time when these appropriation bills come over from the House, if we cannot show you where those cuts can be made, then I say to you that you will be in order to say that I was wrong and that I got myself too far out on the limb. I got myself out on the limb figuring that the people who gave me that information, along with my own studies, would justify this cut. If that limb is going to be sawed off by somebody, then I will appreciate your sympathy. In the meantime I hope that you will be patient, and that you will allow us to give you this information at the proper time.

Mr. YOSKO. All right, I will accept that on the assumption that, as of right now, you do not have the breakdown, and because you do not have it you do not want to give it.

Let me just say one more thing, Senator, since you were not here yesterday when I made my remarks. In one of the paragraphs in your statement you said that even with the budget cuts which you recommended, every department involved will get more money than they spent during the last biennium. That is an untruth and I will prove it to you.

Also, I reiterate today what I said yesterday. The Governor, when you presented those figures and your statement to him, which you also gave to the press and which was publicized all over Pennsylvania, said that you were intelliectually dishonest. I am assuming that you are an intellectual person. I am assuming that you are an intelligent person. I think the two words are synonymous, if that is the proper way to put it, and since you made a false statement that is what you were intellectually dishonest. Take my advice, I am your friend, and do not take figures from other people and make statements in connection with them which you cannot substantiate, because you just put yourself out on a limb, as you said you were out on a limb. In this Chamber you cannot do that and get away with it.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator, I appreciate your kindness in trying to counsel me, but I am willing to stand by the statement which I made. I think that every department did get more money with the exception of the Department of Revenue. The reason the Department of Revenue did not get quite as much money under this budget as they did in the preceding budget is because in the preceding budget the Department of Revenue, of course, had millions of dollars put in for the purpose of collecting the sales tax. Inasmuch as the sales tax expired, that expense was not put in the Department of Revenue.

Now if some other tax is passed by the House and Senate and signed by the Governor, which the Department of Revenue will collect, then we will have to add to the Department of Revenue budget whatever amount will be necessary to collect that tax.

Therefore, Mr. President, I think my statement to the Governor, and to the press, was certainly not intellectualley dishonest. I appreciate the Governor and you, Senator, giving me the benefit of the doubt by saying that I am intelligent, but when you add to it the word "dishonest", I resent it. I try to be honest not only here, Senator, but oustide in my practice, and with my relations with my fellowman. You have known me over a good many years, and I do not believe that you can say that I have been dishonest in anything that I have ever done.

Senator, if you will just wait until such time as this matter come before us in the form of these appropriation bills, then if we cannot justify our figures I will say to you that we have made a mistake. It will not be one of those dishonest mistakes; it will be a mistake which perhaps will come from the head and not from the heart, but I do not believe that we made a mistake and I am not going to anticipate that we did. I am still sticking with the figures which were given to me and I expect to justify them.

Mr. YOSKO. There are other departments involved besides Revenue, but we will not go into that now. We will go into that when we come back. I am just telling you that there are more departments than the Revenue Department involved in your statement.

Please, when you prepare figures, Senator, do not prepare them and issue statements on the basis of something that is going to happen in the future. It may happen and it may not happen Do not prepare figures and statements on what you think, because figures are not based on what you think. They are based on what they are. You know there is an old saying, "Figures do not lie, but liars make figures," and it is on that basis, if you cannot substantiate them, that you have to construe the thing. I am not calling anybody a liar but, as of this moment, as of this moment, unless you can substantiate those figures in a breakdown, department by department, I have to say again that they are a fake, and they were just pulled from the air and they are not something which you can rely on. They were prepared for window dressing and to try to convince the public that the budget was padded, and that you and some others want to reduce it but there is no substantiation for it.

Mr. MAHANY. I want to say this to the Senator. He knows that just about every figure in the budget is more or less of an estimate, not only in the amounts to be expended but also in the amounts to be received. How can anybody with any certainty, for instance, figure out exactly how much is going to be produced by the inheritance tax? We do not know how many people are going to die in Pennsylvania and we do not know how much money they are going to have when they do die. That is one thing which we have to guess at. Just about every item which the Budget Director computes relative to estimated receipts in Pennsylvania for the next biennium is an estimate, a guess.

For instance, since he estimated the amount that will be produced by the corporate net income tax, we have had a strike at Westinghouse. How much affect is the Westinghouse strike going to have on our revenue? Why, Senator Yosko does not know and cannot know, and perhaps the Budget Director would not be able to tell exactly. These things are all estimates. We do not know exactly how much will be needed by the Department of Public Assistance because we do not know how many people will be on assistance in the next two years. So, all of these figures, Senator, are estimates or, as you might say, guesses.

In trying to compute the budget, we cannot get as exact as you would when you add two and two together and make four. They are estimates and we feel that your estimates of receipts are too low and the estimates which you feel will be needed to finance the buduget, or the budget needs, are too high. You say to us that our estimates of the revenue are too high and you cannot get along on the amount that we figure you would need for the budget requests. Therefore, what we are doing is to have a third party come in as a kind of mediator; that is; the Pennsylvania Economy League. Both the Democrats and the Republicans, along with the Governor, have agreed that the Pennsylvania Economy League may produce figures to show which side may be wrong, and, if so, how far wrong we are. That meeting will take place next Monday morning. After that, I expect to have much more information than what I have now.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Mahany, you are going into a different phase of it now. You are going into the anticipated receipts. I wish you would have been here the day the Department of Revenue appeared before the Democratic Budget Committee. We went into that very thoroughly. I am going to suggest to Senator Dent or Senator Holland, and those who were here on that day, that they get the transcript of the testimony which was taken on the phase of estimated receipts about which you are talking. You will find that we went into that phase of it, if I may repeat, very very thoroughly. I am satisfied that the officials of the Department of Revenue considered every possible factor in arriving at the estimates they submitted to the Budget Bureau, including figures that were complied by Doctor Logan, the previous Budget Director ,by the Pennsylvania Economy League and from every other source that was available to the Department of Revenue.

If you have something different, do not just bring it in and say $71,000,000, without breaking it down to indicate where you are going to get the $71,000,000 additional. That is what is wrong with your whole theory. You are giving us lump sum figures, but you are not breaking them down. You know, as well as I do, that in official statements, published by the newspapers, when the Department of Revenue increased its estimates by $41,000,000, they did not just say $41,000,000. They said where they estimated the increases and they pinpointed it by classification of taxes which are collected by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Unless you do that, your figures that you submit on either expenditures, on appropriations or on estimates just cannot be relied upon, because anybody can pick a figure from the air and just name it. That does not make it authentic and it does not make it reliable. There are a whole series of taxes which are collected by the Comonwealth of Pennsylvania. The $41,000,000 figure that was given was not given in connection with any one tax; it was in connection with a series of taxes and it was substantiated. If you can refute it by proper evidence, proper authority and proper proof, then you should present it and not just give us lump sum figures.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, if we were on the question before the Senate, I would be tempted to move the previous question. The previous question, as I understood it, was that Senator Mahany felt aggrieved at a statement which was supposed to have been made over television last night. I am quite a television fan, so, by accident last night, I happened to tune in. I heard the illustrious Senator Yosko being questioned by some very qualified newspapermen. They asked him some pretty ticklish questions and Joe answered those which he could answer directly and parried the others, which is a very good presentation of the matter.

Mr. President, I want to say to Senator Mahany and Senator Kessler that unless my hearing has gone completely wrong, I did not hear either one of the gentlemen, or any other Member of the Senate, called a coward or any other name. I do not think that Senator Yosko took any more liberties than most of us have taken many times in our political lives with the reputations of our opponents. I remember distinctly of listening to the follow-up to the Governor when he was out over the State attempting to sell the people his tax and budget program,and he was answered by some gentlemen who are Members of the House and Senate. I remember that I was so angry on occasion that if I could have had within reach of my arms at the time a couple of the Senators and House Members who were answering the Governor, I would have attempted, in my feeble way, to have wrung their necks. I think they said, both in plain language and in inference, that the Governor should be impeached because he won by deceit, that he had fooled the people and that he had lied to the people.

All of us know in a campaign or in a political situation we tamper with the absolute truth. It is one of the licenses which is given to us as candidates and as political party affiliates. I am sure most of the people do not believe what is said about each of us in our compaigns or we would not be here. I am sure that Senator Mahany will not be injured in his political career — and I know that that is the first consideration of most of us — by any statement that was made by Senator Yosko last night. I might say that if a fellow wanted to dig up a recent historical occurrence, he could show where Senator Mahany and others on the other side, Senator Fleming and the Leader of the House, Representative Smith, for six months told the people in the broadest type of language that $200,000,000 could be slashed from the budget without any problem at all. They did not give us any breakdown then, and now they come along with the $131,000,000 figure. They dropped the $69,000,000; we did not. They lost $69,000,000 of their estimate in the last sixty days. In trying to reach a common ground where we can adjourn this Senate sine die, we are attempting to give some kind of a factual representation of the figures as an outside agency would compute them.

Senator Mahany picked out the Department of Revnue and said that it would not have the tax collection costs and, therefore, that would be a reduced budget. That is why the Governor could point to that one. However, in order to refresh Senator Mahany's memory, here is exactly what Senator Mahany said and I quote:

"As the attached summary will show, these reductions can be made without impairing or crippling any essential service of the Comonwealth. Every department and agency of the State Government will receive more than was actually spent in the last biennium when the Governor, as a candidate, said too much money was being spent. As for revenue from existing taxes in submitting a revised estimate of $41,000,000, the Governor failed to go far enough. We believe existing sources of revenue will produce $35, 000,000 more than the Governor now says it will."

Now, Mr. President, if Senator Mahany made that statement on the floor of the Senate, we could challenge his statement. However, inasmuch as this statement went to every newspaper in the State of Pennsylvania, the people of this State fully expect that they are going to get more services for less money. That is not true here or in any other level of government, or in any enterprise or activity in this Comomnwealth. There is no such thing as having a bargain day in government.

How anybody can cut $26,000,000 from the Department of Public Instruction's budget and add approximately $72,000,000 for mandated costs and still spend actually less money than was spent by Governor Fine is to me a mystery. That is the one I am going to watch and see how you get around it. You know, there was a small kid in school, in the first grade, and the teacher asked how much four and one was. The boy studied and studied and he said, "Six."

The teacher said, "You are wrong; it is five."

"Oh ,no," he said, "you don't fool me ,teacher. Yesterday you said that three and two was five."

That appeares to be the method of arithmetic which is being used by some of the great budget experts that we have suddenly developed. I do not profess to be a mathematician; I do not profess to be a budget expert, but long ago I learned that you could make five out of four and one the same as you can three and two. Therefore, I have discovered, without too much help in the past twelve years that I have been the leader on the Democratic side, that I had to analyze budget figures for myself. If you will go back over the records, you will find that my percentage of hitting on budget estimates and expenditures was a great deal better, on a batting average, than Mr. Logan who was paid to do that particular work at a very fine salary. I suggest to the other side that before they make any statements that are based upon "Loganized" estimates, they be careful because they, themselves, found, and to my knowledge they found that they had to make re-estimates of Mr. Logan's figures time and time again.

I remember an incident that to me is very illuminating. We were sitting in the office of the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania and we were trying to devise a tax program. We had picked on a particular style of a sales tax on restricted items, and the estimate was given to us of a certain number of millions of dollars. After about four and a half or five hours, we added up these figures and we added up the budget needs, and we found that we were $10,000,000 short. I will always remember my amazement when Mr. Logan spoke up and said, "Well, we can fix that. We will just up the estimate in this category $10, 000,000."

Now, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, no person living can accurately, as Senator Mahany so ably said, determine the future economy of the State. Because of this, over the years there has been an absolute necessity for, in a greater or lesser degree, overestimating the budget needs and underestimating revenue returns. We have a very limited power in this Commonwelath when it comes to borrowing money. State functions must be continued. That is why, Senator Mahany and Members of this Senate, we have fought on this side for many years for a revision in the Constitution calling for annual Sessions. When you perform this fiat operation on the budget and on the Comomnwealth's economy by overestimating and underestimating, you sometimes come out with a surplus. When you do that, the money is usually grabbed immediately and channeled into some expenditure, and the Legisalture finds itself in a hopeless position two years later to effect an economy that might save the people money.

We have been asking you to support us in letting us have a yearly Session in order that we can reduce the hazards of trying to outguess the economy of the Commonwealtn.

We all try to play politics to its hilt, and I am as guilty as any man who ever served in this Senate. I have found long ago that unless we practice some degree of political astuteness and strategy, we are not Members of this Senate to practice anything. We are defeated. Therefore, in order to get some good out of our services in the General Assembly we practice a little politics. However, that does not stop us, as men of good character and men of public interest, from getting together on fundamental changes in the legislative halls. I beg of you to recognize the necessity of the modern day government and bring out to the people a vote upon a yearly Session so we can reduce the Sessions which are permanently going to go beyond the six and seven month period so long as we have a two-year guessing game before us. In the end, the people will benefit. Whichever party is in power, the people will benefit because in the end — and this statement I want to make just as surely as I am standing on this floor — I do not believe that any Member of this Senate wants to place one cent more of taxation upon the people than they honestly believe is necessary to carry out the essential services of government.

When you get into that question of services, however, relate it to your own family. I have an automobile which happens to be a Lincoln. I know that a Ford or a Nash or even a Volkswagen, this new little buggy that is coming along ,would serve my purpose in so far as transportation is concerned. If the purpose is for me to get from point A to point B a $1,400 or $1,500 car would do that. However, taking into consideration the hours that I drive, the necessity of trying to preserve my strength in my middle age and the necessity of getting there in as much comfort and with the greatest safe speed that I can, I would probably spend $4,000 for an automobile. That is the way it is in government. You can take the mental institutions and you can put a big fence around them, as we have, and take the people who are mentally deficient and toss them in there; put them on beds of straw, as has been the case in the past, close the shutters on the windows, lock the doors, pick up all the vagrants that you can pick up and put them in as attendants and you can save money. However, if you want to try to rehabilitate these people and put them back into useful society, then you must spend more money.

It is the degree of service you want to render. You can cut services just like you can cut the price of your automobile. You go out and buy a television set; you can buy a Muntz which sells for $195 for a twenty-one inch set, a television set that will bring you reception, or you can buy an expensive model that sells for $595, and it will also only bring you reception. These things are matters that we must hash out and discuss. Certainly you can cut the quality of your services. However, this economy of ours, in every phase, is not built upon that because, if it were, they would close Lit Brothers and expand Woolworths. These are just simple matters of arithmetic, economy and the ways of life.

So far as how much you cut from the budget, yes, that is your prerogative. However, when you make your statements, tell the people. "We thought we could cut $200,000,000," you should say. "We could not substantiate that. Now we think we can cut $131,000,000 and these are the departments in which we say we can cut it." Now, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, it may be possible; I do not know.

In order to refresh your minds, you can cut $3,457,000, you tell me, from the Department of Forests and Waters. I have on my desk a request from the residents of Roaring Run. Chief among these residents from Roaring Run is a small religious camp. We all know the status of religion in any community. It is not a wealthy enterprise. They hold this little summer camp there, and every time they get a flash storm they are afflicted with a flash flood, ending up over the bank and into this camp. Instead of the children who are in this camp being free—unfortunately, most of them are children from poor parents—and enjoying themselves, they spend most of their time digging out of the mud. That camp requires, as well as the residents, a dredging of that stream for about eighteen inches of silt that has washed down. It requires the changing of a bridge. The bridge was designed in the old days when the girders were put under bridges instead of the new type with the girders above. New we may spend $135,000 to do that.

I also have a request from the city of Greensburg for an appropriation of approximately $335,000 to deepen Jack's Run, which at one time was a roaring run itself but over the years has dwindled into a small piddling stream. They have to deepen that channel and widen it so that the industries on the lower end of Jack's Run, upon which the economy of the community depends, are not flooded out. We have been told in writing, and we have been told in petitions, unless we do something these industries are going to move. The chances that they will move out of the State are good, because Mississippi, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina are not as niggardly in their appropriations to their Department of Commerce for moneys to go out and induce dissatisfied industries in other States to come into their State. They build plants for them and let them amortize them over a great many years.

Certainly, Mr. President, you can cut $25,000,000 or $20,000,000 from the Governor's request in that department and that is what you are doing. You do not have to do these things. You do not even have to buy a Ford, let alone a Lincoln or a Cadillac. You can walk if you want to, but that is not the economy of today. Yes, you can cut, for instance, Public Assistance $18,000,000. Maybe you can, I do not know. I only know that if I were unfortunate enough to be on public assistance and my children depended upon that department for food, and, incidentally, its program is one which is very well supervised since you gentlemen were responsible for it for sixteen years, I would not want to see this appropriation cut. We are only asking the amount of $15,895,000 in excess of the amount you asked for. This has been proven by the facts of your past administration. I stood on the floor and told you that you were going to be short anywhere from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 in public assistance, and that is what happened. I am not a particularly bright man, but I can add four and one and three and two, which is darn important here when we are talking about these matters.

Mr. President, now just get this picture here. I want to see how intelligent this cut is, Mr. Mahany. Under the economic development program, you have told the people that you can cut $27,200,000 from that program. The total budget for that program is only $20,000,000 in so far as the State is concerned. Eight and one half million dollars of that you voted for. It was sent over to the Governor with your unanimous vote for the economic redevelopment of the anthracite region. Was it political that you voted for that? Is the anthracite region the only region in the Commonwealth that requires economic redevelopment and consideration? The Governor signed that bill. Now $5,000,000 more of that I am sure, Mr. Mahany, you would not tell the people you would cut because that $5,000,000 is predicated upon a $5,000,000 matching fund from local governments and a contribution from the Federal government of $20,000,000.

I know you are intelligent, and I know that you want to do what is right. I cannot believe that you would say that the Commonwealth can refuse to spend $5,000,000 when there is an additional $25,000,000 being spent with it, or a $30,000,000 program for $5,000,000. It is not only bad arithmetic, but it is bad economics and bad politics, which is important.

Mr. President, you can go on through this list. You say you could cut $500,000 from the Governor's office. Certainly you can. You can easily cut $500,000. You can cut $800,000. You can pay the Governor, because you have to, as the law states. You can also take all his help from him. The $500,000 added to the Governor's office, which you want to cut, was put there upon the recommendation of an agency in Pennsylvania which is completely under the domination and is a creature of the manufacturers of this State. They recommended it to the Governor because they said that by the spending of this sum of money in his office under the patterns set up by them, the Commonwealth would benefit in dollars and cents in an amount much greater than the expenditure for the change in administrative policy. That was promoted by, recommended by, advocated by and put into effect under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Economy League.

We want the people to know that we are not anxious to destroy this government. When you overtax you can destroy a government. I think it was John Marshall who made that statement many years ago: "The power to tax is the power to destroy." We only ask you to sit down with us, a group from your side and a group from out side. I have begged you to do it for months and I am happy to say that we have had some meetings. I am sorry that these things come up, but we have a way of bringing them up out of tune. No orchestra can make music that is presentable to the ear of the listener if the bass viol is out of tune or the drums are off beat. We are trying to tune this General Assembly to an early adjournment if we can. I am so suspicious that we are not dealing in proper and good faith. I am hoping that I am wrong. I am not making that charge because I have nothing that I can put my fingers on, but if the Republicans have decided not to do anything until after the November elections, let us be honest to each other and to the people, and let us recess until after the November election.

Let us then, if we wish, create an impartial or a partial committee, whichever one you like best, and let us leaders in the General Assembly take our responsibilities, work out a program and present it to the Governor and say, "This we can agree upon, Governor. This is all we can get the votes for in the Senate and let us have this Session over with." You will do that sooner or later. Sooner or later you must come to that conclusion. So long as you have twenty-six votes bound in a unit, there is nothing we can do. I have talked to the individual members and I am sure that there are many on your side—in fact, I would say practically every man on your side realizes the futility and the hopelessness of pursuing the course we are pursuing.

I have heard you say many times that we did not help you in 1951. Who were we to help in 1951? You had the votes. You had more than a constitutional majority on your side. You were asking us to give you ten votes. You were divided and vociferous on the party of both the minority on your side and the majority on your side as to who was right. Senator Walker, the leader at that time, made many speeches in which he said that the budget could be cut so much. A spokesman for the Governor said that that was not true. Which side were we to support? Were we to support those who would not follow the Governor or were we to support the Governor of the Commonwealth? What position could we find ourselves in? Will you remember that, when you finally determined a program, you received Democratic votes for everyone of the tax bills that you decided upon?

Mr. President, these things are historical and they are in the record. Now, Mr. Mahany and Members of the Senate, the people of Pennsylvania must realize that our jobs are not easy. We have tried over the years to increase the expense accounts of the Members of the Senate and to make conditions better by giving some secretarial help in order that we can assume the proper responsibilities that the law demands that we assume. However, today no one can compare this job as a Member of this Senate to what the job was when Senator Graybill Diehm, Senator Ruth, Senator Chapman myself and perhaps some of the others who have been here twenty or more years first came into this body. In those days, the Session lasted six or seven weeks. No one ever questioned the budget figures. No one ever probed the possibilities of different tax sources because we had no facilities whatsoever. The only thing that belonged to a Senator at that time was his desk on the floor and half of a clothes closet in the rear. We have come up a little ways.

Mr. President, we try to compare ourselves with other States. In other States the Members of the General Assembly work year round; yes, they do but they are paid for it. They have proper offices, they have proper clerical help and when they want facts and figures they go to their own sources; they hold their own budget hearings. If we want to have the kind of government that this great, illustrious and industrious State must have, we have to get together at this time. With a divided House and a divided Senate, we can now establish the reforms in government which will probably alleviate this condition in the future. Right now we have the opportunity to stand before the people and say, "We are going to do this, we are going to create this agency that serves the General Assembly."

I have recommended for years, and I do so again now, a bipartisan Joint State Government Commission with equal numbers from both political parties, so that that agency can become the agency of the General Assembly and not of the political party which happens to be in power. That agency can, with the money that is spent there, the studies they make and the help they have and can get, be the kind of an informative bureau that will give us the figures which Mr. Mahany has to have and which I have to have if we are to properly represent our groups as their leaders. We ought to be able to go to a legislatively employed group and say to them, "How much money will come from this source of taxation," and we would then be in a position to accept their figures because they are servants of the General Assembly.

Therefore, Mr. President, let us do away with this hashing and haggling over how much can be cut from the budget, how much will be cut from the budget, what source of taxation we have or will have. Let us try to work together as a group of men interested primarily in the welfare of the peoples of Pennsylvania and, secondarily, in the welfare of our parties.

To go back to the previous question, Mr. Mahany and Mr. Kessler, and any other Member on the other side who feels aggrieved at some reported statement made by Senator Yosko, as one who witnessed the program, I can testify to you that he did not call you personal names. He did not call you a coward or anything else. I am sure that you can take my word for that.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, the gentleman from Crawford, Senatro Mahany, seems to be very touchy if anything is said that is not to his liking. However, the gentleman from Crawford does not practice what he preaches.

In his statement today about Mr. Thomas, the Secretary of Property and Supplies, he, by inference, made his past position appear as though it were below the dignity of a man who should be in the employ of government. Senator Mahany inferred that Mr. Thomas, because he was an operator of a small flower shop in his county back home, did not have the ability or the business experience to be the Secretary of Property and Supplies.

Mr. President, there are thousands and thousands of men who have little flower shops throughout Pennsylvania who are very good businessmen and have much more business experience than some of the other men whom Senator Mahany feels are qualified. In fact, I would like to call to the Members' attention that a Member of this Senate is a very successful owner of a little flower shop; namely, Senator Kopriver. I believe we all have respect for his ability and his integrity.

I think it is hitting below the belt when an attorney uses some of the things which are used in courts to confuse a jury in order to confuse the public by stating that he thought that Mr. Thomas should go back to his little flower shop. That, to me, is inferring that he does not have the ability to serve as the Secretary of the Department of Property and Supplies and that no operator of a flower shop in Pennsylvania has the ability to take his part in political life, as Mr. Thomas is now doing.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Mahany, I say this again, as a friend. You did refer to the increase of $600,000 in the Governor's budget sometime ago. I might suggest to you that if and when you debate the proposed cut, you do not lead with your chin again. During the testimony that was taken here, because of the bureaus which were set up in the Governor's Office, upon the recommendation of the Pennsylvania Economy League, one bureau up there—and I am not going to go into them all, I am just going to go into one—arranged, from a study it made, to get from the Surplus Commodities Administration $10,000,000 worth of surplus food instead of $4,000,000. Just that one project will more than pay for itself.

That was an indication to me that because of laxity in the past, under administrations that you represent, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania lost $6,000,000 in allocations of food to State institutions. Just that one project, alone, justifies the expenditure of the increase in the appropriation. The Governor does not spend a penny of that directly for the administration of his office. It was based on a recommendation of an agency that you said, yesterday, is a reliable agency and an agency which serves governments on all levels in an advisory capacity for purposes of economy and efficiency in government.

Mr. President, when that portion of it comes up for debate, Senator Mahany should be careful what he says and how he proposes to reduce the Governor's budget by $600.000.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, first I again want to thank Senator Yosko for his advice and I expect that when the Democratic Senators and the Democratic House Members, together with the Republican Senators and House Members, get together with the Pennsylvania Economy League we will be able to arrive at some definate figure as to what is needed in the way of the Governor's budget.

I want also Mr. President, to answer Senator Holland's accusation, because certainly when I made the statement about my good friend, Bill Thomas, I did not mean to infer that he was not qualified to be Secretary of the Department of Proporty and Supplies. If I had thought that, I certainly would not have voted for his confirmation. I have known Bill Thomas for many years. I have known him as a friend, and I did not mean to infer, in any way whatsoever, that Bill Thomas was not qualified to be Secretary of Property and Supplies. I did say that if he had been down here in 1951 and 1953, instead of taking care of his little flower shop, then he would have seen at first hand what we were going through in the way of work to cut the Governor's budget.

This is not the first attempt on our part to cut the Governor's budget. We cut Governor Fine's budget both in 1951 and 1953. How Senator Holland can jump to the conclusion that I meant to infer that people who run little flower shops in Pennsylvania should not be down here as Secretary of Property and Supplies. I do not know. That certainly would be a far jump to conclude that from what I said. Of course, any merchant, whether he be large or small, is qualified as far as running his particular shop is concerned to come down here either to serve in the Senate, in the House or in any other departments of government. That is shown by the background, let us say, of Governor Leader who ran either a large chicken farm or a small chicken farm. We do not detract from him because of the fact that he was in that particular business before.

I want Senator Holland to know and my good friend, Bill Thomas, to know that there was no inference at all of any ineligibility that he might have by reason of having operated a flower shop. I want that definitely understood that there was no such inference in my remarks.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, the exact words which the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany, said were that if that is all Mr. Thomas knew about the budget, then he should go back to his little flower shop. Those words were said by the gentleman from Crawford. If he wants to delete those words from his statement, I will be very glad to reconsider what I have said.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. McMENAMIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, under the present public school law, school boards are authorized to retire teachers at the age of sixty-two. One of the problems that all of us are concerned with is how to provide employment in later years for that constantly growing portion of our population which is known as senior citizens.

I think all of us know, also, that one of the many problems which the public school system faces is a shortage of teachers. It seems not sensible in this day and age for teachers to be retired at age sixty-two. Certainly, some of our best teachers in the public schools are teachers with years of experience. I believe that the law should be corrected to raise the minimum retirement age in the public schools of Pennsylvania to sixty-five.

Therefore, on behalf of myself and Senator Mallery, from Blair County, I am introducing this bill.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE RESOLUTIONS FOR CONCURRENCE

SENATE SERIAL No. 113.

In the Senate, March 1, 1955.

The Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza is purportedly reminiscent of ancient and generally outmoded practices in its treatment of female prisoners.

Recent reports from reputable sources state that the girls at Morganza are confined in cells with inadequate heating, clothing, food and no toilet facilities. Conditions such as these are certainly not in furtherance of the new and enlightened concepts of training school techniques which our Commonwealth has adopted; and therefore it appears an investigation is necessary to ascertain the truth of these reports and to determine how these conditions can be best remedied.

These charges cast reflections upon the integrity of all public officials and must create serious doubts and grave apprehensions among the people concerning the good conduct of our government. An immediate, impartial investigation of these charges is necessary in order to remedy these conditions, if true, or to protect the good name of public officials and institutions, if false.

In order to aid in the development of the program of this administration in cooperation with and approval by the Department of Welfare for the enlightened treatment, cure and rehabilitation of these unfortunate patients; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concurs), that in the interest of fair play the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint four members of the Senate, two of whom shall be Republicans and two Democrats, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint four members of the House, two of whom shall be Republicans and two Democrats, who together shall constitute a Joint Commission and be authorized and directed to make an immediate investigation of all the charges made and to hear all suggestions of an enlightened and progressive program for the proper operation of this institution.

The Committee shall have the power to issue Subpoenas under its hand and seal requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and answer questions touching matters properly being inquired into and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such Subpoenas shall have the force and effect of Subpoenas issued out of the Courts of this Commonwealth. The committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before them. Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to testify before the committee or to produce books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases; and be it further

Resolved that the committee make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations for appropriate legislation at the earliest possible date before the adjournment of this session of the General Assembly.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE SERIAL No. 145.

In the Senate, September 12, 1955.

Whereas, The laws affecting domestic relations are many and varied, and

Whereas, No one court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the causes arising under such laws; but the parties involved are required to submit to the jurisdiction of several courts, and

Whereas, Such divided jurisdiction in matters of the family relationship leads to delay, expense, multiplicity of actions and confusion; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate the jurisdiction of the several courts of the Commonwealth concerning and arising out of the family relationship; and the feasibility of establishing a Court of Domestic Relations in each judicial district with jurisdiction to hear and determine all such causes, and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

COMMUNICATIONS

RESOLUTIONS—ESTABLISHMENT OF YOUTH ACTIVITY CAMPS

The SPEAKER laid before the House resolutions Nos. 13 and 14 adopted by the Philadelphia Federation of Teachers endorsing the establishment of Youth Activity Camps.

Referred to the Committee on Education.

RESOLUTION—ADDITIONAL BUILDINGS FOR DEFECTIVE CHILDREN

The SPEAKER laid before the House a resolution adopted by the Pennsylvania Council of Juvenile Court Judges urging the erection of additional buildings for defective children.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, at the start of this session, we continually asked the question: What are you up to and who are you trying to fool?

We have tried to find the answer to that question ever since, and now we have come to the conclusion that even some of you on the other side of the House don't know what you are up to. You are just as much in the dark as everybody else. The Governor is not telling you any more than he is telling the public.

Let us take the matter of how much money the State needs to operate during the next two years.

Last April Governor Leader said he would need approximately $520 million in additional money, tax money, for the general fund.

Then in August, after his wage tax was defeated, he made the statement that he needed approximately $460 million. Last week he said $456 million. And now, the Appropriation Committee has reported bills out saying that it will only need $445 million. It will probably in the next two or three months or the next week or next month,—we don't know how long we are going to stay here,—it will probably be down to $400 million.

Nobody seems to know on your side, from day to day, nor does the Governor, how much you are actually going to need.

A month ago Governor Leader said there wasn't a single dollar that could be cut in the budget. And he insisted on that in going over this state. Now, the Speaker of this House has made a suggestion, and has said that appropriations can be reduced by approximately $30 millions.

At least we Republicans have been consistent. We have said from the very beginning that Governor Leader was asking for $200 million too much tax money in his program.

Before the Governor's wage tax was defeated, and while he was still insisting that the Legislature give him $520 million in increased taxes, you reported out all of the appropriation bills, even though we told you time and time again that we would not vote for them. We took the position that we should not be asked to vote for apporpriations until we knew where the money was coming from.

We still don't know where the money is going to come from, but we today are going to vote to send the appropriation bills to the Senate. Why?

We are doing this, not because we have changed our minds. Far from that. We are even more determined than ever to give the people the economy in government that they the people are demanding.

We are voting to send these appropriations to the Senate so that they can be revised in a common sense and realistic manner. The Senate, the Republican Senate, has agreed to do that.

We are against blank check appropriations. We want to give the Republican majority in the Senate a chance to spell out exactly how much money is to be spent.

We would like to do it here, but you have the votes, and certainly any attempt on our part to amend these bills on the floor would be a pure waste of time.

Certainly it makes sense to first of all definitely find out how much money we are going to need in this state before we even consider a tax bill. And our Republican Senate has agreed to work on that principle and that basis so that we will not be taking one extra cent of tax money from the people of Pennsylvania more than we need.

We certainly cannot break this budget deadlock until these appropriations are in complete control of the Senate.

We feel that once the Senate makes the economies that the people of Pennsylvania demand, Governor Leader will then realize that he can no longer maintain his attitude and threaten to jeopardize our schools and our hospitals and our other essential state needs if so much money is not appropriated.

There certainly must be a compromise sometime, but there can never be a compromise as long as one party keeps insisting that he will never give up.

We know and you know that the Governor's budget is out of line. Facts have proven that.

We know and you know that he is asking for too much money. He himself has proven that.

We know and you know that when we propose an increase of approximately $165 million more than was spent in the last biennium, that we are proposing as big an increase as ever has been made in this state before. Just because the increase is less than Governor Leader wants does not mean that any state service is going to suffer. We can assure you of that.

That is just not true, no matter what the Governor says, or will try to convince the people of.

There will be substantial increases in what the Senate will propose for education, for mental health, for our colleges, our universities and our hospitals.

But there won't be extra millions for the building of a gigantic political machine.

We see no reason under the sun why we should give more money to run the departments of the state government than they have ever received before, especially after the Governor was elected to office by promising the people that he could do the job for $100 million less than the Republicans could do it.

We are going to pass those appropriations to-day, Mr. Speaker, we are going to supply the votes. We are going to supply the votes on your non-preferred appropriations which will affect our state aided hospitals, our colleges and our universities. We are going to supply 100 per cent of the votes by those on this side of the House. We have some differences on the preferred appropriations. There may be some individuals who might not vote for all of the bills. But there will be sufficient votes to pass the non-preferred appropriations which we understand need 140. That is the reason we have changed our position. Our attitude is exactly the same as it was. But, gentleman, we have to get to a position where we can solve this fiscal problem for the people of Pennsylvania. They are not only getting sick and tired of our staying here, we are getting sick and tired of it, the people want the matter solved and we feel that this is the way it has to be solved now. We feel a Republican Senate will have to make economies. They will send the bills back to the House and then it will be our decision in this House, yours and ours, to either support or turn those bills down. That is the reason, the basic reason, we are proposing to vote for these bills today.

INTERROGATION

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Minority Leader, Mr. Charles C. Smith.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Minority Leader.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Minority Leader, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to say that he feels now that the appropriation bills should be reduced in the Senate and will be reduced in the Senate?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that sitting in the conference with the Governor, the Republican Senate has said they will compromise on supplying votes for some for tax bills if they met, the taxes that is, with the approval of the Republican Senate. But they said that their part of the compromise would mean one thing, that economies would have to be made in the recommendations in the Governor's budget, and that they desired the Governor himself to make those economies. They gave them to him in large round figures, they didn't break them down for him. When the appropriation bills are given to the Senate I believe, that a Republican Senate will suggest itemized budgetary items to make economies in the Governor's budget. Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. LOVETT. The gentleman does not exactly answer my question. I would like to know whether or not he thinks these appropriations which are being made to the institutions for state services should be further reduced?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I can answer that only by saying this, Mr. Speaker, if the appropriations are for more money than is actually needed to give the people of Pennsylvania good services, yes, they should be reduced.

Mr. LOVETT. Does the gentleman feel that is true of these appropriations at this time, with the information that he now has?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I must say, Mr. Speaker, that we in the House have not gone into the great detail that the Senate has, although I must say that I feel in some cases that might be true.

Mr. LOVETT. May I further ask the gentleman if he feels that way at this particular time, if it was not a good idea on the part of the Majority Party to pass these bills over to the Senate months ago and allow the Senate to do the very thing that he says is going to be done?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, months ago when we made our decision there was no tax bill that had been voted on by the House. The tax bill was voted on by the House and was cast out of the window by a Republican Senate. At that time our stand was perfectly right. But certainly, Mr. Speaker, we can not stay here day in and day out and talk of a compromise, and talk of getting out of here for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania, and solving our budgetary problems, if we don't take some action.

Mr. LOVETT. May I further ask the gentleman what difference it makes in regard to whether or not there was a tax program passed.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Well, Mr. Speaker, it made a big difference, in view of the fact that we didn't agree on the taxes and knew that we were not going to agree on the taxes, up until that time the Governor seemed to have forgotten one thing, that he now talks about. The Governor was taking a calculated risk and he lost. The Governor stood on this rostrum at the beginning of this session and talked bi-partisanship. From the very moment he stood there he tried to knock the brains out of the Republican party and he tried to blame everything he could on them, as far as deficits are concerned, and the Governor never, never once, until his tax program was licked and defeated, said "What do you gentlemen propose." That was the bi-partisan compromise. The Governor, as I say, took a calculated risk.

He knew on January 1st that he had a divided legislature and that was the time, if he wanted to be a statesman and wanted to be a Governor of Pennsylvania for all of the people, he should have called the Republicans in, and we would be out of here by now. We would not have put through eight months of "politicking" and eight months of trying to make each other look bad. The Governor knew that then and he took the risk. He took his gamble and when he threw the dice he lost. After he lost then he was willing to bring in the Republicans to talk to him. He should have done that January 1st. Let me say to you, Mr. Speaker, and I don't say it because he called the Republicans in, but I do say this, that if he had acted in a true spirit of compromise, today we would be out of here and home, the people of Pennsylvania would have a tax program, they would have been satisfied with it, business would have been able to come into Pennsylvania and they would have known how they were going to be taxed. That is the difference eight months makes.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker and I want to say to the Membership of the House that in all fairness the Governor of Pennsylvania is the executive branch of the government and the Legislature is the legislative Branch of the government.

Therefore, I can not see any difference between passing these bills now and passing them months ago. If you allowed them to go to the Senate then you would have received the same action that you are going to receive now. So it is only a matter of delay for political purposes. In all fairness I don't believe in this political action. I think we should have passed them over to the Senate because that is where they have to go. That is where the decision will have to be made. They will come back to the House for our consideration. I think it was only a matter of delay on the part of the Minority side of this House that we didn't pass those bills at that time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill and make a brief statement on the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, I would refresh the gentleman's memory that early in August I interrogated him relative to this bill. I would like to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, whether any change was made in House Bill 1599 while it was in Committee?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, there have been no changes in House Bill 1599 since it was recommitted.

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, does that mean that the bill before us now is in the same form as when it was first reported out from the Appropriations Committee?

Mr. POLEN. It is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOSCRIP. May I further ask the gentleman then, Mr. Speaker, are we still dealing with the sum of 426,840 odd dollars. Is that correct?

Mr. POLEN. No, I believe the amount is $535 million in this particular bill.

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, I don't think I made my question clear to the gentleman. The sum that he and I were discussing in our last interrogation, I believe, was a total of $426,840,779 on a break down that the gentleman gave me. Can the gentleman tell me, please, if that figure still is accurate?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, that is the amount that was in the budget and in the bill for instruction, and the amount is the same.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I would ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, does the amount appropriated for subsidies on the basis of teaching units in this bill contemplate any increase in teachers' salaries over and above the increments mandated by existing law?

Mr. POLEN. It does not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I would further ask, does House Bill 1599 represent all of the funds proposed to be appropriated for the ordinary expenses in the Department of Public Instruction?

Mr. POLEN. It does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I would further ask, Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman familiar in a general way with the provisions of House Bills 583 and 584?

Mr. POLEN. In a general way I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I would further ask then if these bills are subsequently passed, would additional appropriations be required to implement them?

Mr. POLEN. Additional appropriations would be required, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I would further ask if the gentleman is prepared to tell us at this time whether the passing of 1599 today means that we will have no salary increase for our teachers at this session of the Legislature?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I could not answer that question other than to say that if the House and Senate pass the two bills that were referred to by the gentleman, we then, of course, would have to provide the money for the increases that are in the companion bills to the salary increase bill.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I would suggest to the gentleman if such action were contemplated it would probably be a lot more logical and convenient if it were done prior to the passage of this act here, would it not?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the passage of the two bills referred to would cost millions of dollars. I believe they should be deferred until such a time as we provide the money to pay for the obligations we have already assumed and that are in the present budget and in the bill that we are discussing.

Mr. MOSCRIP. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to pose a few questions and make a few remarks on the merits of this bill as briefly as possible.

As I stated the other day when I rose on this same question, it was my hope when this bill went back into Committee that provision would be made for teacher's salaries. I can appreciate the gentleman's position and his answers to my questions about House Bills 583 and 584, but I think it is entirely logical now for us to assume that there will be no teachers' salary increase this session. It would appear that none was ever intended because House Bill 1599 as originally drawn carried no provision for additional teachers' salaries.

I am particularly concerned about this, Mr. Speaker, because it is a serious social setback for our children of school age, as it is readily apparent that our school teacher supply system is in very bad shape. Anyone acquainted with the securing of teachers can tell you that we are in a seller's market, we are being pinched from two ends with the scarity of teachers and a constant increase in our school population.

It would seem to me that the money for this could be well spent. We are appropriating millions of dollars, and we do every session, for relief, welfare and health, for problems such as unemployment compensation and for fair employment practices. I do not mean to imply that these are not worthy subjects, they are, but they are aimed to cure a great many problems which we could eliminate through proper education. I wonder if we are not being a little uneconomical if we are going to continue to try to meet these problems at the adult stage of a person's life and gloss over our educational system, when in a couple of generations, perhaps, we could eliminate a great many of them through proper education and thereby reduce the appropriations we make every session for these various fields.

I am so concerned about this question that it has raised a serious problem in my mind how I should vote on this bill. I felt it was sufficiently important at one time that perhaps I would vote against the bill if it did not provide for any salary increase. However, I have now decided to take the position that half a loaf is better than none.

There are a great many commendable features in this bill and with that understanding, I intend to vote for it.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I am in thorough sympathy with the position of the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Moscrip. We must have an adequate salary schedule in Pennsylvania for our teachers, but I believe our first obligation is to provide the funds to pay for the increases and the increments that we have already granted.

I do not in any way rule out that increases could be granted and consideration given to the two bills referred to, but I think first it is our duty to provide the funds to pay the bills which we have already assumed and for which we have not provided funds.

My own position on the question of teachers' salaries I think is a public record. During my first term in the House I sponsored House Bill 277, which resulted in the first increase in the fourth class district teachers' salaries in twenty years and gave them the first increments that they had ever received. I have supported all legislation granting higher salaries and better conditions for teachers, and I think the Democratic Party, who gave the teachers of Pennsylvania the Teachers Tenure Act, has also supported that position.

We are down to hard, cold facts. Previous sessions of this Legislature, and I voted for these bills, have given benefits and increases to the teachers of Pennsylvania and provided companion bills to help in the reimbursement to local school districts.

I reiterate that it is our first duty to vote and pass a tax program to pay those bills and I feel sure sympathetic consideration will and can be given to further increases for teachers after we have the funds to pay the bill. I think that is a necessity and it would be silly to pass these bills and increase this budget when we do not have the funds available to pay for what has been mandated.

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, I would like to reply briefly to the gentleman.

I can see the logic of his argument. The only difficulty is that we were led to believe through the platform and the campaign of his own party, and even in some of the speeches that were made on the floor in justification of the income tax program, that one of the main aims of his party was to increase our educational facilities to raise teachers' salaries, and stop these over-state-line raids on our teachers.

Of course, it is up to him to determine the priority and the importance of these commitments.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Polen, and also ask permission to make a brief statement.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that this bill includes an appropriation for the Thaddeus Stephens Trade School. Is that correct?

Mr. POLEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, could the gentleman tell me what the amount of that appropriation is?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I believe it is—if the gentleman will give me a minute, I will get the information.

Mr. Speaker, it includes $45,000 for the Thaddeus Stephens Training School.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me, is the Thaddeus Stephens Trade School supposed to be operated principally for the admission of orphans, half-orphans and poor children in general?

Mr. POLEN. I believe that is correct, Mr. Speaker

Mr. GARLOCK, Mr. Speaker, I wish to state my reasons for my vote on this bill. I am going to vote "no" on this bill and I wish to state my reasons.

My reasons are that this bill includes an appropriation of $45,000 for the Thaddeus Stephens Trade School. The school is operated under the pretense of being a school for orphans, first, secondly, for half-orphans, third, for poor people, for people of poor families at large.

My understanding of the definition of poor people at large are people with little or no means at all During the last five or six years of the people that have been admitted to this school that I know of, there have been none of them orphans. The bulk of them came from families with both the father and mother working. In my thinking, that is not what the school is supposed to be operated for.

Therefore, I cannot vote for an appropriation to support a school that is operating under false pretenses.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate Mr. McCann from Greene County, the Chairman of the Education Committee.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Greene County, Mr. McCann, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCANN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman if House Bills 583 and 584 are not now in his Committee?

Mr. McCANN. They are, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman about how long they have been in that Committee?

Mr. McCANN. Very likely since the period of either April or May, Mr. Speaker. I am not sure of the exact date, The House index carries it.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman, so that the membership of the House may know about what we are talking, if House Bill 583 does not provide for setting the minimum salary of school teachers at $3,000 in Pennsylvania, providing an immediate salary adjustment of $400 for all teachers and professional employes in 1955 and 1956, in addition to any increments to which they are entitled, and also to provide an additional increase of $200 for classroom teachers of ten or more year's experience?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 583 does that as well as some other items which he failed to mention. Basically those are all correct.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman whether or not House Bill 584 is not the bill which sets up the subsidy payments by the state to the local school districts to cary out the purpose of House Bill 583?

Mr. McCANN. It does exactly that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman quote me any figures as to about how much this entire program will cost?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the Department of Public Instruction tells me, and I believe Mr. Young on the Minority side has the same figures, that the increments at the present time amount to $50,100 roughly, the administrative personnel approximately $2,000, constituting in the neighborhood of $53,000 under increments, and when we talked of the entire number under House Bill 583 we used the mathematical figure of $65,000, which in turn under the bills comes in the neighborhood, when you boil it right down, of between $72 to $78 million in House Bills 583 and 584 as now written, this is, in round figures. I actually can bring it down, it would take a week's work on the report, but I can bring it down to actual dollars and cents, but just in round figures it is in that neighborhood.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I am willing to accept the gentleman's figures of approximately $72 million, or something slightly in excess of that, to carry out the provisions of these two bills.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if from his experience in the educational field and as Chairman of the Education Committee whether or not he does not consider that these two bills are practically mandatory for this session of the Legislature to pass in order that Pennslyvania may have the benefit of competent school teachers for our school children in Pennslyvania second to none in the union.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, being a man who has always believed in good sound educational policies, truthfully I will tell you it is not even enough as it is.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman now answer me whether or not, without violating any confidence, which I would not ask him to do, there have been any talks between him and the adminstration as to whether or not these bill will come out of Committee?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I have talked many times about these bills both with the Governor and the Budget Director, and everyone else connected with education, as well as those who must vote for and provide the money. He knows as well as I do, and as every one in this House knows, that we are trying to meet that very problem, particularly when we realize what the neighboring states that border Pennsylvania have set into their scale laws regarding teaching units and teacher's salaries.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has not quite answered my question, so I will have to come back at him.

Has there been any indication from the administration that these bills will come out of Committee? Can he tell me that without violating a confidence?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, we are not now discussing those two bills. I think all remarks should be stricken from the record with reference to those two bills.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman's point of order I respectfully submit that we are speaking on and debating House Bill 1599. Everything that I have put into my question is pointing to debate on that bill and it will later come out.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question before the House is on House Bill 1599, Printer's No. 657. The debate will be confined to that bill.

The gentlemen will proceed.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman whether or not these two bills are not of necessity related to any appropriations made in the public school education bill which we are now considering?

Mr. McCANN. They are not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman then, if they are not appropriated in this bill, how the appropriations would come about if these bills would come out of Committee?

Mr. McCANN. Separate bills, Mr, Speaker, and a separate appropriation bill to take care of House Bill 584 which calls for the money to be given to the school districts to reimburse the teaching unit.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I would further like to ask the gentleman then in view of the —

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. AUKER. I would like to warn the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, if he wants to keep it up there is more than one way to twist a cat's tail.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHERMAN. I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentlemen to confine themselves to House Bill 1599. It has been specifically stated that the other two bills are not part of 1599.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlemen will confine themselves to the question before the House, which is House Bill 1599, Printer's No. 657.

The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I again submit that I am talking on House Bill 1599, because House Bill 1599, we contend, does not carry enough appropriations to properly take care of the public school education requirements in this state. That is the point I am getting at in my interrogation.

I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen.

I thank the gentleman from Greene, Mr, McCann.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, permit himslef to be interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Washington, if the moneys are not provided for in 1599, or this bill amended to provide for the revenues that would be necessary to carry out the provisions of House Bills 583 and 584, just how they would be carried out if they are not provided for in this bill?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, the funds provided for in House Bill 1599 are to take care of existing legislation and in the amounts that are now on the statute books. They do not anticipate any bills that might be passed in the future. They would of necessity require additional appropriations.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I might ask the gentleman from Washington, the administration leader, if the administration does not anticipate additional appropriations being needed to take care of the educational requirements of the state?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would say that the administration, from the Governor down, is very sympathetic and knows very well the need for legislation to improve teachers' salaries in Pennsylvania. However, I believe I have stated before that this is a matter which is not for determination at this time until we have provided the money to finance the mandated increments that are now on the statute books.

Mr. AUKER. I should like to further interrogate the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman then if the interests of the administration in public school education and keeping the requirements of our own public schools system up in comparison with other states is not of sufficient height that it should be embodied in this one bill, this being the bill that provides for subsidies for teachers in the state?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, that is a very difficult question to answer, but I would say, although I am not the spokesman for the administration, that they do have a very deep interest in the educational program in Pennsylvania, and I feel that every consideration will be given to the bill to which the gentleman refers.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to further ask the gentleman how much foundation we have to believe that the administration is sufficiently interested that they will bring out these other bills and pass the appropriation bills necessary to carry them out?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I will answer the gentleman by stating that if we can get a tax program through that will provide the funds to pay for the mandated increases that we now have on the statute books and provide additional money to take care of the bills he refers to, I feel certain that the administration will give them their backing.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman whether it is not more important that we pass the bills that are necessary and the appropriations necessary to do it, than to pass the tax bills to meet that requirement?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, on that question the policy that the gentleman on the other side has been following is to the contrary. However, it would be a question of policy whether we should increase and pass bills that would cost $75 to $80 millions. Seems to me that it would be poor policy to do that now when we have not provided for the obligations that we are duty bound to pay.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to clarify the gentleman's remarks as to our stand on appropriation bills. We are now in the position that we are passing appropriation bills to find out how much the state does need and actually needs, and I say that this is one of the requirements that the state does actually need—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman yield? Has the gentleman completed his interrogation of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen?

Mr. AUKER. Not yet, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. AUKER. —does actually need and that these appropriations should be in this bill as being necessary. We are passing appropriation bills to find out how much the state does need, then we are going to raise the taxes to meet that amount. That is the proper way to balance and budget.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to further ask the gentleman whether or not in the present budget as submitted there could be any funds allocated from any other—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHERMAN. I rise to a point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, again the gentleman is not interrogating the gentleman from this side. I think he has not finished his interrogation, but instead he is making a speech and I do object to a speech.

Mr. AUKER. I have one more question, Mr. Speaker, that I would like to ask the gentleman, then I am through with my interrogation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair suggests that the gentleman confine his remarks and his interrogation to the bill before the House and that he limit his interrogation, as he says, to one more question.

Will the gentleman from Washington permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. AUKER. I will take the lawyer's way about it then, Mr. Speaker.

Since the appropriations for these increases which would be necessary under House Bills 583 and 584 are not in House Bill 1599, that brings this bill squarely into the question; is there any way that allocations could be made out of the present budget, as submitted to the Education Department to pay the moneys that would be necessary to carry out the provisions of 583 and 584 without a special appropriation bill being passed to do so?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, it would be impossible to pay out of the present budget the amounts required by the passage of the two bills referred to.

Mr. AUKER. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to correct a statement I made in answer to the interrogation of the gentleman from Fulton, Mr. Garlock.

He asked the question as to the amount that was in House Bill 1599 for the Thaddeus Stevens Training School, and I replied $45,000. I was relying upon information given me by the Majority Leader, whose eyesight was not quite as good as it should have been, and I would like to correct that amount to $845,000. Mr. Readinger said that the "8" looked like a dollar mark.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask all the Members on both sides of the House to help defeat this bill inasmuch as it carries that much of an appropriation because, as I said before, it is definitely a school that is operating under false pretenses.

I have had occasion to have two orphan boys turned down, half-orphans, by this school when they are accepting pupils who come from fairly well-to-do families.

I would plead with the House to defeat this bill, at least until such time as we can take this appropriation out of the bill.

Mr. KNECHT. Mr. Speaker, as a school director for about thirty years and a former school teacher who began his teaching at a salary of $50 per month for eight months of the year, I have always been very sympathetic to the school teachers, who are underpaid. It has been a source of great disappointment to me that this budget and this bill make no provision for increases in the salaries of the teachers other than the mandatory increments of former Legislatures.

As a director in a small community, we have seen our teachers migrating to the larger and more wealthy districts because of the attractive salaries that those districts have been able to offer them. The small districts have suffered considerably in having these more experienced teachers lost to the more wealthy districts.

We have seen our taxes rise year after year until the maximum allowed by law has been reached, and still we have been able to pay only the minimum salaries that the law provides. That has seriously crippled our endeavors to provide for our children the services that every child in the Commonwealth is entitled to have.

I feel it has been a very serious mistake and we are thinking too much in terms of dollars and cents and taxes and not enough in terms of the welfare of the children of this Commonwealth. The local school districts can no longer continue to keep up the increases in salaries in the smaller districts. The question of increasing those salaries is one that devolves upon the state, and if the state falls down in that then we in the rural districts are going to suffer greatly in our educational endeavors.

I was very hopeful that the bills which would provide for the $400 increments and the companion tax bill would have been brought out of Committee. I am going to go along on this measure, but I certainly hope these other bills will be brought out. I for one will certainly vote for any increase in taxes needed to meet that $400 additional salary to the teachers.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MOSCRIP. Mr. Speaker, this bill is what is commonly known as the relief appropriation fund which each biennium is a large amount. As we all know, vast sums have been spent for relief. It is my considered opinion, Mr. Speaker, that there is a tremendous amount of duplication and waste in the way that this money has been administered. I am frank and honest enough to admit that my party has not been faultless in this particular feature.

This is one of the points I raised a few moments ago when I was on the floor of this House, the money that can be cut out of this fund can be used to much better advantage if put into our schools to teach this coming generation to work with their hands and be self-supporting.

There has been very much said in the papers lately, as you have been reading, about the membership of these boards. I would simply make this suggestion, that the administration in handling this money be as careful about judging the actual needs of the recipients of relief as they have been about the political affiliations of the local relief boards.

I would suggest further that our liaison man from the executive branch be used at Washington not to secure more money for relief, but to work with them to see in what way money can be saved and to secure their cooperation on a grant in aid basis.

Mr. Speaker, I am fully aware of the criticism that can be levelled against me by some of the more enthusiastic supporters to the effect that because I am standing here I want to see people starve. That is far from the truth, but I do not believe, and a lot of the rest of us do not believe, this thing should reach the point where we put a premium on idleness. It is my opinion that if we have not already arrived there, we are very close.

For these reasons I intend to oppose this bill.

Mr. AUKER. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, very briefly.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, permit himself to be interrogated very briefly?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker, very briefly.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman if it is correct that this bill carries $99,470,000 for the biennium? Is that correct?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, this particular bill at this time carries that amount. It is not the amount, however, that is budgeted, because we have previously passed two stop-gap appropriation bills for public assistance of $15 million each. So to the total cost of the Department of Public Assistance should be added the $30 million which we deducted from this bill.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, then I should like to ask this gentleman if that would not make the total appropriation for public assistance $129,470,000 for the present biennium?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question I would say that the original amount requested in the budget by the Budget Director for the Governor was $138 million. The Committee on Appropriations reduced that amount by $7 million to $131 million, and I believe there is some adjustment in there that accounts for the odd dollars.

Mr. AUKER. Then the total appropriation would be in the neighborhood of $131 million, is that correct, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. POLEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair lays before the House the Special Order of Business fixed for this time, being House Bill No. 1629, Printer's No. 672, on page 36 of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1629 as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-second day of August one thousand nine hundred fifty-three (Appropriation Acts page 54) entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred fifty-three" providing for deficiencies in certain appropriations made by the act for the fiscal biennium ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred fifty-five

Section 1 The following sums or as much thereof as may be necessary for deficiencies in certain appropriations made to the Department of Public Instruction and the Department of State by the act to which this is a supplement are hereby specifically appropriated to such departments as follows

I EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

To the Department of Public Instruction

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, if the membership will glance at this bill, they will find that it is another bill in the language of a "deficiency appropriation bill." We are objecting to this bill on the same grounds that were expressed yesterday on House Bill 1628.

I again have in front of me the message of the Governor of January 25, 1955, wherein he states that the appropriations in this bill are not payable until after May 31, 1955. These appropriations are for the contingent reserve account in the general fund of $967,000, annuity reserve account No. 2 of $7.5 million and State Employes Retirement Fund interest deficiency of $2.6 million. According to the Governor's message these appropriations are not payable until this biennium. Therefore, the word "deficiency" should be stricken out of this bill.

Therefore, for the same reasons as expressed yesterday, I am asking the Members of the House to vote against this bill, as it is not a correct bill and in our opinion is unconstitutional because you cannot pass a deficiency bill for the last biennium. As was stated, we operated at least at the $46 million deficit that I told you about yesterday.

Therefore, I ask the House to vote against this bill.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I think the membership's memory from yesterday is quite good. The reasons are all the same, and I think we should now proceed to vote on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mrs. REIBMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to file the following reasons for my vote.

I voted against this appropriation not because I am opposed to historical shrines and the place they take in our historical development, but I opposed the expenditure of money now on this item which I consider as "frills" at this time when money is so desperately needed for education, welfare and mental health. For the same principle that I voted against salary increase for Legislators, is why I voted against this bill.

Agreeably to order,

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mrs. REIBMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to file the following reasons for my vote.

I voted against this appropriation not because I am opposed to historical shrines and the place they take in our historical development, but I opposed the expenditure of money now on this item which I consider as "frills" at this time when money is so desperately needed for education, welfare and mental health. For the same principle that I voted against salary increase for Legislators, is why I voted against this bill.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1657 as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission for the preservation and improvement of the Drake Museum and the Drake Well Memorial Park

Section 1 The sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission for the further preservation and improvement of the birthplace of the world's petroleum industry at Drake Well Memorial Park for raising sections of the park area above flood level and for repairing the dike along Oil Creek and for other incidental and contingent expenses necessary to protect the Drake Museum and other buildings from damage by flood or other hazard.

And said bll having been read at length the third tim, considered and agreed to.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mrs. REIBMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to file the following reasons for my vote.

I voted against this appropriation not because I am opposed to historical shrines and the place they take in our historical development, but I opposed the expenditure of money now on this item which I consider as "frills" at this time when money is so desperately needed for education, welfare and mental health. For the same principle that I voted against salary increase for Legislators, is why I voted against this bill.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1658 as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission for the maintenance and development of the Daniel Boone Homestead

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mrs. REIBMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to file the following reasons for my vote.

I voted against this appropriation not because I am opposed to historical shrines and the place they take in our historical development, but I opposed the expenditure of money now on this item which I consider as "frills" at this time when money is so desperately needed for education, welfare and mental health. For the same principle that I voted against salary increase for Legislators, is why I voted against this bill.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1665 as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for the use of the Valley Forge Park Commission in the acquisition of land

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of twelve thousand forty-five dollars ($12,045) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Forests and Waters for the payment of expenses incurred in acquisition by purchase or condemnation of properties demolition of buildings incident to the purchase of land by the Valley Forge Park Commission for the development of Valley Forge State Park

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 142 as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 2, 1949 (P. L. 872) entitled "An act granting credit toward pension or retirement benefits of certain members of the police force employed by political subdivisions for time spent in military service of the United States" granting credit for military service during armed conflicts

Section 1 Section 1 act of May 2, 1949 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act granting credit toward pension or retirement benefits of certain members of the police force employed by political subdivisions for time spent in the military service of the United States" is amended to read

Section 1 Any member of the police force employed by a political subdivision who has been a regularly appointed employe of any such political subdivision for a period of at least six months and who thereafter shall heretofore or hereafter be inducted into the military service of the United States in time of war armed conflict or national emergency so proclaimed by the President of the United States shall have credited to his employment record for pension or retirement benefits all of the time spent by him in such military service during the continuance of such war armed conflict or national emergency if such person returns or has heretofore returned to his employment within six months after his separation from the service

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to make a brief statement which is applicable to several bills which follow relating to veterans.

The House several weeks ago passed similar bills and they are now in a Senate Committee. However, the Senate has passed these bills and sent them over to the House, and rather than get into a wrangle as to whether the House bills should become the bills finally enacted or the Senate bills, we have decided that these bills should be reported out and enacted so that they can go on the statute books of the Commonwealth.

We want the public to know that both sides are equally interested in the affairs of veterans and, therefore, we are moving these bills to final passage.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. 87

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up Resolution No. 87 on page 58 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read by the Clerk or follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 25, 1955.
(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 87.

The personal, family, social, medical, financial and related problems arising from the continued increase in the number and proportion of Pennsylvanians of advanced age are of growing magnitude.

These problems are of such striking significance and so intricate as to warrant special and intensive attention by the Commonwealth.

All aspects of this rise in the aging population presents the Commonwealth with increasingly serious social and human problems; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to make a comprehensive and intensive study of the State-wide needs and problems of the aging and the aged and to develop in cooperation with other governmental and voluntary groups ways and means to assist the Commonwealth in meeting these needs and problems and in such study the commission may appoint and consult with a Citizen Advisory Committee of competent lay and professional citizens who have demonstrated interests in and knowledge of the aging and the aged. Such study shall concentrate on the following:

1. Employment opportunities for older persons.
2. Facilities and services for the aged including counseling and personal services, employment guidance and placement services, medical care service, institutional services, treatment and rehabilitation for the chronically ill, care of and rehabilitation for the disabled and the handicapped, recreation, education and related community services.
3. Analysis of the problems of the aged receiving old-age assistance with special reference to the adequacy of grants and standards of living, boarding homes and other sheltered care for the indigent aged.
4. Special attention to the problems of care and treatment of the senile aged.
5. Study of other special needs as develop in the course of the study; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission shall report to the General Assembly on or before February 1, 1957 the results of its studies and investigations and recommendations.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

RESOLUTION RECOMMITTED

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be recommitted to the Committee on Rules for the reason that other legislation has since been introduced which would duplicate the request made in this resolution and this resolution should be returned to the committee for further study.

The motion was agreed to.

INTERROGATION

Mr. TOMPKINS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader, very briefly.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker, very briefly.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire if Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 113, which passed the Senate yesterday, relating to an investigation of the conditions at the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza, reached the House?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I have been informed that it has reached the House. It has not reached me, however.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know whether or not it has been referred?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would inform the gentleman that the resolution of which he speaks was referred by the Speaker to the Rules Committee today.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to further inquire as to what they propose to do with this resolution.

Mr. READINGER. I would answer the gentleman by saying that the Rules Committee will meet next Monday and consider appropriate action. I have not had a chance to confer with the members of the Rules Committee so I cannot answer as to what they will do.

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is all. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, as I said in my interrogation, this resolution refers to an investigation of conditions at Morganza.

I think this resolution should be given quick consideration by the Rules Committee by reason of the fact that within the past week or ten days there has been a death which resulted to one of the patients at this institution under circumstances whch are very suspicious. Since that time, within the past few days, there has been a girl very severely beaten by one of the attendants of this institution.

Acts of this kind are on a par with those which are contained in a resolution to investigate the violent actions in our court rooms, and I think it goes to the fundamental of the administration of our government and reflects upon the integrity of the Commonwealth if we do not give some immediate attention to such acts of violence in our institutions, which to me are worse than the charges which had been previously made this year regarding dark age conditions.

This same institution was given a clearance by the present Department of Welfare after its accusations in the earlier part of this year. Here we have conditions which are far worse than any that could have been reported by the Department of Welfare at that time. I think the whole thing should be investigated and aired to find out whether the program that has been instituted is the proper program for the care of people of this type in these institutions, and more specifically to investigate the charges in connection with the death of this one person and the severe beating of the other.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to assure the gentleman who just spoke by saying that the Rules Committee will meet on Monday, and as Chairman I will recommend that the resolution of which he speaks be reported out immediately for action by this House.

SENATE

MONDAY, September 19, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:30, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplin, Rev. HOWARD S. FOX, D.D., Pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church, Gettysburg, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

O God of light and truth, in a strangely tangled time when confused cries echo through the world, we pray for leadership of faith. Hear our prayer for the prophet-vision and the light of the moral mind, lest we lose our way and wonder in the dark.

Thou Mighty Seer, send us men endowed with grace of insight, the gift of interpretation and the accent of command. Speak to Thy people, O Lord, for without vision they become a mob and perish.

God of the prophets, give us men who share Thy vision of eternal values and are not afraid of the loneliness of following the highest they know. Show us the shame of the second-best, the bitterness of a joy bought at the cost of a mean timidity. O God, let Thy living Word have saving power among us, rebuking our sin, working in us the miracle of love and leading us out of the night into a new day of our Lord.

Bless these leaders of State and give them wisdom and understanding from on high, so that they may order the life of Thy people properly.

And unto Thee shall be the praise in a world without end, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mr. KESSLER and Mr. DIEHM, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Give each one grace and an aliveness of spirit to joyfully and earnestly accept such an opportunity. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 115

In the House of Representatives, September 14, 1955.

Throughout the Commonwealth there are State-owned properties worth millions of dollars.

By night and by day volunteer fire companies and departments stand ready to protect these properties against the ravages of fire.

The Commonwealth recognizes this great service and should in some manner make contributions to the volunteer fire companies and departments to be used for the acquisition of fire fighting equipment and the payment, at least in part, of operating expenses; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate:

(1) The momentary value of the protection afforded the Commonwealth by volunteer fire companies and departments.

(2) The amounts necessary to adequately and equitably reimburse all fire companies and departments located in areas in which are located State properties for their services to the Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION(Not Printed)

In the House of Representatives, September 14, 1955.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania expresses its deepest sympathy to all of the people in the Commonwealth who suffered the loss of lives and sustained millions of dollars worth of property damage in the recent flood disaster which struck many of our Eastern counties.

It is shocking and grieving to learn that the property loss and damage resulting from the flood must be borne directly by the flood stricken residents because of neglect and failure to develop a satisfactory comprehensive insurance plan to ameliorate the economic consequences of the flood disaster. Practically all areas of the Commonwealth have, at one time or another, suffered the ravages of extensive flood disasters and it is a problem common to a majority of our people.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania regrets the neglect and failure of the insurance industry to formulate and develop on its own initiative, a plan to permit persons whose property is subject to flood damage and opportunity to insure at reasonable rates against the losses. It is recognized that many substantial problems are involved and that they may be too great and complex for solution on any basis other than on a general public basis: therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recommend and instruct the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth to appoint a Flood Insurance Committee, composed of nine persons, to investigate and study the problem of providing a suitable program for permitting persons to insure, at fair and reasonable rates, against flood and water damage. The composition of the Committee shall consist of three persons from the general public, three persons victimized in the flooded areas and three persons from the insurance industry. The Insurance Commissioner shall be an ex-officio member of the Committee. The Committee shall hold public hearings and meetings at various places and dates, shall investigate and collect facts and information, and do all things which the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth is presently authorized and empowered to do in the pursuit of the objective of the resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That upon completion of the hearings and meetings and the formulation of the program, which shall be as soon as possible but under no circumstances later than March 31, 1956, the Committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, if it be in session, through the Insurance Commissioner. If the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is not in session, the report shall be transmitted by the Insurance Commissioner to the Governor of the Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Assembly pledges that it will enact legislation appropriating the sum of $50,000 to the Committee to fulfill its duties set forth in the resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to use the embryonic fundamental plan as a basis for accomplishing, through legislation if necessary, the adoption of a suitable and workable plan of flood insurance at reasonable rates to relieve persons from personally absorbing the economic consequences of flood disasters when they strike this Commonwealth and our neighboring states; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of the resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Congress of the United States, Governor George M. Leader of the Commonwealth, to the Governors and the legislatures of all the other states of the Union, and the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth, and that copies of the Committee's report, when completed, be transmitted as above.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. POLEN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Appropriations to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. LOPRESTI asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary to meet during the session of the House.

SPECIAL WEATHER REPORT

The SPEAKER. At mid-morning, Hurricane Ione was centered near Cape Hatteras. Reported winds were approximately 100 miles per hour. Moderate to heavy rains continue to move ahead of the storm center and are now reported as far north as Washington, D. C.

The path of the storm continues generally northward. If the present trend continues, the center of the disturbance is expected to move into the Central Portion of Eastern Pennsylvania early tomorrow morning.

Reported conditions during the past five hours require changes in the rain, wind and damage predictions set forth in the last Special Storm Bulletin. The 1:00 P. M., E. D. T., predictions for the Lower Susquehanna Valley and Eastern Pennsylvania are as follows: Moderate and scattered heavy rains late this afternoon and evening, with possibly as much as 4 to 6 inches of rainfall in some localities. Winds from 50 to 60 miles per hour, with gusts of approximately 75 miles per hour, are to be expected late tonight and into the early morning hours tomorrow. Rather heavy tree damage with extensive wire line disruption is anticipated. Widespread minor structural damage is probable. Flash flooding is a definite possibility.

In view of anticipated heavy rains and high winds, members of the general public strongly are urged to refrain from all but essential travel this evening. This is particularly true of travel by automobile, where falling trees and downed wires may offer serious hazards.

In the event of rainfall sufficient to cause serious flooding, the State Council of Civil Defense will make every effort promptly to provide all counties with essential information relating to possible dangers. Conversely all County Civil Defense Directors will be expected to keep the Council informed of storm damage and possible dangers within their respective counties.

Special Storm Bulletin No. 3 will be issued at 7:00 P. M., E. D. T., today, unless major change in conditions warrants earlier release.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE THANKED

The SPEAKER. Incidentally the Chair desires to thank the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent, who so ably presided at last Wednesday's session of the General Assembly.

He put in a hard day and it was a heavy calendar. While I was present in the House he was doing a very very fine job.

I am told that his performance throughout the entire day would indicate not the amateur but the finished hand of a professional.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, we on the Republican side of the House charge that the Leader administration is now planning to impose a three per cent general sales tax, without exemptions, on the people of Pennsylvania and then try to blame it on the Republican party.

That may sound fantastic to a lot of people, particularly after the way Governor Leader campaigned on the promise to abolish the sales tax, and since his election has declared that he would veto such a tax if the Legislature ever enacted it.

I want to quote to you from Miss Genevieve Blatt, who is the Secretary of Internal Affairs, and certainly is a close confidant of Governor Leader. She said in a speech at Pittsburgh over the weekend, and I quote: "The Democratic administration of Governor Leader, may be forced to accept a state sales tax to finance state expenditures", the Internal Affairs Secretary, Genevieve Blatt, says. And I still quote Miss Blatt, speaking yesterday at a Democratic Women's rally, in which she said, "But remember this, it can't be the same sales tax that went out September 1st. That tax was one per cent with many exemptions. If we are ever driven"— and I like that word "driven"— "to a sales tax it will probably be one of three per cent without exemptions".

Miss Blatt blamed those stubborn Republican Senators for killing the Governor's classified income tax.

I ask, Mr. Speaker, is there any one politically closer to Governor Leader than Miss Blatt? Miss Blatt and other Democrats have been saying now that the budget cannot be balanced without a three per cent general sales tax, with no exemptions. That means there will be no exemptions on food, on clothing, on medicine, or products purchased by manufacturers, on feed, fertilizer and seed purchased by the farmer. It would bring in a fantastic amount, an amount of money far in excess of anything ever contemplated when Governor Leader last April proposed his classified income tax with a one per cent wage tax.

Why does Miss Blatt say that a three per cent rate will be necessary? Mr. Speaker, I will tell you, because every week, every month that goes by increases the amount of money which is being lost in this biennium.

Approximately $15 million have already been lost. Now, if we keep on delaying until the end of November without enacting a tax program and balancing the budget, it will mean that seven months of this biennium will be gone before any new tax can go into effect. And seven months, Mr. Speaker, is a long time to be losing tax money.

What does this mean in terms of a sales tax? It means that any tax which the Legislature imposes must produce in sixteen months what it would have produced in twenty-four months if it had been acted upon in time.

I can imagine, Mr. Speaker, what some of the Democrats are now advising the Governor privately. I know that they are saying "let us stall on the taxes until after the November election and then trot out a three per cent sales tax which the Republicans will have to vote for. A three per cent sales tax will raise the money we need. The Republicans will get the blame because has not the Governor said again and again and again, that he was opposed to it and he can still say "I am against it. I still think it is unfair but the state must have money and the Republicans drove me to it," to quote Miss Blatt.

Well, Mr. Speaker, we have news for you and the Democratic high command, and I would like them to listen to this. There won't be a single Republican vote in the House of Representatives for a three per cent sales tax now, next month or a year from now. Let the Governor keep that in mind.

Governor Leader and his advisors got us into this financial mess by allowing the present sales tax to expire. You have 112 votes on your side, six more than a constitutional majority that is necessary to enact laws. You should start rounding them up right now if you want to pass a three per cent sales tax. You won't get any help from us. If you think you are going to stall, and stall, and stall, until it is necessary to pass a sales tax up to three per cent, and tax everything as Miss Blatt has suggested, including food and clothing, then it is your responsibility and your responsibility alone.

The Governor chose to gamble with the future welfare of our schools and our hospitals and our state institutions. He thought he could eventually turn to the sales tax again at any time the he chose and blame the Republicans for it. No, Miss Blatt, we won't drive you to a three per cent sales tax, because there won't be a single Republican vote in this House for any three per cent sales tax. We are telling the Governor that, and we are telling you that. You get your 106 votes if you want to be driven to a three per cent sales tax.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, since we are having nothing much to do just now, might invite all of the Democrats on that side of the House who want to vote for a sales tax to stand up.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, there is going to be a time, without joking and without being facetious, when some of the Democrats are going to have to stand up for something other than the income tax that they proposed. Let us not kid about it, that time is going to draw near.

Mr. Speaker, I can say to you in plain political language that you are not off the hook. Some day you are going to stand up and, if you think you are going to talk a three per cent sales tax, we on this side of the House are not going to stand up. When you start getting reasonable and start realizing that there are going to be a lot of services missed by the people of this state and there are going to be a lot of services that are not going to be rendered to our schools, and our institutions, I think, Mr. Speaker, if you leave it go longer and longer, they are going to stand up or they will not be here two years from now to stand up—believe me.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. CAPANO. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Workmen's Compensation for the purpose of further consideration.

The motion was agreed to.

INTERROGATION

Mr. TOMPKINS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, last Wednesday I interrogated the Majority Leader in connection with a concurrent resolution which came over to the House from the Senate relating to the investigation at Morganza. At that time he said the resolution would be considered in the Rules Committee today.

Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask him what action was taken by the Rules Committee on that resolution.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the matter was considered by the Rules Committee today and the decision is being considered as to whether the resolution should or should not be reported to the floor of this House. There was no decision made by the Rules Committee on the matter, but it is under consideration.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the Majority Leader for the reasons heretofore expressed by myself why that resolution was not reported and why it is delayed and, also, the circumstances?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman may ask, but he will get no answer. The Rules Committee is considering the matter and until it has made a decision the gentleman will get no answer why it has decided one way or another because it has not made any decision as yet.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I have no further question on that particular point, with the exception that I would like to state that certainly the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are interested enough to wish to know why this delay and this apathy toward a situation as serious as we have at Morganza.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TOMPKINS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, within the last week or ten days a report has come out from the Executive Committee on the American Legion whereby they propose to submit to their National Convention in Florida next month a rescission of the condemnation of UNESCO.

In that connection I should like to submit for the record a letter on that subject which was written to Mr. Paul Selecky, the Pennsylvania Department Commander of the American Legion, in July of 1954 and ask that it be printed in the Journal.

July 14, 1954

Mr. Paul R. Selecky
Pennsylvania Department Commander
The American Legion
1200 Miner's National Bank Building
Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

Dear Paul:

About a year ago the National Executive Board of the American Legion adopted a resolution condemning UNESCO.

I am reliably informed that since that action, a committee was appointed to review and look into this subject. That they were taken into the high mountains of the State Department and allowed to view some kind of a promised land. That as a result the Committee is recommending or prepared to recommend a rescission of the action of the Executive Board. That a resolution seeking such rescission is proposed for consideration of the 1954 Convention of the Pennsylvania Department.

Let's take a look at the Record.

A UNESCO publication "A Handbook for The Improvement of Textbooks and Teaching Materials" states: "The United States, for example, considered it impossible to sign (the Casares Resolution of 1924 of the International Committee on Intellectual Cooperation—an arm of the old League of Nations) because of the fact that in that country public education was not under the control of the Federal Government." Public education in this country is still not under control of the Federal Government. Nor do I want it under control of the Federal Government. But should UNESCO be approved, and ratified as a Treaty, education would still not be under control of the Federal Government, but would be under control of an International group, still further removed than the Federal Government from local operation or control. And yet they say we do not need the Bricker Amendment.

The same UNESCO publication states:

"On the basis of the information collected, several documents were begun in 1948 and completed early in 1949. Among these are:

"A Model Plan for the Analysis and Improvement of Textbooks as Aids to International Understanding. This model plan contains principles and criteria for the analysis and appraisal of textbooks and suggestions for using them in textbook analysis projects." Who says that this is not an attempt to rewrite our textbooks?

This same Handbook makes one of the most diabolical suggestions I have ever come across in avoidance of responsibility, when it states: "When using an unfavorable quotation, it is generally preferable not to cite the name of the author nor the title of the book, in order not to risk harming some author or publisher unjustly." What a happy hunting ground for the smear artists, the subversives and the blah! blah! boys! What a wall of protection for character assassination! Is this the academic freedom I hear so much about?

The insure that such teachings of the International Brain-Trusters and indoctrinators is incorporated in the textbooks of our public schools, it is further recommended that "colleges and universities are to consider education for international understanding in established entrance examinations and requirements, and educational organizations are, if necessary, to bring organized pressure to bear against highly undesirable books."

Besides not being able to obtain a higher education if you are not well indoctrinated in the Public Schools in the philosophy of the one worlders, just what books would be considered highly undesirable is not stated. Would books on United States and Pennsylvania History and Civics be considered highly undesirable? In 1951 Pennsylvania by legislation required the teaching of United States and Pennsylvania History in our public schools. In 1953 we provided that Civics should be taught in our public schools. At the June 1954 meeting of the Pennsylvania Bar Association a resolution to the same effect was adopted. Now, if UNESCO should be approved as a Treaty, and we do not protect ourselves with the passage of the Bricker Amendment, what would there be to prevent the International propogandists from saying that the textbooks on United States and Pennsylvania History and Civics are highly undesirable and thereby exclude them from our schools? For don't forget treaties are the Supreme Law of the land, and supersede State Laws, which would wipe out the above Pennsylvania Legislation. To me the thought is frightening. In the name of everything that is American, must we appease this scheming crowd to that extent? May God have mercy upon the virility of America if this is so!

Late in 1952, it was announced with fanfare that UNESCO "had allocated $600,000 to underwrite a new world history, in six volumes, which should eliminate bias." The Christian Religion has been trying to eliminate bias for 2,000 years, but I find nowhere in any of the UNESCO publications that these Christian doctrines be given a fair trial. And to think that it is now proposed that one thousand scholars, working for five years, will be able to produce and accomplish for mankind a substitute for the Golden Rule which they contend will work. Such perfidy!

I also wonder, when this work is done, what suggestions and proposals will be made about the millions of History Books now reposing in our libraries. Certainly if they are going to write a history without bias, then these library books must contain bias. They will not want them available as a source to poison men's minds. What's all this hullabaloo about book burning?

Let's go a little further with the Record. Another Handbook of UNESCO states:: "Sennacherib and the Roman Triumvirs earned universal obloquy by their mass executions and tyrannies, but these horrors were not wreaked upon us and those we love; they are so antique as not to stir us any more, and they consequently do not prevent us from feeling amicably disposed toward the present inhabitants of Iraq and Italy!"

Do they mean to infer by this that such tyrannies and atrocities should not be published or mentioned? Of course it would be a clever way to suppress Lidice, Katyn Forest, the Slave Labor Camps behind the Iron Curtain, and the Korean tortures and executions; not to say anything about the Bibical stories of Cain and Abel, the Flood, and the Crossing of the Red Sea. Are these to be stricken from the Bible?

Another handbook states: "We want no more of those history or reading books that every day introduce young children of France into the chamber of horrors of war; we want no longer a travesty of history that contains the germs of mistrust, contempt, hatred and war." How then do we eliminate the Bibical Wars of the Old Testament—or the New Testament prophesies of wars and rumors of wars? Just how many more insidious suggestions can be made to undermine the Bible—and how much longer shall we tolerate it?

Still more of the Record. "The teacher's associations belonging to the international federation assert their determination to direct their teaching towards international solidarity and understanding, to eliminate tendentious works, to edit works of their respective countries that are fit to be translated into all languages and introduced into the schools of all countries, to concentrate on the publication of an international work to make known the contributions of every people to universal civilization."

I will be much interested to know how they will write the history of Rome without reference to the Caesars; or of England without William the Conquer and Cromwell; France without Napoleon; Germany without Bismark and Hitler; and of America without Washington and the Revolution and Lincoln and the Civil War.

Next of course are the parents and the home. A serious concern of the UNESCO school program is to "correct many of the errors of home training." So now parents don't know anything and our homes are a mistake. "The narrow family spirit of the parents may, in fact, not only compromise indirectly and in some degree, unconsciously, the eventual integration of the child in the human community, but it may also cultivate attitudes running directly counter to the development of international understanding." UNESCO sees nothing wrong with their proposal that the child should be taught to despise his parents' social attitudes. With this we discard the Fifth Commandment.

The moving finger writes. Mrs. Eugene Meyer speaking in the March 19, 1952 issue "The Public and Education," official organ of N.E.A. "attributes one difficulty of this new role of public education to the fact that schools do not get the child until he is six years old (what modern nations have snatched their children at birth and made them wards of the State?) and after his character and intuitive sense of right and wrong are well on the way to be fixed." (Whence will come all the supermen to replace the home and church?). In addition to this she said, "the school now gets an enormous number of children who have emotional problems of varying seriousness at a time when classes in many places are swollen to an average of forty or more." What kind of double talk is this—we don't get the children soon enough and we have too many children? And where did these ideas originate? I read the same thing in UNESCO handbooks.

The Record of the Handbooks continues:

"As long as the child breathes the poisoned air of nationalism, education in worldmindedness can produce only rather precarious results. As we have pointed out, it is frequently the family that infects the child with extreme nationalism."

If the dignity of the individual against that of the State and the masses be nationalism—then I am all for it.

If the concept that we are a Nation ruled by laws and not by men be Nationalism—then again I am all for Nationalism.

If the freedoms and liberties vouchsafed to us by the Bill of Rights be Nationalism—then all the more power for Nationalism.

If the offering of thanks to Almighty God for the freedoms, liberties and bounties which have been bestowed upon us be Nationalism—then let those who make such statements as the above make the best of it.

As for me, if such teachings to my children be infectious poison, I am proud of it—and I shall continue to infect not only my own children but as many others as I can with such American standard brand of poison, any UNESCO or other international alphabet agency to the contrary nothwithstanding.

And I don't want any American official telling me or my family—"if we are now going to say that any legally binding document is detrimental to the interests of the United States because in certain instances it does not give as wide freedoms as our own laws do, we are taking the same attitude as the Soviet Union," which is what our former representative to the United Nations said in her column of April 15, 1952.

Every person to their own choosing. Let the sinking kind repair to the land of the philosophy of the Quagmire. I prefer the American philosophy of help up—lift up. Let's have no more of this balderdash that we can best serve ourselves by sinking to the others level.

Just one more from the Record: "A Teacher's Charter should secure for all members of the teaching profession the liberty to provide such an education by the means they decide upon."

In answer to this I quote from an editorial of the Saturday Evening Post of July 14, 1951: "Even if there were no quarrel with what or how the teachers taught, could we, should we, accept the idea of alienation from home ties? Is it consistent with the nature of things for the mother to rid herself of all concern in the intellectual development of her offspring? Finally, is it consonant with democracy to say that the taxpayer has no voice in how his money shall be spent?"

In closing I should like to call your attention to the following:

Russia did not sign or become a party to the original UNESCO pact. She has since however come in, which grants to all her teachers and scholars and those who pose or pretend to be, the right to roam the classrooms of our Nation under the immunition of the United Nations Charter.

UNESCO refused to participate in the clean-out of Communists which struck the main U. N. offices in 1952.

The president has just signed a bill which adds the words "Under God" to our pledge of allegiance to the flag.—For God.

A year ago a bill was approved which forbids any flag to be flown superior to that of the United States.—For Country.

Should there be any doubts arise as to whether the condemnation of UNESCO should be rescinded —then just let's for once resoundingly resolve that doubt in favor of the good old U. S. A.— and hold fast to the condemnation.

Yours for God and Country

EDWIN W. TOMPKINS

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

RECOMMENDING THE APPOINTMENT OF A FLOOD INSURANCE COMMITTEE BY THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER OF THE COMMONWEALTH

Messrs. WEINER and DiSILVESTRO offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, September 20, 1955.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania expresses its deepest sympathy to all of the people in the Commonwealth who suffered the loss of lives and sustained millions of dollars worth of property damage in the recent flood disaster which struck many of our Eastern counties.

It is shocking and grieving to learn that the property loss and damage resulting from the flood must be borne directly by the flood stricken residents because of neglect and failure to develop a satisfactory comprehensive insurance plan to ameliorate the economic consequences of the flood disaster. Practically all areas of the Commonwealth have, at one time or another, suffered the ravages of extensive flood disasters and it is a problem common to a majority of our people.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania regrets the neglect and failure of the insurance industry to formulate and develop, on its own initiative, a plan to permit persons whose property is subject to flood damage an opportunity to insure at reasonable rates against the losses. It is recognized that many substantial problems are involed and that they may be too great and complex for solution on any basis other than on a general public basis; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recommend and instruct the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth to appoint a Flood Insurance Committee, composed of nine persons to investigate and study the problem of providing a suitable program for permitting persons to insure, at fair and reasonable rates, against flood and water damage. The composition of the Committee shall consist of three persons from the general public, three persons victimized in the flooded areas and three persons from the insurance industry. The Insurance Commissioner shall be an ex-officio member of the Committee. The Committee shall hold public hearings and meetings at various places and dates, shall investigate and collect facts and information, and do all things which the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth is presently authorized and empowered to do in the pursuit of the objetcives of the resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That upon completion of the hearings and meetings and the fomulation of the program, which shall be as soon as possible but under no circumstances later than March 31, 1956, the Committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, if it be in session, through the Insurance Commisisoner. If the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is not in session, the report shall be transmitted by the Insurance Commissioner to the Governor of the Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Assembly pledges that it will enact legislation appropriating the sum of $50,000 to the Committee to fulfill its duties set forth in the resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to use the embryonic fundamental plan as a basis for accomplishing, through legislation, if necessary, the adoption of a suitable and workable plan of flood insurance at reasonable rates to relieve persons from personally absorbing the economic consequences of flood disasters when they strike this Commonwealth and our neighboring states; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of the resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Congress of the United States, Governor George M. Leader of the Commonwealth, to the Governors and the legislatures of all the other states of the Union, and the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth, and that copies of the Committee's report, when completed, be transmitted as above.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I object to the immediate consideration of this resolution, and ask that it be referred to the proper committee.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Insurance.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 148, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WADE, from the Committee on Highways, to which was referred resolution offered by Mr. WATKINS on September 19, 1955, reported the same without amendment as follows:

REQUESTING THE DELAWARE RIVER PORT AUTHORITY TO GIVE CONSIDERATION TO THE NEED FOR A BRIDGE OVER THE DELAWARE RIVER AND TO MAKE A REPORT

In the Senate, September 19, 1955.

Bridges over the Delaware River present an ever increasing problem greatly augmented by the flow of traffic from the Pennsylvania and New Jersey turnpikes.

While the area north of and within the limits of the City of Philadelphia are being well provided for, the traffic normally bearing south of the city continues to be compelled to find a crossing through city traffic in Philadelphia or to travel further, below the City of Wilmington; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Delaware River Port Authority be requested to give serious consideration to the urgent need for a bridge over the Delaware from a point in Delaware County, Pennsylvania to a point opposite in the State of New Jersey, and to that end to make an engineering survey and an exhaustive study of the traffic that could and normally would use the bridge, and to report in detail to the General Assembly at its 1957 session, the results of its survey and studies.

A motion was made by Mr. WADE and Mr. DiSILVESTRO,

That rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie over for one day, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, in this day and age when we are groping for sources of taxation, there is one source which has been overlooked here in Pennsylvania. As a matter of fact, that source has yielded in twenty-two States and the District of Columbia tremendous returns.

Today, when a person dies in Pennsylvania, the contents of a safe deposit box may be euchred out and taken away without any knowledge on the part of the Department of Revenue, and without any possibility of tracing later the amount which has been removed from the safe deposit box of the deceased. Thus, considerable amounts in inheritance tax are escaping the coffers of the State.

Mr. President, this bill which I am about to introduce, on behalf of Senator Lane and myself, will cure the situation. A similar bill with imperfections had been introduced earlier in the Session and was referred to the Committee on Banking. However, this is an up-to-date bill, based on research and it is the final word. If I may respectfully suggest, Mr. President, I think that the place for this bill is in the Committee on Finance.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. STIEFEL and LANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 761, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 20, 1919 (P. L. 521), entitled as amended "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; defining and taxing transfers made in contemplation of death; defining as a transfer and taxing the right of survivorship in property as to which such rights exists; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal," regulating the receiving or holding of decedents' securities and other personal property for safekeeping; regulating leasing of safe deposit boxes and similar receptacles.

Which was committeed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

SENATE MESSAGE

The SPEAKER. It had been the intention of the Chair to take the floor today and ask permission to address the House. The Chair instead, if there are no objections, will offer his remarks for the record. The Chair hears no objection.

As every Legislator knows, and as many business leaders are beginning to suspect, Pennsylvania needs—has long needed—a stabilized, simplified and equitable tax structure.

The biennial wrangles staged by political leaders, tax-shifters and tax-dodgers have become a political abomination.

As a result of the over emphasis placed upon the desire to secure political advantage by means of tax structure manipulation, it has come about that the philosophy most emphasized in our recurring biennium tax wrangles is a philosophy of expediency.

There are certain basic facts and factors that should, I believe, guide tax structure architects. There is a place in a tax structure for a corporate net income levy—a levy based on a rate that recognizes both economic and competitive conditions.

There is, I believe, a place in a tax structure for excise taxes, such as the cigarette tax, taxes levied on beer and hard liquor.

There is also a place in an equitable tax structure, in my opinion, for a graduated income tax which, as nearly as is humanly possible, equalizes the tax burden on the basis of individual income.

If these three types of taxes were in effect there would be a place in the tax structure for a general sales tax to be used as an equalizing factor,—employed for two specific purposes

First: if it came about, as a result of general economic conditions, that during a biennium revenues fell well below estimates, it would be sound policy—instead of increasing levies on business—to use the sales tax for the purpose of liquidating the deficiences in estimated revenue.

Second: a sales tax could properly be used for the purpose of defraying expenses incurred outside the regular governmental routine—expenses such as disaster relief, or possible bonus payments.

There are some taxes now being collected which never should have been imposed; the capital stock tax is a tax which falls in this category. It is absurd to tax a corporation simply by reason of the fact that it exists—a corporation which may be operating in the red.

Obviously, if we were to repeal the capital stock tax, if we are to place proper meets and bounds upon the corporate net income levy, if we are to keep the tax on utilities within reasonable limits, there is a definite need for the development of an additional source of revenue. It is for this reason that I have introduced a bill designed to impose an excise tax based upon the income tax paid to the federal government.

This bill is based upon suggestions made by Senator Dent. It has long been his idea that a graduated income tax imposed as an excise tax is constitutional.

The measure, in its present form, carries some technical imperfections. It was hurriedly drawn and must be re-drafted in part. The bill is admittedly controversial. Eminent legal opinion runs to the effect that it is unconstitutional, and there is equally eminent legal opinion that the measure is constitutional.

The constitutionality of such a bill is a matter which should not be summarily disposed of either by past or present Attorney Generals.

The question as to the constitutionality of the measure is one to be decided by the Supreme Court, and by the Supreme Court alone.

If the bill should be passed and the Court ruled it was unconstitutional, nothing would be lost that we now possess. On the other hand, if the Court should decide the bill was constitutional, it would be possible to use a graduated income tax for the purpose of equalizing and stabilizing the Commonwealth's tax structure.

The pending tax melee has reached a stage where it approximates a particular type of objectionable political debauchery. The situation does not reflect credit upon those responsible for it, or upon many of those who comment concerning it.

Experienced observers representing the press know, as a matter of fact, that those who most bitterly oppose the practices and policies of the present administration say to each other: "We have got Leader on the hook, let's keep him there."

Will the tax bill which I am sponsoring weather the storm? I do not know. But of this I am certain—it will be opposed by all those individuals and groups which have their faces set against the imposition of any tax which even resembles a graduated income tax.

RESOLUTION (Not Printed)

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up on page 31 House Resolution (not printed) honoring Susan B. Anthony.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 30, 1955.

Susan Brownell Anthony was born at Adams, Massachusetts on February 15, 1820, the daughter of Daniel and Lucy (Read) Anthony. She was educated in a school maintained by her father for his own and neighboring children. In the years 1837-38 she attended Friends' Boarding School, West Philadelphia. Upon completion of her formal schooling at the age of fifteen years, she entered the teaching profession and taught for fifteen years.

It was during her teaching career that she realized that women were in effect "second class citizens" and she resolved that women would have equal rights. In the year 1852 she abandoned the teaching profession and organized the first woman's State temperance society in America. In 1856 she became the agent for New York State of the American Anti-Slavery Society. After 1854 she devoted her life exclusively to the cause of woman's rights. During the Civil War she was organizer and secretary of the woman's National Loyal League. From 1858 to 1870 she was proprietor of a weekly paper, "The Revolution," published in New York and edited by Mrs. Elizabeth Cody Stanton and having for its motto, "The true republic—men, their rights and nothing more; women, their rights and nothing less." She was vice-president-at-large of the National Woman Sufferage Association from the date of its inception until 1892, when she became president. In collaboration with Mrs. Elizabeth Stanton, Mrs. Matlida Gage, and Mrs. Ida Harper, she published "The History of Woman Sufferage."

Susan B. Anthony, a fighting champion of and pioneer for the rights of women until her death at Rochester New York on March 13, 1906 never gave up hope that women would some day receive the right to vote. She worked tirelessly in eight different states campaigning for a constitutional amendment enfranchising woman. Every year commencing with the year 1869 until her death, she was granted a hearing before committees of every Congress. In 1872 she was arrested and fined one hundred dollars for casting a vote in the presidential election of 1872. She contended that the 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States gave her such right. Since her death in 1906, February 15th, her birthday is celebrated as Susan B. Anthony day and on August 25, 1955 a special United States postage stamp was released at Louisville, Kentucky, in her honor; therefore be it Resolved, That the House of Representaitves, in conjunction with the issuance of the special United States postage stamp honoring Susan B. Anthony, commemorate her as a fearless crusader of equal rights for woman whose pioneer efforts towards enfranchisement of women although never realized in her life time, became reality by ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL NO. 141

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up on page 31 of today's calendar Senate Resolution Serial No. 141.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE (SERIAL No. 141)

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was as follows:

In the Senate, July 26, 1955.

The 28th Infantry Division is the holder of a proud record. Some units are direct descendants of Benjamin Franklin's "Battalions of Associations" organized in 1745, while others trace unbroken lineage from the Revolutionary War.

Some units of this famous division were engaged in every war in which we, as a nation, fought.

Pennsylvania is justly proud of the 28th Division, which wes referred to by General Pershing as the "Iron Division" and called by the Germans of World War II the "Bloody Bucket Division" in acknowledgment of the fury with which the division fought.

Because of its background, the service it rendered its country and the honor it has brought to Pennsylvania, it is fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded the 28th Infantry Division; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That United States Highway Route No. 322, extending from Chester, Pennsylvania through Meadville and Jamestown Pennsylvania, to the Pennsylvania and Ohio boundary line be dedicated as a memorial to the 28th Infantry Division and that this portion of the highway be known as the "28th Division Highway"; and be it further

Resolved. That the Department of Highways shall erect along the highway suitable tablets and markers and shall carry out suitable lanscape development to perpetuate this resolution, but shall not replace the officially designated route number of the highway hereby designated as the "28th Division Highway."

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

Serial No. 148

In the Senate, September 19, 1955.

Bridges over the Delaware River present an ever increasing problem greatly augmented by the flow of traffic from the Pennsylvania and New Jersey turnpikes.

While the area north of and within the limits of the City of Philadelphia are being well provided for, the traffic normally bearing south of the city continues to be compelled to find a crossing through city traffic in Philadelphia or to travel further, below the City of Wilmington; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Delaware River Port Authority be requested to give serious consideration to the urgent need for a bridge over the Delaware from a point in Delaware County, Pennsylvania to a point opposite in the State of New Jersey, and to that end to make an engineering survey and an exhaustive study of the traffic that could and normally would use the bridge, and to report in detail to the General Assembly at its 1957 session, the results of its survey and studies.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the order of business, Leaves of Absence, will be dispensed with. The Chair hears none.

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Parliamentarian and the Speaker, browsing through the Legislative Journal for 1919, came across a part of the record which may be of current interest and which the Chair desires to reinsert into the record of today.

To quote the Speaker who was serving on June 12, 1919, they were in the midst of a session, a motion to adjourn was made and the Speaker proceeded to say:

> The Chair is very regretful that he has to accept a motion of this kind at this time. There is business on the calendar that the House can perfectly well transact this morning. The Chair is as regretful as any member that the members of this House do not attend the sessions on Thursday, the Chair having resorted to every means of persuasion to hold the House in session, apparently without effect, and were the Chair to take extreme measures at this time, in order to bring a quorum here, by the time a sufficient number of members were here the House would then be ready to adjourn. The Chair very much regrets that at this late season of the session the members have become so derelict and he trusts that next week there will be a fuller attendance of the members of this House. It may and, in all probability, will be necessary next week to hold a session on Friday. These appropriation bills must be taken care of, and if we do not do it to day we must do it later.

Then a very energetic gentleman arose to say:

> Mr. Speaker, I do not care if I have to sit here Saturday and Sunday, if necessary. This is the third session that I have had the honor of attending this Legislature as a member . . .

And then he goes on to relate his record of attendance and to lambast the absentees.

It simply goes to show that the problems of the House the Speaker faced in 1919 are still with us and, as I hear the Parliamentarian say in an aside, the Speaker I have just quoted was the only Speaker so far as I can recollect who was deposed from office by the House, Speaker Spangler. I do not know whether his efforts to secure attendance had anything to do with the fact that later on the House forced him from the Chair.

The Chair thanks the House for its attention.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 455, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 2, 1945 (P. SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

SENATE SERIAL No. 113.

In the Senate, March 1, 1955.

The Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza is purportedly reminiscent of ancient and generally outmoded practices in its treatment of female prisoners

Recent reports from reputable sources state that the girls at Morganza are confined in cells with inadequate heating clothing food and no toilet facilities Conditions such as these are certainly not in furtherance of the new and enlightened concepts of training school techniques which our Commonwealth has adopted and therefore it appears an investigation is necessary to ascertain the truth of these reports and to determine how these conditions can be best remedied

These charges cast reflections upon the integrity of all public officials and must create serious doubts and grave apprehensions among the people concerning the good conduct of our government An immediate impartial investigation of these charges is necessary in order to remedy these conditions if true or to protect the good name of public officials and institutions if false

In order to aid in the development of the program of this administration in cooperation with and approved by the Department of Welfare for the enlightened treatment cure and rehabilitation of these unfortunate patients therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concurs) that in the interest of fair play the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint six members of the Senate three of whom shall be Republicans and three Democrats and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint six members of the House three of whom shall be Republicans and three Democrats who together shall constitute a Joint Commission and be authorized and directed to make an immediate investigation of all the charges made and to hear all suggestions of an enlightened and progressive program for the proper operation of this institution

The Committee shall have the power to issue Subpoenas under its hand and seal requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and answer questions touching matters properly being inquired into and to produce such books papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary Such Subpoenas shall have the force and effect of Subpoenas issued out of the Courts of this Commonwealth The committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before them Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to testify before the committee or to produce books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases and be it further resolved that the committee make a report of its findings together with its recommendations for appropriate legislation at the earliest posible date before the adjournment of this session of the General Assembly

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

SENATE

MONDAY, September 26, 1955.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HUMPHREY E. CAPUTO, Instituto San Francisco, Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Central America, offered the following prayer:

O Almighty Father and Creator of the human race, Prime Possessor of reason, wisdom and truth, Model of righteousness and justice itself, Legislator Supreme, look down upon these Thy humble servants and ministers of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Let order reign supreme in our deliberations; let right reason be the guide of our thoughts; let the common good, not personal gain nor political ambition, be our aim. As there is but one truth and one way, let all our labors tend towards Thy honor and Thy glory. Let our human legislation be modeled faithfully upon the dictates of the divine law, as we are modeled to Thy image and likeness.

We are human and recognize our bent toward error. We, therefore, beseech Thee, our heads lowered in humble prayer, to overlook our short-comings and guide our every effort towards the proper end for the common good.

And especially in these days when the whole world seems to be concerned about the state of health of our President, Dwight David Eisenhower, we ask Thee for his complete recovery and speedy return to the active duties of his office.

God, bless all of us. We are so in need of Thy blessings. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. PECHAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 113, RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 113, with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE PENNSYLVANIA TRAINING SCHOOL AT MORGANZA

In the Senate, March 1, 1955.

The Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza is purportedly reminiscent of ancient and generally outmoded practices in its treatment of female prisoners.

Recent reports from reputable sources state that the girls at Morganza are confined in cells with inadequate heating, clothing, food and no toilet facilities. Conditions such as these are certainly not in furtherance of the new and enlightened concepts of training school techniques which our Commonwealth has adopted and, therefore, it appears an investigation is necessary to ascertain the truth of these reports and to determine how these conditions can be best remedied.

These charges cast reflections upon the integrity of all public officials and must create serious doubts and grave apprehensions among the people concerning the good conduct of our government. An immediate impartial investigation of these charges is necessary in order to remedy these conditions if true or to protect the good name of public officials and institutions if false.

In order to aid in the development of the program of this administration, in cooperation with and approved by the Department of Welfare, for the enlightened treatment cure and rehabilitation of these unfortunate patients therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concurs), That in the interest of fair play the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint six members of the Senate, three of whom shall be Republicans and three Democrats and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint six members of the House, three of whom shall be Republicans and three Democrats, who together shall constitute a Joint Commission and be authorized and directed to make an immediate investigation of all the charges made and to hear all suggestions of an enlightened and progressive program for the proper operation of this institution.

The Committee shall have the power to issue Subpoenas under its hand and seal requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and answer questions touching matters properly being inquired into and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such Surpoenas shall have the force and effect of Subpoenas issued out of the Courts of this Commonwealth. The committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before them. Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to testify before the committee, or to produce books, papers, records or documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases and be it further resolved that the committee make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations for appropriate legislation, at the earliest possible date before the adjournment of this session of the General Assembly.

SENATE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 113

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 113.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 99 REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Rules:

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE A STUDY OF LEGISLATIVE PRINTING

In the House of Representatives, June 28, 1955.

Whereas, Adequate and promptly available printing is essential to the proper functioning of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, In the interests of economy, such printing should be supplied at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayer; and

Whereas, Legislative printing has not been re-evaluated since the Joint State Government Commisison reports of 1941 and 1947; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That the Joint State Government Commisison be directed to make a thorough and exhaustive study of the entire subject of legislative printing and report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly, together with drafts of legislation necessary to implement the same.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 108 REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on State Government:

PENNSYLVANIA STATE POLICE TO THOROUGHLY INVESTIGATE THE OUTBREAKS OF VIOLENCE DURING THE COURSE OF JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

In the House of Representatives, August 3, 1955.

Within a period of less than two years the quiet dignity of two court rooms in Pennsylvania has resounded to the crack of the assassin's gun, and a judge in the midst of the performance of his duty lay dead and another severely wounded. The career of a promising young attorney has been cut off before its prime, and other victims lie in hospitals beds.

These acts of anarchy cannot be tolerated in a community of orderly and decent government; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Pennsylvania State Police be called upon to make a thorough investigation of the facts and circumstances of outbreaks of violence and bloodshed happening during the course of judicial proceedings and take or recommend measures to prevent recurrences; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commissioner of Pennsylvania State Police make a report to the Governor and to each House of the General Assembly before the close of its present session of his findings, actions and recommendations in the matter.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

DIRECTING U. S. ROUTE 322 TO BE DESIGNATED AS THE "28TH DIVISION HIGHWAY"

In the Senate, July 26, 1955.

The 28th Infantry Division is the holder of a proud record. Some units are direct descendants of Benjamin Franklin's "Battalions of Associations" organized in 1746, while others trace unbroken lineage from the Revolutionary War.

Some units of this famous division were engaged in every war in which we, as a nation, fought.

Pennsylvania is justly proud of the 28th Division, which was referred to by General Pershing as the "Iron Division" and called by the Germans of World War II the "Bloody Bucket Division" in acknowledgment of the fury with which the division fought.

Because of its background, the service it rendered its country and the honor it has brought to Pennsylvania, it is fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded the 28th Infantry Division; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That United States Highway Route No. 322, extending from Chester, Pennsylvania through Meadville and Jamestown Pennsylvania, to the Pennsylvania and Ohio boundary line be dedicated as a memorial to the 28th Infantry Division and that this portion of the highway be known as the "28th Division Highway"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Highways shall erect along the highway suitable tablets and markers and shall carry out suitable landscape development to perpetuate this resolution, but shall not replace the officially designated route number of the highway hereby designated as the "28th Division Highway."

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, on August 29, Senator Dent, the Minority Leader of the Senate, introduced Senate Bill No 727, which provided for the reduction of speed on all highways of the Commonwealth to fifty miles per hour, unless those highways had a medial barrier. Since that time, there has been a great deal of editorial and other newspaper comment. I think the folks who use the turnpike, and other citizens of Pennsylvania, have been very much concerned about the moves that should be made by the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission in order to make this the safest highway in the world.

Then, too, Mr. President, I think perhaps we build a little prejudice against this fine highway because of the fact that we do not have comparative figures on the automobile miles traveled on the turnpike against the mileage on other highways. I have gathered for the committee, and other members of the committee have contributed, some information which would be interesting and helpful in the treatment of this matter.

For instance, in 1954 there were two fatalities that had to do with the twelve miles of medial barrier then constructed, or the fatalities per mile of barrier would be .17. In 1955, there were then fourteen miles of medial barrier and there were two fatalities and the fatalities per mile of barrier would be .14. These rates would become alarming when it is considered that they represent only one type of fatal accident. To date, the exposure to driving along medial barriers on the system is, of course, limited. When we consider the possibility of medial barriers throughout the entire system and extend these figures accordingly, the following figures develop:

In 1954, approximately twelve miles of medial barrier were erected on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Two persons were killed in collisions with this barrier. Extending this frequency-rate based on exposure, we would expect fifty-four persons to have been killed through collisions with medial barriers alone, had the barrier existed throughout the system.

In 1955, to date, approximately fourteen miles of medial barrier exist on the system. Two persons have been killed in collisions with this barrier so far this year. Extending this frequency rate per mile of barrier exposure, we would expect seventy-seven persons to be killed for the whole year in collisions with the medial barrier alone, if the barrier had extended the entire system.

Mr. President, so far this year, there have been sixty-one fatalities on the turnpike, which is alarming, I agree. There are, however, a number of projects less expensive than the steel barrier strip which I am convinced can make a dramatic improvement in the safety record of our super highway. It is interesting, indeed, to receive through the mail many, many suggestions as to what kind of a barrier might be erected. One is the use of discarded casings from oil wells. Another makes the suggestion that we plant trees in the midlle, between the two highways. That, we would all agree, would take many years before the trees would grow enough to stop vehicles crossing the medial barrier. Another suggestion is to plant rose bushes of a particular type that vine in long branches, perhaps thirty or more feet long, which would form a very entangling arrangement which would separate the traffic; and some say, a very strong arrangement. However, I would not fancy riding on the left side and having the window open with my arm outside when we run into those rose bushes. The third is the construction of wood, alone, which would break in case it was hit hard enough, but would be strong enough to stop the vehicle that was directed across.

Another thing, Mr. President, is that radar can be used with great effect, as experiments testify, either as a legally accepted instrument for speed control or as a psychological deterrent to reckless driving. I have seen this device in operation on a road right near Harrisburg. I have examined charts showing behavior of drivers before and after radar speed check signs were erected. The results are amazing. Here are some statistics based on Turnpike and State Police records:

In 1953, practically no radar was in use on the turnpike and ninety-one persons were killed.

In 1954, State Police used radar on a limited psychological basis, and the death toll was cut by forty over the previous year. Fifty-one were killed; ninety-one the previous year.

In 1955, the police used radar on a limited basis for only a few months, and the death toll was cut to sixty-one. Of the sixty-one killed so far this year, thnrty-nine per cent lost their lives in medial strip accidents. But in 1954, when radar was in use all year, only seventeen per cent of the fatalities resulted from crashes involving someone crossing the medial strip. Tracks indicate hundreds of crossovers who returned to regular traffic without hurting themselves or others. There are no records to substantiate that statement. We simply are taking the word of the State Police on the turnpike who see tracks of many who crossed the medial strip and apparently got back into the right lane of traffic without mishap.

Mr. President, our present Pennsylvania Motor Code requires that a policeman follow a speeder for a quarter of a mile. Hence, radar, which clocks the speed of a passing vehicle instantaneously, cannot be used to make speeding arrests until the law is changed. All our police can do is to flag down a speeder detected by radar, tell him how fast he was moving and warn him about the law, but police say only two per cent of those thus warned are picked up as repeat violators.

Radar, of course, is not the only thing that can be used to save lives on the turnpike. I have introduced a bill calling for the employment of about twenty per cent more State Police than we have at present. It would be my hope that many of these men could be assigned to Turnpike duty, thus bringing the number of police on our Turnpike System per mile more in line with the number per mile employed on the New Jersey Turnpike. It would seem to me that those officers, as well as the toll gate employees, might well be instructed to screen carefully the vehicles which are admitted to the turnpike. Too many cars with bald tires, faulty lights and other obvious faults are seen on the roads every day. More police, better enforcement and education on speeding, and some attention to the condition of vehicles which use the pike should certainly help to save lives.

Mr. President, certainly this matter is one which takes too many lives entirely. We do not know this to be a fact, but the rate of fatalities is not perhaps as high on the turnpike as it is on the other highways. However, we want to pursue this thing, and I am sure that Senator Dent is interested in pursuing this, also, to its ultimate conclusion that a beneficial effect can be had on the mortality rate on the turnpike.

Therefore, Mr. President, on behalf of my colleagues, Senator Dent, Senator Whalley, Senator Mahany and myself, I am introducing this bill which provides for the compulsory construction of medial strip on the turnpike in four different periods of six months each.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. WADE, DENT, WHALLEY and MAHANY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 764, entitled:

An Act requiring the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to erect medial barriers or guards in specified stages on existing turnpikes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, there is no bill on the floor at this time concerning safety on the turnpike. I am not sure that it is a good thing to have statements made here on this floor knocking the turnpike. It has been knocked by some people ever since it was built.

I have said a number of times on this floor that the turnpike is the safest highway on earth today, and the figures show it. I was glad to hear Senator Wade say that there are less accidents on the turnpike than on the other highways.

Mr. President, I do not blame Senator Wade and Senator Dent for trying to make the turnpike safer, but the other day I heard the members of the Turnpike Commission, who were not sworn, state this, that a barrier the whole length of the highway would make it worse and would kill more people. They said, as I remember it, the accidents they have, where the cars shoot clear across the Turnpike, amount to only eight per cent of the total. The biggest worry is cars bumping each other. Thirty-five per cent of the accidents were caused by cars piling up one behind the other. The members of the Turnpike Commission said that if you have a barrier the entire length of the turnpike and a fellow goes to sleep, which is what usually causes him to cross over, then he will pile up along this barrier and maybe there will be a half dozen cars pile up behind him. They also said it would make it more unsafe to build a barrier the entire length of that highway.

Mr. President, there are other sections in this State that want to build turnpikes and I think that they ought to be encouraged.

I know the statements made on this floor will be taken up and eaten up by the newspapers. You will find tomorrow stories and editorials all over the State of Pennsylvania about our turnpike. I do not think that it is a good thing to expose facts when they are not, maybe, correct.

Mr. President, the members of the Turnpike Commission have made a study of this turnpike, much more than we have. I heard every member of the commission, when they were over here the other day, say that this division would make it more dangerous and cause more accidents than there would be without the barrier.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to read into the record a short letter which I received on Friday. I am quoting from this letter, which is dated September the 22nd, 1955:

"Somerset Community Hospital
"Somerset, Pennsylvania
"Dear Senator Dent:

"On Wednesday, September the 14th, an article appeared on the front page of the Somerset Daily American which interested me very much. It was an article stating that the Senate Highways Committee had rejected a proposal that medial barriers be requied along the full 360 mile length of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

"On September the 5th, my wife and I were the innocent victims of this road, and I am told—and we thank God for this—that we were both extremely lucky to survive such a headon collision with both cars going about fifty miles an hour.

"Recuperating here in the hospital, it gives one very little consolation to know that the other car-driver was at fault since he was the one out of control and crossed the medial strip, hitting our car. For this reason, I was somewhat disappointed to read that the proposed legislation had been turned down for the time being. The article mentioned that you were appealing for further consideration, and for this I am deeply appreciative. Sitting in bed, I have given the problem a great deal of study and say to you that although this medial barrier may be expensive, It is certainly less expensive than days spent in hospitals and eternity spent in graveyards."

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, statistics can be altered and statistics can be used by those who want to use them. To say that there would be eighty deaths on the turnpike if the medial barrier were in full length, because there were two deaths on twelve miles, is just as silly as to say that when four people walk out the front steps of the capitol and there was a fault on one of the steps and one of them fell and broke a leg, that if forty of them walked out, ten of them would break a leg.

It does not hold true that you can multiply the accidents, and the constancy of accidents, by saying that if a certain number does this, another number will do this. The fact that people are being killed innocently is the only item of interest to this group; that you are helpless, that an innocent person's life is snuffed out because some one else has been careless, perhaps, or has tried to drive too far. In this connection it might be interesting to note that the Ohio Turnpike is being opened and being heralded as the safest road in the world. Now that is taking from us the record which Senator McGinnis claims for the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

It may also be interesting to note at this time that Ohio has not gone into the monopolistic patronage that we have in Pennsylvania. They have sixteen restaurants and they are under four different restauranteurs. They have sixteen gasoline depots, and they are under six different gasoline companies and they are going to allow competition. The Ohio Turnpike has the absolute right over the sizes of the portions to be served, over the prices of the gasoline to be charged and over the amount of money to be charged in the restaurants for the services. You can bet your life that no one will walk into those restaurants and pay twenty cents for a five-cent ice cream cone.

Mr. President, I want to tell all of you right now that if you do not think it is a ridiculous situation, just stop in some day and wait forty-five minutes to get service in one of our Pennsylvania Turnpike stations, and it is not because of crowding. It is because of the blind policy of trying to push all of the customers into one place so that they can get the maximum of labor out of the waitresses in the restaurants and out of the attendants at the gasoline stations. I waited forty-five minutes for gasoline last week going home, and I went home on a Friday afternoon.

Mr. President, it is all right to talk about these things and say that we are condemning. No one is condemning the members of the Turnpike Commission, but it is the duty of this Legislature to see to it that a creature which we created does not grow out of bounds and does not become so powerful that we cannot even say to it, "This is what the Legislature thinks."

This gentleman lying in the hospital does not agree with the men who say that turnpike barriers are a danger and a hazard. Perhaps they may prove to be that way; I do not know. I only know this, that when I am traveling on that turnpike and I see coming towards me a Juggernaut of steel at a speed of seventy, ninety or one hundred miles an hour, I am pretty darn nervous. When that little safety barrier is there, it at least lessens the tension.

Mr. President, some one said in the hearings the other day, which was reported to me, that if you put the steel barriers on the turnpike it will cause claustrophobia and the person would feel hemmed in. This was said at the hearing, Senator. Now, if on a fifty mile right-of-way, a two and a half foot fence causes you to have claustrophobia, you will have to jump out of your car when you get to the turnpike tunnels because the tunnels are completely closed over, and when you get there you would have to crawl out of the window. I do not know how you could ever survive through that.

I think that the Turnpike Commission is doing some things to try to help safety. I talked to one of the members, and he tells me that they are now making a study of lighting up the tunnels. Why, I have been in coal mines in Westmoreland County that are better lit up than those tunnels. When you come in out of the bright light, it is absolutely a hazard to go into those tunnels. On a bright day or on a snowy day when you come in out of the glare of the snow, it takes you half way through the tunnel before your eyes become accustomed to the darkness. The commission recognizes that, and that has been the condition since it was built, and these new members on there are trying to do something about it.

They are trying to lighten the interiors of the turnpike tunnels, and they are not so set against putting up the barriers. I will tell you who is set against it, the bondholding control, who tell the turnpike how much money they can spend, where they can spend it; who forced the issue on the stations and who forced them to close down stations. They said that the stations were hazardous. We move mountains in this Country with the equipment that we have and if they have the mountains and they have to move them in order to make room for parking, they can do it. They have enough money in the till right now to pay their bond payments for the next seven years. I do not know whether or not it is a good thing or it is not a good thing, but it is certainly worth a try.

They ought to put barriers on one stretch. Senator Whalley and I put in a bill a long time ago, asking them to put a barrier on a specified stretch which is dangerous and they know it is dangerous. The frequency of accidents has proven it to be dangerous. If one of you want to try it some time, just pull over into that berm. They are learning to stabilize it.

Senator McGinnis, you may not know this, but we made a study of the safety on the turnpike and we were very kind to them, because the things that we heard at that study we turned over to them and they fought very, very stubbornly against even stabilizing the center of the turnpike, the medial strip between the two opposing lanes. However, right now, after three and a half years, they are now stabilizing it to a firmness of concrete in all of the medial strip which is between Somerset and, I understand, Bedford. Now if it is good for that stretch, then it must be good for other stretches. When we recommended that, they laughed at us and said that we did not know what we were talking about; that they could not do it because of drainage. Well, what has happened in three and one half years is that they are now doing the very thing that we recommended three and a half years ago.

Mr. President, I say that there will come a day when two things have to happen in this Country of ours. One is that opposing lanes of traffic, on high speed roads, must be separated either by a wide medial strip of sixty feet like the Ohio Turnpike or a prominent-type safety barrier. The second thing that will have to happen is that we, in the various States, will have to pass legislation outlawing 285 horsepower motors, outlawing those automobiles which go beyond the speed of even most of the commercial airplanes which travel today. You go out here and buy a Piper Cub and its cruising is 128 miles an hour. I will take anybody in this room who wants to ride with me, and with police protection and immunity from the Revenue department, on that Turnpike in my car and if I do not have you in seven minutes up to 125 miles an hour, I will give you the title to the automobile. If the newspaper men will ride with me, I would love to have them. because if anything should happen at least I would know that I would be in good company, and when we get to that great divide, I would hate to say goodby as they go below.

Mr. President, in all seriousness, no matter what we do on the turnpike, no matter how many barriers we build, if we allow the automobile manufacturers to keep adding horsepower to the automobiles we will still be negligent in our efforts to prevent accidents. There is a belief going around that the horses which they are building into these cars today are mere ponies, because I remember when we bought thirty-five horsepower motor cars and they went up hills pretty well and they traveled pretty good. Now, however, you have a Ford with a 202 horsepower motor in it.

I am serious and I am asking that committee to give serious consideration. Let us not be stampeded; I agree on that proposal that we ought to allow them time to do it, but to blindly say that it is not the right thing to do, without proof that it is not the right thing to do, is not correct. The only way to prove it is to try it, and if they want to try it on a fifty mile stretch, try it and compare that with the rest of the road in fatal accidents.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I apologize for bringing this discussion up under this order of business. However, I think there are several things that should yet be brought out. I assure you that I will attempt to keep within bounds, more so than my colleague who just spoke and discussed the cost of ice cream cones, the construction of automobiles and so forth.

In the first place, Mr. President. I do not agree with Senator Dent that figures or statistics gathered by the Turnpike Commission are not helpful to all. Certainly, life insurance companies would be on a very unsound basis if they did not use some standard table of mortality gathered by statistics of years gone by. Therefore, the Turnpike Commission, and I am quite sure that Senator Dent is correct in this,—in fact, I could substantiate many moves made by the Turnpike Commissioners, both the old ones and the new ones, as well—indicates their intense interest in the safety on the turnpike. As a matter of fact, the descriptive literature on the turnpike reads as follows:

"The far famed Pennsylvania Turnpike, backbone of America's sprawling network of super highways, traverses the entire Commonwealth from the Ohio State line, near Youngstown, to the Delaware River, a few miles north of Philadelphia. It is a 360 miles stretch, four lane, divided, limited access, all-weather highway without a single cross road, railroad crossing, stop light, sharp curve or steep grade and without pedestrian traffic or straying livestock."

Then, again, it says:

"Turnpike curves are long and sweeping, with a minimum sight distance of 1,000 feet. No grade is over three per cent. Minimum width on the right-of-way is 200 feet. The twenty-four foot traffic lanes in each direction are separated by a ten foot medial strip. Clover leaf interchanges provide safe entry and exit to the twenty-nine interchange gateways."

Again, Mr. President, may I call attention to the fact that, as Senator Dent said awhile ago, he, together with Senator Mahany and Senator Whalley, introduced on June 21st, a bill providing for medial strips in certain curved sections on the western end of the turnpike. That bill was brought from the Highways Committee and passed finally on August 9th, in the Senate, by a vote of 48-0.

Just one more thing, Mr. President, and that is this. Senator Dent referred to the opening of the Ohio Turnpike. Twenty-six miles have already been opened and are in use, but on Saturday of this week the entire length of the turnpike will be thrown open to traffic. The construction of that is what I wish to bring out in particular. Through the use of figures furnished by the Pennsylvania Turnpike and other roads of two way separated construction, they have built their turnpike with a sixty foot medial strip which has a dip between for drainage and also for safety, believing that vehicles leaving that one lane of traffic will get caught in the down dip and not reach the traffic going the other way. In addition to the twelve foot strips of concrete, they have an eight foot strip on the inside which is paved with hard surface, black top, so to speak, and a ten foot strip on the outside of each of the lanes. They are also interested in safety, and they are making some of the moves that we might be criticized for. I certainly agree with Senator McGinnis that we do not want to reflect too much on this turnpike, because the Turnpike Commissioners are interested in moving toward more safety, and we do not want to reflect on the turnpike bcause some will become fearful of using it.

However, Mr. President, the engineering was started during the Democratic Administration of twenty years ago. A large section of the turnpike was constructed then and that might be a criticism against the Democratic Administration. However, the Republicans followed the same pattern in extending the western end and the eastern end. Therefore, as far as it being a political mistake, it does not fall in that category at all. It is an engineering mistake. The road should have been further divided. The Turnpike Commission agrees with that and all who have studied the situation agree to that. The new extension of the turnpike, up through the coal region from Philadelphia, will carry a medial barrier of raised concrete ten feet wide. The barrier is raised above the other lanes of traffic, and the hope is that that will prove much safer than the first construction.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. McGINNIS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I merely want to say that I do not think this Legislature has the right to manage the turnpike and run it. I do not think this Legislature has the right to tell the turnpike where to biuld its medial strips or where many restaurants should be located along that highway.

This Legislature created the authority to build the turnpike. The Turnpike Authority then made a contract with the bond buyers and the bond buyers put up cash to build every inch of this turnpike. I doubt if this Legislature has the right to butt in now and destroy the value of those bonds. If we could do that, to build a barrier costs nine or ten million dollars, we could jump in and compel them to do something else which would lessen the value of the bonds. It would discourage the building of turnpikes forever afterwards if this Legislature would have the audacity to step in and run that turnpike and manage it. I do not think this Legislature has any right to do it under the law. I will admit that they may have the right to fix the speed on the turnpike and that we have done. That may be a right which is left to the Legislature, but I doubt seriously whether this Legislature has any right to step in and direct the running of the Turnpike Commission which has made an agreement with the bondholders. The bondholders put up the money on those conditions and built the turnpike.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

CONGRATULATIONS OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE BOROUGH OF HATBORO FOR ITS TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS OF ADVANCEMENT

Mr. PROPERT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, September 26, 1955.

The community of Hatboro, Montgomery County, is this year celebrating its 250th anniversary.

The marking of two hundred and fifty years in the history of Hatboro is a joyous occasion and calls forth many happy recollections and many occurences which give the citizens of Hatboro a strong sense of satisfaction and pride.

Hatboro was founded in 1705 as "The Crooked Billet", being so named for a tavern located in the center of the town. Near this site the Battle of Crooked Billet was fought during the Revolutionary War. Hatboro (Crooked Billet) was a stagecoach stop on the route from Philadelphia to New York, and remained just a small country village until its incorporation as Hatborough in August of 1871. With the advent of the railroad in 1872, the Borough experienced somewhat of a boom. It was not, however, until after the First World War that industrial plants came to Hatboro and new homes were built and the population tremendously expanded.

In recent years, because of its excellent transportation facilities, good schools and fine community spirit, Hatboro has grown to the thriving and prosperous community of 6500 people it is today; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania extends its congratulations to the borough of Hatboro for its two hundred and fifty years of advancement; and be it further

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

REQUIRING THAT PHYSICAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS BE ESTABLISHED IN ALL PUBLIC SCHOOLS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Mr. WHALLEY offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Education:

In the Senate, September 26, 1955.

Recently, at a White House luncheon, the problem of the physical fitness of the youth of the United States was brought to the attention of the President of the United States in the form of a report given by Hans Kraus, M.D., Associate Professor of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at New York University and Miss Ruth Prudden, Director of the Institute for Physical Fitness at White Plains, New York.

The President said that the problem is a very serious one and even more alarming than he had imagined.

According to studies and tests, the percentage of American youths who are physically unfit with respect to muscular strength and flexibility is any where from thirty-four per cent to forty-nine per cent higher than for youths of European countries.

This condition has been brought about to a great extent by indulgent parents, unwillingness of children to participate in exercise and excessive use of buses, automobiles and television.

Our country will not long endure, as a leading power among great nations, if our youth is allowed to waste away and the time has come for us to attack the problem with a constructive program.

Our public schools are ideal places for carrying out a program of rehabilitating physically unfit youths. There, children may be made to engage in drills, calisthenics and exercises that will help to build healthy bodies; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Department of Public Instruction require that physical educational programs be established in all public schools; and be it further

Resolved, That at least fifteen minutes per day be devoted in all schools to formal exercises or calisthenics.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 705, Printer's No. 972, on third reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 721, entitled:

An Act authorizing and directing the Department of Highways to accept a bridge across Redbank Creek and the approaches thereto connecting the State highway system in Armstrong County with the State highway system in Clarion County

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PECHAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, tell me the purpose of this act?

Mr. PECHAN. The Climax Brick Company, which is on the border of Clarion and Armstrong Counties, at one time built a privately owned bridge for use by its employees. This bridge connects two State highways. The Climax Brick Company has no further use for the bridge and has abandoned it. It is a bridge of poor construction, and they have barricaded the bridge so that the public will not use it. However, every once in awhile, somebody takes down the barricade and uses this bridge. They are afraid that someone will go through the bridge and get hurt. For that reason, they are abandoning that bridge.

I have a petition which is signed, I think, by some 2,000 citizens from Clarion and Armstrong Counties, asking that the State do something about that area because the Climax Brick Company is no longer responsible.

Mr. HALUSKA. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, tell us the cost of this project?

Mr. PECHAN. Well, it does not have to be done. There is no use for it. The people use it for a short cut.

Mr. HALUSKA. What will it cost the Commonwealth to take this bridge over?

Mr. PECHAN. Nothing. I mean, if the Commonwealth will go in there and tear it down or not replace it, it would cost nothing. However, the Climax Brick Company has no further use of the bridge. They used it as a convenience for their employees before these two roads were improved.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman from Armstrong to hold this bill over until next Monday, because some of the boys who are interested in the bill are not here today.

Mr. PECHAN. I would be very happy to do that. In fact, the petitions that I have, and the letters which accompanied the request for the introduction of the bill, are downstairs in my office. I am not prepared to read them now.

I will be very happy to let the bill go over because I think you will find that it should not be controversial once you understand the bill.

And the question recurring,

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 721, Printer's No. 251, on final passage, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1003, Printer's No. 964, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I understand that this bill will allow certain groups to come in to harvest potato crops, and so forth, to get special license plates. If it is going to be of any value to them, Senator, we should act upon it.

Do you plan just to hold it over for one day so that we might act upon it tomorrow or had you in mind to have it keep going over until after the harvest season is passed?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, there has been quite some discussion on this bill because where it offers relief to foreigners, it penalizes local citizens. Again, I wish to say that some of the Senators who are very much interested in this bill are not here today, and they have asked me to hold it up until next Monday, if possible, before taking final action on it.

We may be able to have a meeting of minds on it and then pass the bill without any opposition.

Mr. MAHANY. I will consent to that, Mr. President, if it is understood that we will not hold the bill up any longer than next Monday.

The PRESIDENT. There being no objection, the bill will go over in its order.

Total	$1,400,000.00	$93,500.00	$1,493,500.00

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I have a personal interest in House Bill No. 1652 in that for many years I have been traveling from my home town of Titusville down to Harrisburg; especially have I traveled that route since 1943, when I first became a Member of this Legislature. Of course, every time I came down to Harrisburg I have to pay five cents to get over the Clarks Ferry Bridge. I often wondered why we had to continue paying a toll to get over that bridge and all the other bridges down here, with the exception of the bridge that was named after my good friend, the M. Harvey Taylor Bridge, and of course, he has given us all passes to go over that bridge, lifetime free passes, but to get into the Capital City by way of all the other bridges a toll must be paid. It does not seem quite right because we know throughout the State, the Highway Department has built large, expensive bridges over which you may travel without the payment of any toll.

Mr. President, I remember in the early years of my legislative experience, we struggled to get these bridges free of toll. We had legislation passed to do that. I remember my good friend, Ray Smock, when he was Secretary of Highways, did a great deal to make contracts with the people who owned these bridges to have them deeded over to the Commonwealth and then set up a fund which would be contributed to by these tolls, so that at sometime the bridges would be free.

Mr. President, I have been given the information that on all the bridges which are now on the toll list there has been collected, to August 31, 1955, the sum of $7,658,462.65. The expenses for collecting the tolls on these bridges to date is $1,262,653.13, leaving a net profit of $6,395,809.52. I also further understand that the amount of the cost to take over these bridge was $8,000,000. Therefore, if we add the amount of tolls which was collected to the credits in the old bridge account, which was in the amount of $742,079.57, we would get a total of $7,137,889.09. If we subtract that total from the $8,000,000, which it cost to take over the bridges, we would get approximately $900,000 yet to be collected before these bridges will be toll free. In the very near future, it looks as though I will be able to travel from Crawford County to Harrisburg, and all the other people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be able to get into our State Capital, without having to stop at the bridge and pay that nickel to come to visit one of the outstanding cities of the Commnowealth.

Therefore, Mr. President, I look forward to the time when Senator Dent and the rest of us—and I feel sure that Governor Leader will want to be there—can go over and have some kind of a ceremony when the last toll is collected and when the bridges are finally made free of all tolls.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am happy to hear the remarks made by the gentleman on the other side.

I would like to remind him that the first bills to free the bridges over the Susquehanna were put in, if my memory serves me right, back under the Earle Administration. I am happy to say that after twenty years, the Democrats are back in and we are really going to free them now.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as fololws, viz:

In any case, where in the opinion of the secretary, such costs should be shared by the department and a city, borough, incorporated town or township, and the department is unable to agree with such city, borough, incorporated town or township to a division of the costs, the department may proceed with the work and petition the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission for a determination of the costs to be borne by each party."

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 162, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," increasing rental charge allowed for use of receiving district's school plant in calculating tuition charge per high school pupil to be paid by sending district.

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Dent, a couple of weeks ago, when this bill was on the Calendar, you stated if this bill were passed it would cost the Commonwealth $1,200,000. You know that the Republicans are anxious to economize wherever possible so that the Commonwealth will not have to pay out more than it has to. We felt concerned over your statement and, if that statement is still correct, of course, we will recommit this House Bill to committee however, if it is not, we would like to act on the bill.

Therefore, I ask you whether that statement made by you still holds true.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in answer to that I might say that I asked the Budget Director to check back with the Department of Public Instruction, and we found that they were in error on the reimbursement. There is no reimbursement fraction for this particular charge. Therefore, in so far as the Commonwealth is concerned, it will not cost the Commonwealth any more. It will cost the sending schools; the receiving schools will receive the money, but not from the Commonwealth. Therefore, if you are interested in the so-called new-born Republican economy drive and you are not going to charge any more to the Commonwealth and you want to place it on the local community, proceed and pass the bill.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Dent, I note that it was not just our idea. Two of the sponsors of this bill are evidently Democrats and I understood that it probably was a Democratic-sponsored bill. Please do not unload all of the burden on the Republicans.

Mr. DENT. Thank you. Mr. President, I am happy to see the Republicans passing Democratic-sponsored bills here in the Senate. I might remind the gentleman, however, that there are many Democratic-sponsored bills in the committees over here. There are something like 305 of them, which deal with the Administration's policies. If the Republicans are really interested and are afraid that we might get too much blame for passing them, we will take the blame. If they are afraid that we will get too much credit, we will take that, too.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, there have been some comments in the newspapers during the past week or so relative to plans of the House to take an extended recess until December 5th of this year. Several reporters have asked me whether or not the Senate was going to concur in the plans of the House to recess until that time. For the information of the Senate, and also of the House and also of the public, we feel that the House should remain in Session along with the Senate until such time as we can conclude the business of the Commonwealth and adjourn sine die.

We are of the present opinion that next week we will be able to get out of the Appropriations Committee the appropriation bills in their amended form, if they are to be amended, to the point where we feel that there will be sufficient money provided in the appropriation bills to take care of the needs of the Commonwealth. We expect to act on those appropriation bills next week.

Mr. President, Senator Pechan has procured rooms at motels and also at, I understand, the Hershey Hotel so that any of the Senators who do not know where they are going to sleep next week, if they will see Senator Pechan he will see that a room is provided for them at one or the other of these hotels and motels.

We hope that the Members of the Senate will be in attendance the first of the week so we can act on these important measures. I have no doubt that there will be much debate upon them. We feel that we can justify the figures in the amended appropriation bills, and we will be prepared to argue those figures out with the Members of the Democratic Party. After that, we hope that we will be able to arrive at some satisfactory tax policy. I have stated here time and time again, and I have stated to the Governor, that this is as far as we feel that we can go, inasmuch as the Democrats are in control of the Governor's office and also in control of the House, where all tax bills must originate. Rather than spend a lot of time getting through a tax bill over in the House which would not have any chance of passage in the Senate, any tax measure that any of the Democratic leaders in the House has in mind or the Governor has in mind, I will be pleased to discuss that tax measure with the Members of the Republican Caucus and advise the Democrats how many Republicans may be procured for that particular tax measure. In that manner, they will not have to spend weeks and months driving a tax bill through the House which has no chance of passage in the Senate, which they did in the case of the so-called Leader classified income tax.

Mr. President, we hope that we will be able to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion on the financial picture for the State of Pennsylvania so that the businesses that are figuring on coming into Pennsylvania, and the businesses which are already in Pennsylvania and are planning to expand in Pennsylvania, will know what the ultimate tax structure will be. We want to work hand-in-hand with the Democrats and with the Governor in relation to figuring out these problems and coming to a satisfactory solution, but we do not feel that it is our job to sponsor or even co-sponsor any tax measure. That is a job, an obligation and a responsibility which the Democrats must assume inasmuch as they have control of the Governor's Office and the House of Representatives. As I stated, we are ready to continue on here from week to week, and I feel sure that we will be able to find proper rooming accommodations for the Senators. We are planning to continue on week to week until such time as we can find a satisfactory solution to the Commonwealth's problems and adjourn this Session of the Legislature sine die.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I do not know how and I do not have at hand the number of days that the House has worked and the far lesser number of days that the Senate has worked. It would be outstanding if some would prepare that and present it to the newspapers, so that the people in the Commonwealth could tell how the House has worked and the Senate has done little or nothing. In the Senate committees now there are resting over five hundred bills which have been passed by the House and there is nothing being done about them. The committee system in the Senate of Pennsylvania has broken down into, I would say, nothing. There is no such thing. All bills now are referred to the Republican Caucus.

The gentleman who just preceded me on the floor made a statement to the newspapers, which came to me earlier this afternoon and in which he said that the Appropriations Committee was meeting and they were cutting the appropriation bills as they passed from the House. I said to a gentleman from one of the newspapers that this was a complete falsehood, as I was a member of that committee, and there had not been one meeting called. Now if they are going to have the iron curtain system in that committee, I presume that we will have to contend with it because they are the ones who are in control of the Senate.

Secondly, Mr. President, I think the newspapers did not print the whole story of what the Majority Leader in the House said last week. I personally was out of town the day he said that he thought that the House would recess, but that at the call of the Speaker they were waiting for the Republican Senate to tell them just what tax they were in favor of. It appears to me that the tax is going to have to be given to them by the Republican Senate, because any other tax that has been mentioned always receives the same response, "No, no, we will not have it." Therefore, we are waiting, and the House is waiting, for the word of you gentlemen on the other side as to just what tax you probably will accept. Thereafter, they probably will use their prerogative and see if it is acceptable to them.

I am just wondering when the committees in this Senate are going to function again and when these bills are either going to be reported out or disapproved in the Senate Committees. As I told the gentleman earlier in my little dissertation here, I, for one, have been a pretty dutiful person on attending committee meetings. I like to learn more about the bills. Sometimes in committee you can learn more about the bill than you can learn here on the floor or even in your Caucus. I would like to see us go back to that Democratic way of doing business in the Senate.

Mr. President, the story I have told you on the appropriation bills has been borne out when the gentleman says that the appropriation committee is meeting. I do not know who it is, but it is either the men who work over in that committee room on a salary basis or Members of the Senate. I was elected as a Member of the Senate and I was not elected to have Mr. Logan do my work for me because, personally, I think I know as much about the budget as Mr. Logan does, because he has been giving us bum budgets up here for the last sixteen years that I know of.

I was hoping, and I guess I was hoping too much, that the newspapers had actually reported waht Representative Readinger said last week, that the House would be there at the call of the people. I do not know whether all of you know it or not, but we have all been advised this week that we must get out of the hotels tomorrow at five o'clock. As I understand it, the House Members next week are coming back, I think, on Thursday so that they will have room. It is just a little bit different here in the Senate than it is in the House. You know they have 210 members or so, and they have far more employees than we have to attend to that many persons and they also have to be housed. Over here in the Senate there are some of us who are fortunate enough to have apartments, such as Senator Mahany and myself, and that feature does not bother us too much.

Mr. President, I think if the men are going to come here to do their work, the Senate should get down to work and work on these bills which are over here and then, maybe tomorrow, we could go over and meet with clean and open hands. That is the way I intend to go into that meeting tomorrow. I have been tipped off already, and I do not think that you fellows are coming over in that spirit because you say that you are going to talk about figures tomorrow which have been compiled by Mr. Logan, and probably Mr. Stoner and a few others who are here on a salary basis and have not been elected to anything in the Senate Appropriations Committee.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I had hoped that we would dispense with trying to tar each other with a black stick until after we had an opportunity to discuss, on an intelligent plane, the question of the difference between the Republican budget figures and those that have been submitted by the Governor of the Commonwealth, who, incidentally, is primarily responsible for the administrative functions of this government.

I had hoped that when we met tomorrow, we would be able to ascertain just what their figures were and try to come up with some sort of a compromise.

It is easy, Mr. President, to cut a budget. It is the simplest procedure in the world. You just cut the services and you cut the budget. That is a simple fact. You have decided that you are going to vote for nothing but a certain type of tax, and you have said all along that you would only vote for that tax. I have listened to the speeches on television, and radio, and on the floor of the Senate and on the floor of the House, and I read reams of newspaper stories in which it has been told to us that there is no compromise but a sales tax. I was perfectly amazed and astonished last week when I picked up a local newspaper and the Republican Floor Leader in the House charged that the Democrats were stalling on the tax bill; that they were trying to euchre the Republicans into a position where they, the Republicans would be for a sales tax.

I have watched honor go down the drain for political connivance and convenience. I have watched respect for each other's word disappear from the political scene in this Session of the Legislature. I have watched men elected to office take orders from the outside to the point where they are mere puppets. I have talked privately to men, and in those close private conversation gained a knowledge of their thinking which I was proud to know that they possessed. I have watched them horsewhipped back into line by an action calling for the unit control. The most dangerous thing in this country of ours and the legislative halls is the practice of unit control. There is nothing that will destroy this democracy of ours quicker than the practice of a unit rule.

Yes, Mr. President, we vote together and we disagree. However, men tell you honestly that this is exactly what they think can and ought to be done and then they come up sheepishly and say, "I'm sorry, but the Caucus said no."

Mr. Mahany cannot stand over there and tell the people of Pennsylvania that it is the Governor's responsibility to produce tax bills when they say that they will not vote for any tax bill except that which they approve. The Governor has a gun at his head.

You are a lawyer, Senator Mahany. I want to ask you, sir, if you put a gun in my hand and put your finger over my trigger finger and squeezed the trigger and you killed an innocent party, would I be guilty of murder or would you?

You say to the people of Pennsylvania, "We'll have a sales tax." Your leader over in the House says, "We'll have a sales tax, but we won't be responsible for it. Well have the Democrats be responsible for it." You are putting your finger on the trigger finger of the Democratic Party. You want us to kill the little people in this State and then say, "Bad. Didn't I tell you they are no friends of yours? They broke their word."

You are a lawyer who knows the law and practices the law. The law is that if you or I have a Majority in this Senate and you refuse to take the Governor's recommendations for budgets and for taxes, you are responsible. If you have already cut the budget, what do you want to meet with the Governor for tomorrow morning? If you have already predetermined just what tax bill you will take, why do you want to kid the people into believing that the Governor has to come up with a tax bill?

I have said before and I will say now, that so long as you take that stubborn attitude I, for one, will appeal to all the Democrats to vote against your sales tax. When you sit down and negotiate at a table of compromise, you do not do that only on the basis of what you want; you do that on the basis of giving a little and taking a little. Some of us have earnestly tried; some of us have gone through the budget from one end to the other without the benefit of outside help and without the benefit of inside help, and we have come up with some figures. However, somewhere along the line somebody determind how much money the State was going to have this biennium and regardless of arguments to the contrary, and regardless of how long we stay in Session, you have predetermined that you are going to cut $131,000,000 from the budget. If I am not mistaken, Mr. President, I would like to predict that when the figures come out of these private meetings of a so-called, or supposed to be, bi-partisan committee meeting they will somewhere approximately that figure because a predetermination has been made.

Mr. President, they have hold me and they have told the world that they are against any more taxes on industry; they are against any form of taxation which places the ability to pay as the base for taxation. I tried to sit down with individuals and groups of Republican Senators and explain to them that our whole economy in this Country comes out of payroll, and if you place a tax of a figure, say, of $400,000,000, and out of the $400,000,000 you take about $300,000,000 of the $400,000,000 tax out of the pockets of those who make less than $7,000 a year, you are taking out of the commercial and merchandise market $300,000,000.

Mr. President, we do not buy new refrigerators, those of us who are in a little higher bracket, those of us who are more settled in our ways. Do you know who buys new refrigerators, new television, new automobiles, new homes and furniture, waffle irons and all of the accessories and little things which make up this great commercial sale that we have in this country? I will tell you who buys them; the fellows making under $7,000 a year. My refrigerator was bought in 1937 and I still have it. I can name you persons who do not have one-third the income I have that have had four refrigerators since then. Tightwads like us Senators would bankrupt this Country inside of five years. We never buy anything unless we have to have it. We are at the age now where one suit of clothes will darn near bury us. I doubt if there is a man in this Senate conceited enough to buy a two-pants suit anymore.

We must recognize the economy and the health of this State of ours. You cannot keep putting the creditor's share of the burden of taxation upon the little fellow.

For instance, Mr. President, I want to read you something here. You say we cannot tax industry, and none of us wants to tax industry beyond their share but let us look at some things. I have here, Mr. President, apropos to the subject, a letter from Greensburg, Pennsylvania, signed by W. Everett Noel, the Chairman; Harry C. Gongaware, Member; and Robert A. Kilgore, Member of the County Commissioners of my county, two Republicans and one Democrat. That was a mistake we do not hope to repeat. Mr. President, I would like to read this letter:

"Dear Senator Dent:

"This letter will advise you that Westmoreland County is very much interested in four bills now before the Legislature relating to repeal of the 1953 amendment regarding machinery tax exemption. Westmoreland County is in favor of the repeal of the 1953 amendment. If this amendment goes into effect on the first Monday of January 1956, the assessments in Westmoreland County will be adversely affected to the extent of approximately thirty per cent. This means that larger assessments will have to be placed upon the small property owner to even up from the loss of revenue from machinery assessment."

Now, Mr. President, if they pass the kind of tax which they want to pass, with the exemptions that they gave to big industry and to large consumers in this State, eighty-two per cent of the tax that you are talking about will be paid by the little peoples of Pennsylvania, further depleting the amount of money that they can put into the stream of commercial enterprise and merchandising, further depleting the amount of money that will be used to buy up the products of industry.

Mr. President, worry often comes to me and I wake up in the middle of the night in a cold sweat. You know, I worked with my hands and you can tell it by looking at me. I worked from the time I was eleven years old in a factory. I quit school when I was twelve. I do not want to go back to swinging the pick and I do not want to go back to manual labor. However, if we keep pressing down the screws upon the back of the little fellow, there will come the day when he will say "What's the use?" When he does, we need not fear communism; we will have something worse. People cannot be pushed to the precipice. You cannot take thirty per cent of taxation off of industry and put it onto the small home owner in my county without endangering the democracy in which we live. You cannot put eighty per cent of a new tax burden in this State upon the little fellow who earns less than $7,000 a year, without injuring the ecenomy as well as the way of life that we enjoy. You just cannot keep putting taxes on, disregarding the ability to pay.

Mr. President, I have talked with big industrial leaders in this State, and I have talked to utility leaders in this State, and I have talked to members of the Chamber of Commerce and, incidentally, I am a member of the Chamber of Commerce. I know how they feel, individually. The trouble is that you are fighting next year's campaign in this General Assembly. I do not care if Jim Duff wants to run for United States Senator. I would be in favor of it if he wants it so much. He is no harm down there; he does not hurt anybody; he does not do anything. So, if they want him back, I do not care. In fact, I would almost be tempted to give it to him if he would let you fellows loose to vote the way you want to vote. I am not disturbed over Jim Duff or anybody else. I come from the same kind of county as most of you men come from. By the grace of God, I have been elected five times to this Senate, once in the City Council and once over in the House of Representatives. I was defeated once, yes, for County Commisisoner. I was defeated because my people thought I should not be such a hog and I should not try to hold two political jobs. I think they were quite right at that particular stage.

Mr. President, my people are no different than yours. I am not fearful of my political future if I am doing what I think is the right thing. If you Republicans over there think you are going to saddle us with a sales tax and not deliver your twenty-six votes, you have got another think coming. We will deliver every vote we have for any tax proposal that we sponsor. If you do not want to give us the constitutional majority to put it through, then why do you not say so to the people and vote your twenty-six votes, and we will see that you get the bill with which to do it.

You are not going to put your finger on my trigger finger and make me commit murder and then convict me of it. You might make me do it, but I am going to plead innocent before the court of the people. You might push me off the precipice and then go around saying that I jumped, but if I live through it, I will deny it.

So, I say to you Members of this Senate, all of you, let us quit shadow boxing. The Speaker of the House of Representatives, Al Readinger, is as reasonable, as sensible and as honorable a man as I have ever dealt with in the twenty odd years that I have been here. He came over to the Senate in good faith, talked to the Senate Republican leaders and he said, "We have reached a stalemate in the House. We have passed over 500 bills, and sent them over to the Senate. The hotels say that they do not have room. Both sides have agreed that we will recess and be available at the call of the Speaker. When you fellows over there have made up your minds on what kind of a tax bill you will give us votes for, we will always be available to come back." Little did he think that when he picked up the newspaper the following day, responsible Republican leaders castigated him for suggesting a recess. The Republicans said they were going to stay and bare their breast to the great duties of the Senate, and work here while they the House, went out and loafed on a recess.

I said that I had seen honor go down the drain. It used to be in this Senate that when you gave your word to anybody, somehow or another there was an unwritten code and you kept your word. You cannot reach any kind of an agreement because no one has the power to sit down and say, "This represents Republican thinking."

Tomorrow morning, we meet with the Governor. What is the purpose of the meetings? The purpose of the meeting is to try to iron out our differences on budgets. What are we told here today? We are told that the Appropriations Committee has them all set and they will be out Monday. What kind of a deal or a suggestion of a compromise is that? You are putting your finger on my trigger finger and you are trying to make me commit murder. Not only do you want me to commit it, but you want to convict me and hang me for it. No. You are a lawyer, Senator Mahany, and if you force us into that position, it will be your finger on the trigger, not mine. You are not going to force this Democratic administration into the position of sponsoring your bills. We will take the full responsibility for sponsoring the tax bills. We were even willing to sit down and try to compromise with you. However, I pick up the newspaper and it says, by Senator Taylor, "The only compromise is a sales tax." How do we compromise? The Governor has gracefully taken the beating that you administered to him.

You have said "Your bill is out." If we would not have stalled you for three days, you would have killed it as fast as it came over from the House. It would not have had a chance to have its head raised above the top of the desk of the Finance Committee Chairman. However, you killed it in quick fashion. Now you say to us, "After we get the budget bills out next week, then perhaps we can sit down and work out a tax program."

INTERROGATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I now desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. It is always a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Senator Mahany, will you compromise on a tax program that places fifty per cent of the taxes on industry and fifty per cent upon the people?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I think that industry is paying pretty much. At least, in the last budget, fifty percent of the taxes of the Commonwealth were paid by industry. I remember the corporation tax and the others in that tax pie dollar and I think that it showed where industry paid about fifty per cent of it.

Mr. DENT. I asked you a question. I did not say what they are doing. I asked you if you would sit down for a compromise on that basis?

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Dent, you know that I could not answer that question with a "yes" or "no." I would have to know what type of taxes. When you say "tax on industry," I would have to know whether it would be on capital stock tax, whether it would be a corporate net income tax increase and just what type of taxes and what rates and percentages you have in your tax legislation. Nobody could answer that question with a "yes" or "no."

Mr. DENT. Yes, you can. If I suggest that I let you write how it would be placed on industry, we will take what you write.

Mr. MAHANY. I am not prepared right now to tell you. I would want to study any tax proposal. Certainly one could not answer with an off-the-cuff answer to your question and say "yes" or "no." Personally, I might be in favor of it but as you know, we discuss these things in our Republican Caucus. I have no authority to answer for my Republican colleagues on such a question as you have asked me. I, personally, might be in favor of it, but the other Republican Senators may not be. I have no authority at this point to answer for them.

Mr. DENT. Would you tell me so that I can inform the House in order that they may stay in Session? It seems to be the desire of the Republican Senate that the House stay in Sesion. In order to give them some field to work in, will you tell me upon which field of taxation they might propose taxes that would be acceptable to you fellows?

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Dent, we have made our statement, a written statement, three or four weeks ago, to the Governor. We suggested to him that if he would avail himself of a sales tax, we were under the impression that he would get a sufficient number of Republican votes over here, along with yours, to pass it. We suggested a sales tax of two per cent with the present exemptions.

Mr. DENT. Thank you, Senator Mahany.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, maybe I do not hear right. I think I am getting a little thick somewhere. The doctor told me to lose weight and perhaps I should start losing the weight on my head. I just cannot seem to understand, Mr. President, what is going on. Senator Mahany said that, in writing, they told the Governor they were willing to compromise if he took a sales tax. Is that not what I have been saying all along? Their compromise consists of a sales tax but your leader over in the House says, "You cannot plant the sales tax on us, boys. It is Governor Leader's tax. He is stalling; he wants a sales tax but he wants to plant it on us."

Where do we go from here, Mr. President? We will stay in Session from now until the end of the biennium if you keep up the attitude that the only compromise you have is the sales tax; I will guarantee you that we will sit here until the end of the biennium. We are willing to compromise. We will take any compromise that you will accept, but not when you say to us that your only compromise will be on the sales tax and that only. That is not a compromise; that is your finger on my trigger finger. You are killing the fellow through me. You cannot do that to me. You just cannot. You might try it, and I guarantee you I will not jump off of the precipice; you will have to push me. When you do, you will deliver twenty-six votes, because that is your tax and not ours.

When you are not ready to deliver twenty-six votes, stand on this floor and say that you cannot deliver twenty-six votes. Then I will tell the people that you have no tax program .Either you take what we offer you or compromise on something, where you give a little and we give a little, or you can stay here until the end of the biennium so far as I am concerned.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, since I was a boy I have always been taught that to compromise is to give and take. When people arrived at a certain impasse, one gave a little and the other gave a little. In the Senate we hear about the great compromise the Republican Party offers. They say, "You take my way or do not take anything."

For the information of the Senate, sometime in the near future there is going to be an expose made of the millions of dollars that are beng spent to sell the sales tax to the people of Pennsylvania. They are using every means possible to change the method of taxation and place it on the little man, to beat him down to where they had him before. The Republican Comintern has sent out word that this must be carried out. Now we find the twenty-six members of the Senate dancing like puppets in a puppet show. When the dictator of the Comintern, Mason Owlett, yes, and Jim Duff, who plays under the table with them occasionally, pulls their strings, these twenty-six must jump. It is not representative government. It is the same type of government that is used in Russia. There the Comintern dictates and the presidium does the job. Here the Comintern of big business tells them what to do and the twenty-six Republican Senators go out and do it.

Since the Republican Senators are worried about going home, I would like to draw their attention to page 165 and page 166. There is a list of bills which have passed the House and which are dieing in the Senate Committees. No meetings have been held; no bills have been discussed, especially the bills which affect those people who they were crying about a little while ago. They were crying crocodile tears when they said they were protecting the little man, who works and toils for a living, from the classified income tax and trying to make him believe tthat he was going to pay the tax. Whereas, the Republican Senators were only hiding behind a screen to protect the investment bankers and the money interests of this State from paying their just share of the taxes.

I want to refer to the members of the press and tell them that they will find hundreds of bills which have not been considered in committee. I also want to draw to their attention the fact that the Appropriations Committee is not holding any meetings. The Appropriations Committee is afraid to hold a meeting and discuss cutting the budget. They tell us that the bills are coming out next Monday, the appropriation bills which are cut. I would like to know who cut them. The members of the Appropriations Committee did not cut them. The Republican Comintern behind the scenes, which is working in the hotels late at night, is working on the budget and trying to deny the mentally retarded children in western Pennsylvania of getting into hospitals. They have been waiting for seven years, Mr. President, and they still cannot get into the mentally retarded hospitals. Mental patients who are now in mental hospitals, who are being treated as criminals, are not given the proper medical attention and the proper treatment in order to rehabilitate them. We in Pennsylvania are down at the bottom of the list. The Republican Party, however, is still taking orders from the Republican Comintern which says, "Cut the budget .What do we care for these people in mental institutions? They cannot vote. Let us keep them in the mental institutions."

The same thing exists with our schools. The schools of Pennsylvania rank down near the bottom. Think of it. We now have classes in Pennsylvania of sixty-three pupils. Then we wonder why we are not getting the proper material to go into our colleges to take up engineering courses. One out of every four who applied for engineering course was turned down because he did not have ample qualifications. Why do they not have the ample qualifications? Because the schools were overpopulated. They had more children in those rooms in high schools and public schools than they should have in order to give them a proper education.

Mr. President, I agree with Senator Dent. I am willing to stay here as long as you want to stay. As long as I stay here, however, I am not going to take a compromise that will put the burden of taxation on the poor man of Pennsylvania. The families back home in my District, who have four, five and six children, should not have the burden put upon them. Anyone who know economics knows that when you cut into the purchasing power of people, you bring on a depression. I do not know whether the Republican Party has learned a lesson from the last depression. Then they found out that the purchasing power destroyed the conditions of those days. Now, they are working on the basis of again cutting down the purchasing power of the people of Pennsylvania by a sales tax. Take the man and woman who has five and six children. When they go to the store to buy anything, they pay three per cent. If they have five children, that is fifteen per cent and with the mother and father, it is twenty-one per cent. What you take away from those people decreases their buying power by twenty-one per cent through a sales tax.

The reason why the Republicans fought a classified income tax was because they knew that the eighty-two per cent was going to be paid by the people who could afford to pay those taxes. Eighteen per cent was going to be on the great millions of workers of Pennsylvania. That is why the Republicans defeated it. The only reason why you are hollering about a sales tax is because the men who paid your campaign expenses, who put the millions of dollars in the Republican Party, are demanding from you that you pay back some of the money they gave you when you ran. That is why you want a sales tax. You want to take the burden off the rich of Pennsylvania and put it on the poor workingmen and women of Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. PECHAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this discussion, but I cannot let go unsaid some things.

The distinguished gentleman from Allegheny County talks about crocodile tears. I wonder where his crocodile tears were last fall when he was out campaigning for Governor Leader and promised the people of Pennsylvania that they would receive economy. Now you are saying that we are letting down the mentally retarded children.

We told you in that campaign that the budget would have to be raised; that the sales tax would have to be raised from one per cent to two per cent. However, you went out and told the people of Pennsylvania that you did not need a sales tax, a wage tax, that you were going to economize in government and balance the budget. Now, you have changed your tune. I still feel that the budget which was presented to us can be cut. If a two per cent sales tax comes over with the present exemptions, I am willing and ready to vote for it. I am also willing and ready to sit down at any time to vote on a compromise. If you give a little, I will give a little.

I have not talked to Jim Duff in six months. Do not talk about Jim Duff or Mason Owlett as being the Republican Comintern. I have not seen either of them for six months and they do not tell me how to vote no matter how much you are trying to push that down on the people of Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, if I remember correctly and, if you wish, I may be able to bring in the notes or the clippings I have of the campaign in the last election. I would state that the Republican candidate for Governor, Mr. Wood, had many different motions, different movements and different statements on the sales tax. No one knew where he was. In fact, he made me think of a hula-hula dancer trying to do the hula-hula with the hives. His movements were in all directions.

As far as the old story is concerned, I refer the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, to the fact that we had a platform. We ran on that platform and we are living up to that platform. Of course, the Republican Party, I understand, has had platforms, but they forget the platforms after they get elected. We have a platform and I have the right to tell the gentleman that in my District I ran on the platform, which has not changed a bit. I promised them that I was going to do something for the mentally retarded children, which the Republican Party has not done. I told them I was going to do something for the mental institutions, which the Republican Party has not done. If he refers to the Pittsburgh Press, the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph and the Post-Gazette, I do not think you will find in any part of my campaign where I said anything, with one exception, that I would not vote for a sales tax. No one in Pennsylvania realized the terrible mess we were getting into, because we had not a chance as Senators to make a study of how the Republican Party was administering the government. No one realized the conditions around our mental institutions. No one realized the conditions in our mentally retarded institutions. No one realized the terrible mess of our bookkeeping department. No one realized the number of people who should have been paying corporate net income taxes and were not paying corporate net income taxes. Some did not pay what they should have paid. I am in hopes that out of some of the investigations made by the Revenue Department, the Attorney General will bring into court some of the good donators to the Republican Party and then perhaps they will find out that some of the money given them should have been paid on corporate net incomes.

Mr. President, I am very glad to hear from the gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, that Senator Duff is not his boss. That is up to Senator Pechan's conscience to decide that, not mine. It is also up to his conscience to decide whether or not he is taking orders from the Comintern of the Rpublican Party. I do know that I have yet to see him break the unit rule.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, first, I believe Senator Barr misunderstood what I said. I did not say that the Appropriations Committee was having meetings this week, or last week. I said that they, no doubt, would have a meeting next week. Of course, that is all within the province of Senator Chapman, who is Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, as to whether they will have any meetings. I presume, and hope, that they will have meetings the first part of the week. There has been some spade work done by some of the Senators on this side as to figures which they estimate would be justified in being placed in the amended appropriation bills, or possible amendments to be presented. No doubt, some of the spade work has been done by the gentlemen on the other side of the aisle. I hope that has been done. Then we will be able to get together, I hope, and try to work out a final figure to be placed in these amendments. Perhaps, that is too much to ask for. Perhaps, it will be impossible for us to arrive at a compromise figure. If it is impossible, then we will have to present our figure and have it brought out here on the floor, because there is no question that we have a majority in the Appropriations Committee and it probably will be reported out with that figure in the amended bill. Then, they over on the other side of the Capitol, the House of Representatives, dominated by the Democrats, if they do not agree with that figure, then they will not concur in any amendments and it will have to go to a conference committee. That is the legislative process, and I feel sure that none of my Democratic brothers would like to deviate from that.

As far as taking orders is concerned, Mr. President I do not remember of a time when I ever took any orders from any Russians or communists or anybody connected with that line. I have never taken any orders from any big shot millionnaires. I have tried to listen to the voice of the people who elected me. If that is wrong, then I am wrong. When I go back home, Mr. President, I find a great many people, poor people on the streets, middle class people, and perhaps people who have their share of the money of the world, people who, perhaps, we might call in the wealthy class. I do not know how many refrigerators they bought or how old their refrigerators are. I have not checked that; but the people who talk to me, in large numbers, back in Crawford and

Mercer Counties, tell me, "For heaven's sakes, go back down to Harrisburg and try in some way or other to convince Governor Leader and the Democrats that we should have a sales tax."

I tell them, "I am doing everything I can. I have written it in every kind of language but Indian smoke signals. They still do not see the handwriting on the wall, but I will go back again next week and I will convey your mesage down there to those people. I hope that some day or other we will be able to come up with the kind of tax that you want."

If there are any other kinds of taxes which they would like to present, we are willing to listen. Perhaps, we can in addition to the sales tax, or even if the sales tax is eliminated, try to enact some kind of a tax program which will do the job in Pennsylvania. The only people who are my bosses are the people back there in my District who voted not only for Mahany, but for the other fellow, too. I listen to them.

Senator Dent, concerning that legal argument, it seems to me that I have been reading in the newspapers about that finger on the trigger. You are using the same kind of defense that Mr. Haines down in Cumberland County is using. He said it was a magic trigger. He said he did not pull it at all. It was somebody else. "The Judge shot himself," I think he said.

I do not know whether you are going to get away with that argument. I will have to keep in touch with the Haines trial, down in Cumberland County, to see how that fellow makes out.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I was trying to find out where Senator Mahany got his word, and now I have found out. It was not a communist, it was not Mason Owlett, it was not Senator Duff and it was not any of the big money bags or any people like that; it was the Indians. He said that they gave him smoke signals and we cannot read them. Well, we are poorly educated in Indian languages on this side. We do not understand these smoke signals which you get from up at Meadville.

Mr. President, I want to tell you something about the man—what is the man's name over here who you said shot the judge by miracle?

Mr. MAHANY. HAINES—H-a-i-n-e-s.

Mr. DENT. He did not have anybody's finger on the trigger but his own. I am not saying that if I hold the gun and do the shooting, that we will not take the blame. We are willing to hold the gun, we are willing to do the shooting and we will take the blame, but you are not going to put your finger on my trigger finger and stand behind me and pull it. That is one thing you will not do.

However, Mr. President, I do not want to delay this argument. I think that everytime the Senator gets on the floor he digs the hole a little deeper. He said that they give him these signals up there, and he now comes down and says, "They cannot see the smoke signals and they do not understand, but I am hoping that some day they will and then we will come up with the kind of a tax program we want." It looks like we will never have any kind except the kind we want, the "we" being they.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I do not think this microphone over here works just properly. I said, Senator, that I had given you that message in every kind of language except the Indian smoke signal. I have not used Indian smoke signals yet.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I have been here for nine months now and the record shows that up until this moment I have taken no part whatsoever in telling anyone how I feel about the tax program. I have condemned neither side, but I am getting somewhat impatient. I also have a responsibility in this Chamber to the people of Pennsylvania. I am an employer and an employee. I will be affected in a number of ways by any program they place upon our statutes. I cannot absolve either side from sin. I cannot quite agree with my colleagues on this side that they cannot vote for a sales tax, under no circumstances, nor can I agree with the Republicans that it must be a sales tax.

There must be a common meeting of minds. We must pass a program. Something must be done. Something should have been done a long time ago, and name-calling and loud words will settle no program.

Mr. President, it is true that Governor of the Commonwealth made certain promises, but so has every other Governor and probably all in good faith. In my twenty-one years in this Chamber, none of them have fulfiled their promises; not one of them.

Mr. President, we have a responsibility and it must be met. I voted for the Governor's program not because I liked it, but I felt it was my duty to support a program. I am one in this Chamber who will vote for a sales tax if that should be the ultimate answer. I will not walk out and say that I cannot vote for a sales tax. I do not like it, but who does? If one vote is needed to pass a sales tax and expedite our work, it will be my vote, Mr. President.

PRAYER

Rev. Humphrey E. Caputo, O. F. M., Pittsburgh Franciscan Misisonary, who spent six years in Honduras, guest Chaplain, and guest of the gentlemen from Allegheny, Messrs. Mihm and Sarraf, offered the following prayer:

Oh, Almighty Father and creator of the human race, prime professor of reason, wisdom and truth, model of righteousness and justice itself, legislator supreme, look down upon these thy humble servants and ministers of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Let order reign supreme in our deliberations. Let right reason be the guide of our thoughts; let the common good, not personal gain nor political ambition, be our aim. As there is but one truth and one way, let all our labors tend towards Thy honor and glory. Let our human legislation be modeled faithfully upon the dictates of the divine law, as we are modeled to Thy image and likeness.

We are human and recognize our bent towards error. We, therefore, beseech Thee, our heads lowered in humble prayer, to overlook our short-comings and guide our every effort towards the proper end for the common good.

And especially in these days when the whole world seems to be concerned about the state of health of our president, Dwight David Eisenhower, we ask Thee for his complete recovery and speedy return to the active duties of his office.

God bless all of us. We are so in need of Thy blessings. Amen.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 973.

An Act amending the act of June 24 1939 (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" prohibiting certain sales of Salk polio vaccine

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BONNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, it is now several weeks since Governor Leader's industrial expansion program passed this House, August 2nd to be exact.

This program is designed to bring employment to the blighted areas of our state, particularly the bituminous and anthracite coal fields. Just what action the Senate plans about these proposals I do not know, but I do know that despite the glowing reports of prosperity and high earnings that we read and hear about in our section, unemployment is still ravishing, unemployment is washing away the very foundation of everything we hold dear in the anthracite coal fields.

Lest we forget, both the Republican and Democratic parties in the last several gubernatorial campaigns promised and promised to bring industrial relief to these sorely distressed communities.

I sat in my seat during the length of this session, I heard repeatedly, time and time again, the phrases, "Who are you kidding," "who are you trying to fool," and "let's be fair." The people of the anthracite and other unemployed areas in our state have been tragically kidded, sadly fooled and not treated fairly either by the state or federal government. They have been encouraged through phony political promises of industrial aid to buy homes and invest in local business enterprises, and their family roots have grown deeper and deeper in their beloved communities only to have their hopes and investments die on the vine of broken campaign pledges.

Mr. Speaker, if neither the state nor Federal government intends to aid these people as they have promised, it will be better to tell them the truth now that in order to live in a distressed area they will have to rely on bird-dogging and rugged individualism to carve out an existence for themselves and their families.

How our government can be so callous to the wants and needs of so gallant and deserving a people, who have never turned down a plea for aid and have contributed so generously to the growth and greatness of our nation, is inconceivable and beyond the realm of imagination. It is a strange paradox, paradoxical indeed, that the anthracite region which gave one of the highest ratios of people in service in World War II, and probably the highest rate of casualties, should be so lightly treated.

Besides allowing oil imports, we give to those who sought to destroy us the benevolence of our country's generosity, and although this is a godly and worthwhile project, we must remember too that charity begins at home. I do not mean to imply that we seek charity. All they ask is an opportunity to work, an opportunity to earn their own livelihood so that they may be able to continue to do their share and pay their share to continue properly the pursuit of happiness.

Recently I read in the newspapers that the Pennsylvania Senate insists on staying in weekly session until our tax problems are solved. How long, may I ask, are they willing to stay in session to solve Pennsylvania's unemployment problems? I voted for the classified income tax bill because it provided industrial aid to these sorely distressed regions, and I cannot now conscientiously vote for any new tax plan that does not spell out in black and white and round numbers the aid to be given to these people.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mrs. Kooker for Mr. KELLER for the week because of illness.

Mrs. Pashley for Mr. McKEEVER for the week because of illness.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEES TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. OLSEN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Banking and Building and Loan Associations to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. POLASKI asked and obtained permission for the Committee on State Government to meet during the session of the House.

PRESENTATION

The CHIEF CLERK (Benjamin L. Long). Mr. Speaker, one of the oldest and most faithful employes of this House, one who has served through very many sessions, long before any present Member first took his seat, Mr. Lilly, the message clerk for the House of Representatives, is now 55 years married.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I should like to present to Mrs. Lilly this little token of appreciation from the Chief Clerk and the members of the House. I believe they are going to have a little tete-a-tete at the Penn-Harris Hotel after the session, just the two of them.

The SPEAKER. Will Mr. Lilly and Mrs. Lilly please rise?

Off and on the Chair has been in contact with Mr. Lilly either directly, or rather intimately indirectly through the Press of this House, and in all of that time the Chair has never known of any employe of this House who has excelled Mr. Lilly in faithful service.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McCORMACK asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to direct my remarks especially to the Minority Floor Leader. I have sat here during this session of the Legislature and heard the Minority Leader make what I considered reckless statements. I am happy to say at this time that I am in position to prove that some of the statements he does make are reckless.

Last Monday night, Mr. Speaker, I was standing outside of the Capitol waiting for a ride to Philadelphia and the Minority Floor Leader asked me if I was going down, saying he would take me as far as Lansdale. We drove to Lansdale and on the way down the Minority Leader said a train left Lansdale for Philadelphia every 20 minutes. We arrived at the Lansdale railroad station in the teeming rain at approximately 8:30 p. m. The Minority Floor Leader said "Good night" to me and drove away. I went up to the station window and asked what time the next train left for Philadelphia, and was informed the next train left at 10:15 p. m.

The SPEAKER. The Chair certainly believes this grave accusation upon the accuracy of the Minority Leader's statements calls for some immediate explanation.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, the only explanation I can give is that sometimes for expediency we do say certain things. To have the pleasure of the gentleman's company even as far as Lansdale was worth stretching the truth a little bit.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 115, as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EWING. Mr. Speaker, if I am in order, may I be permitted to make a brief statement on this bill?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, this bill is probably misunderstood by some of the Members of the House. This is a bill that we passed in 1953. The bill does nothing more than permit the Members of the Legislature, the Members of the House and the Senate, who may be employed in industry covered by unemployment compensation, to become eligible for unemployment compensation after the session adjourns sine die, but not while they are in session. If Members go back to their jobs or if they are still on the payroll, they will be eligible for unemployment compensation.

I made this statement on the floor in the last session. I was told that I was not eligible for unemployment compensation because I was a Member of the Legislature, and this bill is to protect the Members of the Legislature who are employed in industry and covered by unemployment compensation. It does not do any more than that. I myself can get no benefit from this. I am retired, I can get no benefit from it, but I do believe that I would like to see this bill passed in order to protect other Members of the Legislature from going through the same rigamarole that I went through.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, if there is any question on this that is not clearly understood, I would be glad to try to answer the interrogation.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Allegheny rise?

Mr. EWING. Mr. Speaker, I am in error. I thought we were on House Bill 1706. I have no debate on 115 whatever.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

FLOYD, SHERMAN, McCORMACK, EILBERG, HOLT, BAZIN, FINEMAN, ROSEN, GRANVILLE E. JONES, PETTIGREW and KOLANKIEWICZ asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 14, 1955.

Death demoved from our midst a great Pennsylvanian and a leading Philadelphian J. Francis Finnegan, at the zenith of his unexcelled services to his community, State and Nation, both as a guide to the perplexed and champion of the underprivileged.

With true Christian abnegation and fervor of a dedicated man, with a deep anchorage in the finest loyalties and decencies of mankind, with his sustained pursuit of the loftiest ideals of public service, he made crime prevention and combat of juvenile delinquency his life's work.

Philadelphia and the cause of crime prevention will miss him.

The late J. Francis Finnegan was born in Philadelphia 51 years ago, attended local parochial schools and although intending to become an accountant upon graduation from the Wharton School of Commerce of the University of Pennsylvania in 1932, he began his public service with the Crime Prevention Association. His meteoric rise in that field of communal enedavors was unprecedented in its effulgence and productivity. He was named the executive director of the Crime Prevention Association in 1944; appointed in 1953 by Mayor Joseph S. Clark of Philadelphia as a member of the Board of Trustees of Philadelphia Prisons; served as chairman of the Board of Trustees of the House of Correction; received in 1952, the Optimist's Club award for outstanding achievement in the field of boy's work and Social Service; served as chairman of the sub-committee on Juvenile Delinquency of the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth; served as Secretary of the Philadelphia Conference for Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency, and finally having been granted a leave of absence as executive director of the Philadelphia Crime Association, he was appointed in December, 1954, as Director of Mayor Clark's Philadelphia Youth Services Committee; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives couple its grief over this untimely death of a great Pennsylvanian, with the expression of its condolence to the illustrious brother of the departed, the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, The Honorable James A. Finnegan and his sister, Miss Mary Finnegan; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Honorable James A. Finnegan and Miss Mary Finnegan.

RESOLUTION

THANKING CHIEF CLERK

In the House of Representatives, September 26, 1955.

The ladies of the House of Representatives, being greatly in the minority, have for many years fared ill in the space and facilities allotted them by way of a "cloak room."

Lately their plight has been taken note of and something has been done. Through the thoughtful consideration of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives an additional room has been obtained and lockers and other facilities have been supplied and installed; therefore be it Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives express their thanks to Honorable Benjamin L. Long, their Chief Clerk, for bringing about these improvements in the ladies locker room and thereby adding to their comfort and happiness.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, there are times and moments when I grow exceedingly tired of my job as Majority Floor Leader and this one of them.

Some time ago it became evident to most of us in this House that a decision, or an agreement if one could be reached, on the matter of taxes would take some time. The Governor has called several bipartisan meetings of various leaders in the Senate and the House to discuss matters relating to a possible tax program. Of course, this involved items set forth in the budget.

For the past several weeks this committee has been meeting. It is now in possession of an analysis of the budget figures made by the Pennsylvania Economy League and the committee is making an honest effort to see whether certain basic agreements can be reached on the matter of how much money should be spent during this present biennium.

In the course of these meetings it became necessary to determine whether the Members of this House should be made to come to Harrisburg in view of the situation which developed and of which the local hotels advised us, namely, for the first three days of each week during October and November it would not be possible for the hotels to accommodate the Members of this House.

The hotels are not to be blamed. They have no idea how long this House or the Senate will remain in session. Being business people, they must make commitments long in advance for other people who want to come to Harrisburg for one reason or another. Those commitments were made. Many conventions are held in this city and the hotels, of course, try to accommodate them whenever they schedule their events.

Knowing this, I took it upon myself to suggest to the leadership of the Senate that when we adjourn for this week the House adjourn until December 5th, subject to the right of the Speaker to recall us at any time when matters of importance might arise which would require our returning to Harrisburg.

I had a discussion, I believe last Wednesday or Thursday, with some of the leaders of the Republican Senate and some of the Republican leaders of this House, and I understood at that time that they would not oppose the proposition of the House to adjourn until December 5th in view of the circumstances. I assured the Senate leaders at that time that if it was not the desire of the Senate to adjourn until that date, we would be happy to have them stay in session and take up any business matters that might come before them.

I was advised by the Majority Leader of the Senate this morning that a meeting of certain Republicans was held last night, or yesterday, and they made the decision that they would not agree to the House's recessing or adjourning until December 5th, even subject to the right to be recalled at any time.

I want to comment, before I reply to certain statements which have been made for political reasons, on what I consider to be simply good business judgment. As you know, it has been rather difficult to keep the entire membership here Monday through Wednesday. The Members apparently were quite willing to stay here if there were any matters of importance before this House, but if the matters were insignificant in scope, if they were not considered by anybody to be particularly important, some of the Members because of pressing matters at home left before the Wednesday sssion. For that reason we have been compelled to have quite a number of consent sessions on Wednesdays.

It was my idea as Majority Leader to ask this House to adjourn until December 5th as good business practice, so we would not have to compel the Members to come here week after week, waiting for some agreement, if possible, to be made on a tax program or waiting for other matters of sufficient importance to bring them back here week after week.

We have been here about nine months and, as everybody in this Commonwealth knows, the Democrats proposed and passed in this House a tax program. As everybody knows, it has been emphatically rejected by the Republican Senate, and that is the position we are in right now.

Up to the present time we have not been able through the leadership on both sides to arrive at any biparisan agreement as to how the money should be raised to finance the Commonwealth or how much should be spent. The public knows full well through reports from the newspapers and other media that a lot of time has been spent discussing this problem and that we are trying to solve it.

In my opinion there would be no sense in calling the Members back week after week to sit here, come up on a Monday and go home on a Tuesday or perhaps on a Wednesday, while some agreement was being reached. I made it very clear to the newspapers, and they reported it as such, that if any agreement was reached during this period, between the end of this week and December 5th the membership of the House would be called back immediately, even if they had to sleep in tents. That remark was made facetiously, because we know we will not have to sleep in tents, we will find accommodations somewhere. The fact remains they were not going home until December 5th and nobody was quitting the job, because we are trying to get it done as quickly as possible—you are, and we are too.

So I was amazed today when I received a Press release issued by Miles Horst, the Chairman of the Republican State Committee, dated at Harrisburg, September 26th, in which this estimable gentleman, who does not seem to know what is going on in Harrisburg, says the following:

> I want to urge the Republican Members of the General Assembly to stand fast in their determination to stay on the job in Harrisburg, no matter what the personal inconvenience, until the tax and budget problems of our Commonwealth are solved.
> It is unthinkable that Republican Legislators would ever agree to any plan advanced by Democratic Party leaders, with the acquiescence of Governor Leader, to quit now and go home without first providing the money to continue state aid for our schools and our hospitals and all the other essential services of state government.

I will end the quote there.

I would like to say one thing before I comment on the wisdom or lack of wisdom of this gentleman's statement. I would like to say now that Governor Leader never acquiesced in my suggestion that this House recess until December 5th. On the contrary, he requested me not to do it, he would like to see us stay in session. I explained to him what I have been saying to you, and which you well know, the folly, the foolishness, the uselessness of sitting here day after day until we have something of importance to bring us back here upon which to take action.

When I see a statement of this kind I cannot overlook it, even though I should overlook the source from which it comes. When he tries to make political capital out of what we consider to be a sensible business proposal for the operation of this House, then I think we are hitting a new low.

As you know, the Senate has refused to allow us to recess until that date. So what happens? So we recess until next Monday, or whatever other day next week they allow us to come back. If they give us no other alternative, we will come back next Monday, we will tell you Members to come back, and you will say, "Well, what do you have for us to act upon?" I will tell you, "Look at the calendar. If there is anything there that you consider of importance, you come back. You should be here, you are an elected Member."

A great many bills have come out of Committee today. It was my hope that during this period when we would not actually be sitting here day after day we could have Committee meetings, we could get bills we consider of importance before this House, on the calendar and then call the Members back during some given week, work three full days and pass those bills, but not spread it out over eight weeks.

If that is a silly and senseless way of doing business, then I stand convicted of that, but I still say no Member of this House wants to be made to come back here week after week unless we have something we consider of importance to the people of Pennsylvania.

In my opinion it will be several weeks before there is any kind of an agreement, if then, before this House on the matter of taxes. I doubt very much if it will be before the end of October or early in November before an agreement can be reached on budget matters as to how much mony we shall spend.

I want to make very clear that nobody on this side has any desire to quit or go home before our job is done. Our Members on this side have been very faithful in returning here for sessions, and I do not intend to abuse their patience. If we are going to have token sessions for the next month, we will have token sessions, and if that is more appealing to the public or the Republican State Chairman, so be it.

I do not know what the public will think when it sees in the newspapers that we have had a session and we have had four, or five, or six Members present, but I say that is the way things are working out. I have tried to eliminate that. The Senate has said "no." I think they have said so for political reasons, and I certainly don't admire them for it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I must certainly start off by agreeing with the gentleman in his thinking as to the agreements that were made. There is no doubt that he made them perfectly honestly. I do believe at the time they were made, they were made with perfectly honest intentions on the part of the Majority Leader of the Senate and when I entered into it I must admit that I agreed with him.

But there have been some things that have arisen since that time, and I do not think we are playing politics.

I think we can make a few suggestions. I would say it was our understanding and I think the Speaker and the Majority Leader will agree, that all of the appropriation bills from this House be passed over to the Senate. If you will remember we made a complete reversal of our thinking at that time. The Senate said they would make reductions if we on this side of the House were unable to make them.

I know that the hotel situation is bad. It was suggested today by the Majoity Leader that we come into session Thursday and Friday of next week. I think we should come in next Thursday and Friday, and we on this side of the House will be available.

I think the appropriation bills in toto should be passed on to the Senate, and whether it is politics or not, whether they are going to make the cuts or not, is beside the point. Let us get out of this session and let us give everybody an opportunity to do it. I do believe there are going to be some days, and the Majority Leader can correct me if I am wrong, but our understanding has been that the hotel situation is mostly bad on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. I can see no reason why we cannot have at least two day sessions on Thursdays and Fridays if the hotels are available. I think that might be true of several weeks in October and November.

We are here to work and we will come back on those days. That is about all I can say as far as our working agreement is concerned. I do not believe there is politics involved in it.

The Governor is pretty smart at playing politics himself. I do not like to give him credit for being too smart, because sometimes I think he makes rather unusual moves that do not do him any good or do the minority or the majority party any good. But when you are talking about playing politics, the shoe fits on both feet, it fits on both sides.

I might say that we do happen to know, and I think again we are right in this statement, that there are some school appropriations which will be coming due in October and November. In fact, I am quite sure, if my information is correct that they will be coming due for the third and fourth class districts. If the Governor is not going to make some statements and blame it on those horrid Republicans, like Miss Blatt does, perhaps we are forced to make the change in our position, if the Governor is going to blame the Republicans for not paying the school districts perhaps it is the Governor's idea to play politics, and perhaps because of the Governor's actions in the past we on this side of the House have to protect ourselves.

That is the only, I do not want to say alibi, but its the only excuse I can give at this time for coming back. If this were a pure and simple move, and both sides felt as the Majority Leader says, and I believe he is very sincere in his statements because I know him that well, and he can speak for the Governor right along the line, I think we could find that we probably would not be asking that the House stay in session, but with some of the things that have happened in the past, I think we have to act cautiously because we never know what move the front office is going to make in regard to playing politics. But we will be back any day they want, Thursday, or Friday, or if it is only a one day session. I do believe that the Senate Committee is going to act on the appropriations, and some of them might not be approved by the Majority side of this House. I believe then they could go into Conference Committees and the Conference Committees could work during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and we could act on them on a Thursday or a Friday and either reject or approve them. I think that would facilitate things. I think the gentleman will find that if we do come back, even for one day or two days a week, even though it be a Thursday, Friday or a Saturday we will be a little further ahead than being completely out of session until December the 5th.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the Minority Leader for his remarks, and to note that he is in complete agreement with us in this matter.

But in his last few words I am afraid, he fell into error, he said rather than be "out of session until December 5th." We never intended to be out until December 5th, but we did want to fix the date at which it would be definite we would return, with the understanding that we would come back at any time something important arose to call us back.

I would like also to say, Mr. Speaker, that I was advised this afternoon that the Harrisburger Hotel has informed all of the Members that stay there that they must check out by 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. In view of that fact while we do not intend to have a consent calendar, if we do not have the votes here that is what it will be.

So you see some of the problems we are faced with even when we are here. I knew nothing about reservations at the Harrisburger Hotel prior to Wednesday of this week and I doubt if any Members that stayed there knew anything about it. But this just points out some of the problems we have in keeping the Members here and keeping a roof over their heads.

We want to assure everybody that we will cooperate with them as much as we can, we will not call them back here to work unless there is something important to work on, and what the Members do on Wednesday, as far as I am concerned, is their own business.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1955. No. 93.

SENATE

TUESDAY, September 27, 1955.

The Senate met at 9:45 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN HENRY FRIZZELL, Chaplain Emeritus of The Pennsylvania State University, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and most merciful God, as we stand before Thee at the beginning of another day, we pray first of all not for ourselves but once again for Thy sick servant, the President of these United States. To those who minister to him, give wisdom and skill, and to him, give the confidence that he is always under Thy loving care and protection. And if it be Thy will, restore him speedily to health and to further service to our Nation.

For ourselves, O Father, we ask Thee to make us remember that history and experience have given us so many evidences of Thy guidance to our Nation and to individuals, that we should never doubt Thy willingness and Thy power to lead us aright. In particular, this morning, we acknowledge Thy guidance to that great servant of our Republic, John Marshall, who made supreme the great Court which through the years has been and is the bulwark of our liberty.

Give to us of today the faith to believe that when God wants us to do or not to do a particular thing, he finds a way of letting us know. And grant that we may not make it harder for Thee to guide us, but be willing to be led of Thee, that Thy way may be done in us and through us and for the good of our beloved Commonwealth, Amen.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. PECHAN and Mr. McCREESH, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the chairman of the committee, the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Derk.

Mr. DERK. Mr. President, I am pleased to announce that the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is now present to attend the John Marshall Bicentennial Commemorative Celebration.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the chairman of the committee, and invites the Governor to the rostrum.

COMMEMORATIVE PRAYER

Mr. Ruth. Almighty God, our heavenly Father, Thou who are omniscient and Thou Who hast with Thy great omniscience guided the destiny of peoples throughout the centuries, we thank Thee that Thou didst give wisdom to our Chief Justice, John Marshall, to evaluate and interpret our basic laws so that our Nation has grown from infancy into a mighty power. We thank Thee for the influence which he hast placed upon our Nation's basic law, and that Thou hast guided, through his knowlegde, others to follow in his footsteps through the last one hundred and fifty years so that we have been enabled to set up a pattern of government by the people and for the people which is the example for the world.

We pray that we, in our day, may appreciate what John Marshall has done for our world; that we may, too, have sufficient of Thy wisdom that in our time and in our generation we may exemplify his ideas; that we may find that amongst men Thou art supreme and that in Thy sight all men are equal; that the opportunity which hast come to us in our day to carry this great thought unto the ends of the earth may be utilized to the fullest extent, that the day may come when all peoples shall be free and all peoples shall stand before Thee as one great united body of humanity, worshiping and praising Thee above all others, recognizing in one another that principle of brotherhood and love and fellowship that will make this world the haven which Thou didst intend it to be. Thou didst create man in Thine own image and likeness.

We pray for wisdom today that our life and our work, as Members of this great General Assembly of this great form of government, may be to raise it up higher and nearer to that eventual day which must come when all knees shall bow and all tongues shall confess that Thou art the Lord God Almighty.

We ask it in Thy Holy Name, Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blass, who will give the opening address.

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, His Excellency, the Governor, fellow Members of the Senate, distinguished guests, ladies and gentleman:

We are gathered at this time to commemorate the Two Hundredth Anniversiary of the birth of John Marshall.

John Marshall was a great American. He was a great lawyer. He was an extraordinary and exceptional jurist. As the fourth Chief Justice of the United States, he served his Country in one of the most crucial periods of its history. Up to the time that John Marshall took his place upon the Supreme Bench, the Supreme Court was an inconsequential body. It had neither power nor prestige. It took John Marshall to give it both. He made the Supreme Court the strong, integral force in the system of government that was ordained by the fathers of the Constitution. He made it possible for that court to become one of the great coordinate branches of the government on equal power with the legislative and the executive arms.

It was in this period that each of the several States was bent on planning a course of action without any thought or without any idea of central control. During this formative period, John Marshall, more than any other man, insured and made possible the solidarity and stability of the Nation in its time of need.

In order that we may properly appraise the merit, the worth and the stature of this great American, it will be necessary for me to review some of the incidents of his memorable life. It reads almost like a page from the Arabian Nights.

John Marshall was born on the frontier of Virginia on September 24, 1755, the son of Thomas and Mary Marshall. He was the eldest child in a family of fifteen children, nine boys and six girls. His father, Thomas, was a man of ability and learning, yet without any education. He served terms in the Virginia House of Burgesses; he was Sheriff of his county and later his father became State Councilor. His mother was a lady of exceptional talent. He had no education. The only education he received was from the local clergymen and from his parents. He spent his early life in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

At the age of nineteen, John Marshall enlisted in the Culpeper Minute Men Regiment of Virginia and served as a lieutenant. His father was a major in the same regiment. Later, he served for four years in the Continental Army and fought in the battles of Monmouth, Germantown and Brandywine. He spent his days in that memorable weather in want and distress at Valley Forge and his sunny disposition and jovial good nature, personal popularity, acted as a solace to the rest of the troops during that perilous winter. He left the service in 1779 because of the great number of commissioned officers that they had and waited for another chance to serve. When this commission did not arrive, he went over to the city of Williamsburg, Virginia, where his father remained, and there he had the great opportunity presented to him, one of the great opportunities of his life.

George Wythe, a professor of law, was delivering a series of lectures at William and Mary College. Young Marshall enlisted in the course and received the benefit of these lectures. Believe it or not, this is the only legal training and education, legal or otherwise, that John Marshall ever had.

Shortly thereafter, he received at the hands of Thomas Jefferson, Governor of Virginia, his license to practice law. Thomas Jefferson was his cousin and twelve years his senior. Both were on opposite sides of the political fence and neither had any love or affection for the other. Marshall always believed in a central authority. Jefferson believed in the doctrine of State rights and individual liberty. Strange to say, both made a substantial contribution to the future development of the Country they both loved so well.

After John Marshall received his license, he waited patiently, as all lawyers do, for those God-sent clients to keep the wolf from the door. During this period—I just want to narrate a little incident from the life of Marshall which, in my opinion, shows his fortitude and his courage more than anything else. It was during that early period in his practice that there was a smallpox scourge in Virginia. John Marshall decided that he should be vaccinated. What did he do? He walked from Richmond, Virginia, to Philadelphia on foot. He averaged thirty-five miles a day. When he appeared at the place where he had reserved accommodations, his appearance was such that he was refussed the accommodations. After receiving the vaccination, he again returned to Richmond on foot.

In 1783, John Marshall actually began the active practice of the law. While in Richmond, he renewed his acquaintance with a young lady who he first met in Williamsburg when he was attending the lectures. This young lady's name was Mary Ambler, otherwise known as Polly, whom he maried and who became his life mate. One of the sad incidents of his life was that shortly after their marriage, she became afflicted with a severe nervous ailment. It was impossible for her to even write to Marshall when he was away from her side. He was faithful; he idolized his wife and he wrote to her and kept her in constant communication with him.

It was not long before John Marshall became the leader of the Richmond Bar. I think in the incredible space of three years he had achieved that end. He was so important in his practice in that vicinity that the Governor of Virginia, Edmund Randolph, turned over his entire practice to Marshall. The young lawyer made rapid strides, so rapid that in 1789, three years later, he was able to purchase a heavily wooded block in the city of Richmond, in the exclusive residential section, upon which he built a magnificent brick dwelling, in which abode he lived for the last forty-six years of his life.

In 1793, shortly after he built his house—I think it was in the early 90's—he contracted for the purchase of 160,000 acres of the Lord Fairfax estate in Virginia. He was to be financed by Robert Morris, the Philadelphia banker. However, Robert Morris became bankrupt and this great financial burden fell upon Marshall. This was a very severe handicap to the young lawyer in those days. It was so serious that he had to refuse the commission of appointment as United States Attorney at Richmond; so serious that he had to decline the appointment of Attorney General for the United States; so serious that he had to decline the appointment of Minister to France in 1796, but well enough for him to accept an appointment on the "XYZ Commission" which was appointed to settle the differences existing between this Country and the Republic of France. On that commission with him were Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, of South Carolina, and Elbridge Gerry, of Massachusetts. However, Marshall was the strong man on the commission. When they arived in France, they dealt with the oily Talleyrand, an unfrocked priest who later became the foreign minister. Talleyrand, with all his wily tactics, tried to prevail upon Marshall to agree with the Government of France, threatening to invade England and also the United States, but their position was obverse. They refused everything which was offered and they returned to this Country without negotiating the agreement. Marshall was given a tremendous ovation when he arrived in Philadelphia.

It was at a great banquet that the toast which is familiar to all of you was offered, "Millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute!" This mission resulted in $20,000 for Marshall. Out of that sum he had to pay $5,000 for expenses, so that the remainder of the $20,000, the sum of $15,000, be applied on the Fairfax debt. His position, financially, was so acute that the next year he had to decline the appointment of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

One of Marshall's great friends and admirers, one in whom he earnestly believed, was George Washington. In 1779, George Washington persuaded Marshall to run for Congress in a district in which the opposition held sway. He won the election by 108 votes and went to Congress. I want to say to you that his work in Congress stands out in singular significance. He was no politician; he was a statesman of the first caliber. He differed withe the administration when he thought he was right, regardless of his political future. He differed with the administration of the Federalists when he voted for the repeal of a section of the Alien and Sedition Law which the Federalists championed. He differed with the administration when he voted for the Disputed Elections Bill, which would have resulted in the Federalists' victory in the next Presidential election. I say that when anybody in the legislative field differs with the administration when he thinks he is right, he ceases to assume the role of a politician. He becomes a statesman of the first caliber.

John Marshall resigned from Congress after declining the position of Secretary of War to accept the position as Secretary of State. That position was tendered him by President Adams in recognition of the fact that he knew Marshall was a great statesman.

He administered to his cousin, Thomas Jefferson, the oath of office the day after he assumed his duties as Chief Justice, to which place he was appointed by President Adams. It was in this court, from that time until his death, that he performed his greatest service. His creative opinons, such as delivered in the cases of Barbury vs. Madison; Cohens vs. Virginia; McCulloch vs. Maryland; and Gibbons vs. Ogden, are materpieces and classics in the field of law and jurisprudence.

I remember in McCulloch vs. Maryland, he upheld the national supremacy against domination by the State Governments. It was in that celebrated case that he made the memorable statement, "The power to tax is the power to destroy."

In these perilous days in which we find ourselves at the present time, how appropriate is that memorable statement which must be given grave and earnest consideration by every one of us in solving the problems of government.

In Marbury vs. Madison and Cohens vs. Virginia, he held that the Supreme Court is the final interpreter of the Constitution. In the case of Gibbons vs. Ogden, he delivered a memorable opinion in connection with the commerce clause of the Constitution, in which he held that the word "commerce" embraced not only navigation but the means by which interstate and foreign commerce is traded in. His was the work of a master mind. His creative opinions endowed his government with powers adequate to carry out its purposes and, in effect, its operations.

John Marshall's distinguished career came to an end on July 6, 1835. During the funeral services, I am informed that the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia tolled for the last time. The bell cracked. The bell's services passed with the passing of John Marshall, both having rendered their wonderful service to mankind. One hundred and twenty years have passed since the death of Marshall, but his memory will continue to live on and on. The name of John Marshall is enshrined in the hearts of all his Countrymen and will be enshrined in the hearts of generations yet unborn. We all owe to John Marshall an eternal debt of gratitude for his wonderful efforts in his services in shaping and molding our National destiny.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, who will give the next address.

Mr. STEIEFEL. Your excellency, Mr. President, Senator Taylor, Senator Mahany, Senator Dent, Gentlemen:

It is a hard task to deliver an address on John Marshall, after the masterpiece just presented to us by the learned Senator from Erie, the Hnorable C. Arthur Blass, that capable former District Attorney whose ferver and eloquence always exuded so much warmth that even the inclement winter blasts from Canada became often tamed on the shores of Lake Erie.

Again the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania is establishing a "first." I am sure we are the first branch of any Legislature in the Nation holding commemorative exercises on the occasion of the Bicentennial of John Marshall's birth. By honoring from time to time our national luminaries, we are setting examples for emulation by others as well as keeping the right fires of patriotism burning brightly and guiding our destinies.

Many of you will recall how back in 1941, the erudite Senator from Warren, the Honorable Leroy E. Chapman, set into motion the machinery of a Bicentennial Commission to celebrate the birth of Thomas Jefferson. His legislative adroitness resulted in an appropriation that even Governor James could not decline and, accordingly, was constrained to sign. When the members of the commission, on which Senator Stevenson and I served, together with Doctor Chapman on the part of the Senate, came to Richmond, Virginia, the capital of the native State of Thomas Jefferson, on our way to Monticello, I witnessed the embarrassment of the Governor of Virginia, a southern Democrat, when he learned from a northern Republican—and, of course, I am referring to Senator Chapman—what the rock-ribbed Republican Senate (then and not now) of Pennsylvania was planning to do in order to re-enshrine the memory of Jefferson in our hearts.

No one evaluated more succinctly the role played by John Marshall in the emergence, expansion and growth of our Nation than United States Senator Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, who, in a speech on the floor of the United States Senate on January 24, 1877, referring inter alia to John Marshall, said that his judicial interpretations "have clad the skeleton of the Constitution with muscles of robust power!" Muscles of robust power—what a felicitous gem of description!

John Marshall, of Virginia, born on September 24, 1775, famed as the first great expounder of the United States Constitution, served as Chief Justice of the Nation's highest court for thirty-four years, from 1801 to 1835, longer than any man who has held that exalted office. His term on the Supreme Court was equaled only by the terms of two Associate Justices, to wit, Stephen J. Field of California, from 1863 to 1897, and John M. Harlan, of Kentucky, from 1877 to 1911.

And yet, less is known by our Nation of Marshall than of any of the great Americans. His biographer par-excellence, the late United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge, in his preface to one of the classical masterpieces in the field of American biography, the definitive four volumes of "The Life of John Marshall," sums up this paradox as follows:

"He appears to us as a gigantic figure coming indistinctly out of the mists of the past, impressive, yet lacking vitality, and seemingly without any of those qualities that make historic personages intelligible to a living world of living men. Yet, no man in our history was more intensely humane than John Marshall and few had careers so full of movement and color."

This historical paleness of indistinction, I respectfully submit, is not limited to Marshall alone, since American memories somehow favor its towering Presidents whom we enshrine in our hearts, immortalize in marble and grandiose monuments, in names of localities and seats of learning. The everyday media of commemoration are the assignats and postal stamps which bear the portraits of our Presidents, except the instances of Hamilton, Franklin and Salmon P. Chase (in the latter case a recognition awarded more for his stewardship as Secretary of the United States Treasury, under Lincoln, than for his services as a Justice on the United States Supreme Court). All our former Chief Justices are, to use Beveridge's expression, "looming indistinctly out of the mists of the past."

The present celebration of the bicentennial of the birth of John Marshall reverses the trend and aims at the presentation of this great American luminary in his towering stature as one of the outstanding architects of our Nation. And herein lies the significance of the Joint Resolution adopted by the Eighty-Third Congress, setting aside September 1955 for the John Marshall Bicentennial and providing, inter alia, as follows:

"Whereas, September 24, 1955 will mark the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Marshall, who has rightly been called 'The Great Chief Justice'; and

"Whereas, the work of John Marshall in expounding constitutional principles has been one of the most important factors in developing and maintaining the liberties of the people of the United States; and

"Whereas, a wider public knowledge and appreciation of the achievements of the great Chief Justice John Marshall is highly desirable in order to strengthen the moral, social and political structure of our Nation and as a means of helping to preserve and protect the lives, liberties and property of all our people, therefore be it

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, that the month of September 1955 is hereby set aside and designated as 'John Marshall Bicentennial Month,' in commemoration of the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Marshall, and in recognition of the vital part which he played in the development of our Nation. The President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon appropriate agencies and organizations throughout the United States to unite in observing such Bicentennial Month with suitable activities and ceremonies, and inviting all the people of the United States to join therein, etc."

Let us hope that Congress, in its wisdom and patriotism, will see fit to appropriate funds for the erection of a Marshall Memorial in our National Capital, second to none in the magnificence and grandeur of a superb commemorative impact.

Thomas Carlyle, in his First Lecture on Heroes, maintains that the history of the world is the biography of great men. Says Carlyle:

"But I liken common languid times with their unbelief, distress, perplexity, with their languid doubting characters and embarrassed circumstances, impotently crumbling down into ever worse distress towards final ruin—all this I liken to dry dead fuel, waiting for the lightning out of heaven that shall kindle it. The great man with his free force direct out of God's own hand, is the lightning. His word is the wise healing word which all can believe in. All blazes round him now when he has once struck on it into fire like his own. In all epochs of the world's history, we shall find the great man to have been the indispensable savior of his epoch—the lightning without which the fuel never would have burned."

aries, "The great man with his free force direct out of God's own hand," the lightning "out of heaven" who struck the "dry dead fuel"; in brief, "the indispensable savior of his epoch." Of Marshall, it may be said that by one stroke of genius, in his ingenious decision in the case of Marbury against Madison, he, in a sense, rewrote our Constitution without amending it by providing a third salient feature of our National Government.

The Constitution, as adopted, constituted two salient features of our Government, namely (a) that it is a government of enumerated powers and (b) that our Government is one of dual sovereignty. Marshall's immortal decision provided for the third feature, that of Judicial Review.

At the time John Marshall was elevated to the Bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, the latter was only twelve years old. During the cradle-years of the Republic, the Supreme Court was relegated to the background and had been by far the most insignificant of the three coordinate branches of the Federal Government. The accelerated pace of American history bypassed it to such an extent that the architects-planners of the Capitol of the United States had forgotten all about it. The theme-center of the Capital's planned magnificence gravitated toward Congress and the President's Mansion, which was usually called in those days a Palace. Nowhere was there a plan for a building that would house the United States Supreme Court. On the very day that Marshall was nominated as Chief Justice, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia wrote to Congress as follows:

"As no house has been provided for the Judiciary of the United States, we hope the Supreme Court may be accommodated with a room in the Capitol to hold its sessions until further provisions shall be made."

We all know that "further provisions" were not made until the twenties of our current century.

A great German philosopher once said that conceptions without perceptions are empty, and perceptions without conceptions are blind. The Congressional legislation creating the Federal Judiciary, defining its jurisdiction, fixing the number of the members of the Supreme Court, the times of sessions and the subordinate Federal courts had tendentious perceptions and resulted in a judiciary system that was conceived as a tractable and subservient handmaiden for the convenience of merchants and financiers who expected to use it most. The Committee of the First Congress that drafted the required legislation was headed by Senator Oliver Ellsworth, of Connecticut, who was a shrewd man of business as well as a successful lawyer—hence distorted perceptions and a resultant pile of "dry dead fuel" that had to wait twelve years for the lightning to strike in order to become the guiding pillar of light for America.

Under this Judiciary Act, the Supreme Court of the United States was to consist of six members and hold two terms a year, in February and August. This, however, was the lightest part of their work, for the law provided that in addition they must, in pairs, hold circuit courts once a year in every district of the Country, the District Judge sitting with them to make a court of three. Not only did this mean that they would receive in the Supreme Court cases on which they had ruled in the lower courts, but it put an almost intolerable physical strain upon them. "Traveling Postboys," Justice James Iredell called himself and his colleagues, and the job killed him in nine years, although he was not yet fifty.

The first few sessions of the court, beginning with the one of February 1790, at what had been the Royal Exchange, Broad Street, New York City, was nothing but excursuses into trifles. The agenda called for establishing rules and admitting lawyers to practice before the Supreme Court when any cases requiring their attention might arise. The longest of these sessions lasted ten days.

Idle minds, as the saying goes, are workshops of the devil. One can paraphrase this adage when applying it to the judiciary. Idle judges must become enmeshed in acrimonious partisan politics. All the Federal judges, during the emergence era of America, were Federalists, appointed under Washington and Adams, with no Republican given a chance to fill a vacancy anywhere in the judicial system. There were no suggestions from any Federalist leaders that perhaps the exalted bench of the Supreme Court should be a repository for judicial calm and impartial summation. Although the Federal judges were very proud of their independent status, so long as they remained tied by passion or interest to the Federalist Party, their independence was a matter of brag rather than reality.

The careers of the first three Chief Justices ended each one in a fiasco. This was mainly attributable to the fact that they did not regard their lofty position as setting them apart from the ordinary officeholders who were expected to help influence public opinion. Thus, the first Chief Justice, John Jay, became enmeshed in bitter controversies when he negotiated his treaty with England. He resigned soon after, not because he thought his partisan activities handicapped him as a judge, but because he preferred to be Governor of New York.

The second Chief Justice of the United States, John Rutledge, of South Carolina, thought it not incompatible with his new office to make a devastating political speech in Charleston against the treaty negotiated by his predecessor. That was on July 16, 1795 and the August session of the Court was the only one over which he presided. President Washington had designated him after the adjournment of Congress, and as soon as it met, in December, the Senate took up his nomination. On purely political grounds, and by a purely partisan vote, 10 to 14, confirmation was refused. The fourteen Senators did not object to the fact that Rutledge had made a political speech. They were furious because he had made it on the wrong side.

Another example of unbecoming judicial temperament was that of the third Chief Justice of the United States, Oliver Ellsworth. He was one of the most unbending of men and of Federalists, a traditional compound of New England piety, learning and business acumen. He was a scholarly and upright judge by his own rights, but this did not prevent him from making political speeches on the Bench. In one of his judicial harangues, he referred to Jefferson and his followers as "the apostles of anarchy, bloodshed and atheism."

It is, therefore, not surprising that with so swift a succession of Chief Justices of the United States Supreme Court within the brief span of twelve years, as well as the Justices' politico-partisan diversions and preoccupations, the Court failed to reach the commanding heights of crystalline splendor, which it so easily scaled later through the superb dialectics and majestic sweep of its vital decisions during the Marshall era.

The partisanship of the six Associated Justices of the Supreme Court, who served on the Bench thereof when Marshall became Chief Justice of the United States, also impeded to a degree the use of the Supreme Court to a role co-equal with the legislative and executive branches of our National Government.

Oldest in years and service in 1801 was William Cushing, the sole remaining Justice of Washington's original six. A staunch old Federalist, at this time sixty-seven, he was far less rancorous than most of the earlier Associate Justices, but when he died, ten years later, Jefferson exclaimed: "The event is a fortunate one, and so timed as to be a Godsend to me."

A self-effacing Justice, who declined promotion to Jay's exalted position of Chief Justice and a man of vast erudition, but of no ability to assert himself in the deliberations of the Court, was William Cushing, from New England.

Another scholar of towering stature was Associate Justice William Paterson, who, although mild of manner, would often lash out with cascades of harsh words.

Samuel Chase, at the time of Marshall's appointment, nearly sixty, was afflicted with gout, usually irate and often enraged; a man of coarse manners and renown for his wit over vials of wine. One of the most manipulative Congressional speculators, Chase was the target of a blast from Alexander Hamilton, who said: "It is your lot to have the peculiar privilege of being universally despised. Were I inclined to make a satire upon the species, I would attempt a faithful description of your heart."

Alfred Moore, of North Carolina, was comparatively young, the same age as Marshall, forty-five, and preceded Marshall's appointment by a year. He was the least impressive on the Bench and ineffective.

Bushrod Washington, as his great uncle's heir, enjoyed a prestige which he had never sought to capitalize. He was a pleasant, unaffected gentleman with less partisanship than any of his colleagues. It was the law and not the political effect that interested him.

These were the components of the "pile" that awaited the Marshall spark.

The Olympian had spoken in Marbury vs. Madison and as if by the wave of a magician's wand the United States Supreme Court became the voice of America's destiny.

The life of Marshall and his contributions to our Nation's greatness should be told, retold, nay thrice retold, throughout the breadth and length of our Land. Let our youth take heed how to train themselves for the future leadership of America. Let them read the saga of America's sage. Let them gain the proper perspective of America's priceless historical heritage and thereby partake of the food of giants, for America is the Anvil of Titans.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any further remarks? If not, this Special Order of Business having been completed, the Chair declares the John Marshall Bicentennial Commemorative Celebration now adjourned.

The Committee appointed to escort the Governor will now perform this duty, and escort the Governor to his office.

The Chair wishes to announce that Governor Leader said he has discovered there is no shortage of great oratory in the Senate since he has left this honorable body.

SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 56, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

He also, from the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. Chapman and Stiefel, on August 2, 1955, reported the same without amendments as follows:

REQUESTING THE TRANSFER OF CERTAIN SENATE RECORDS TO THE PENNSYLVANIA HISTORICAL AND MUSEUM COMMISSION

In the Senate, August 2, 1955.

In Room 528, E Floor of the Capitol, which is known as the Senate Transcribing Room, there are many old records of the Senate, beginning with the year 1822. These records are no doubt the oldest surviving records of the Senate and include much historical data, such as State and county election returns, beginning with the year 1840 and ending around 1900, petitions addressed to the Senate, and Senate bills in their original form as introduced.

Space in the Transcribing Room is sorely needed, The old historical records, some of which are undoubtedly priceless as part of Pennsylvania's cultural heritage, are impeding current Senate operations. The scarcity of space has necessitated storing these old records in such a manner that it is impossible to make a careful study to determine their true historical value.

These old historical records of the Senate are of no present practical value to the Senate. It therefore seems wise and proper that the records between the years 1822 to 1910 be transferred to and put under the custody of the commission which retains historical data that inures to the cultural benefit of the citizenry of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania permanently transfer all historical Senate records between the years 1822 to 1910 which are stored in the Senate Transcribing Room to the custody of the Division of Public Records within the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, first I want to congratulate our colleagues, Senator Blass and Senator Stiefel, for the fine work that they did in connection with the John Marshall Bicentennial Exercises which were held today in the Senate. From their addresses, they showed that they spent many hours in research to obtain the material which they must have had to make such outstanding addresses to the Senate.

I feel that all of us are better informed about Chief Justice John Marshall and his life and his way of thinking. I certainly feel that we are all better for having listened to such fine addresses which were made by our two colleagues, Senator Blass and Senator Stiefel.

Mittleman, Scranton, resigned.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, September 27, 1955.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Each member of the General Assembly shares with me, I am sure, the knowledge that the demands and pressures against our highway system are constantly increasing with the growth of population and automobile usage, and the conviction that we must act now so that our Commonwealth is prepared to go forward in maintaining and developing the best highway system in the Nation.

Every driver can see that traffic is increasing faster than our capacity to handle it on our streets and highways.

To National character of the problem has been recognized in the Federal establishment, and it is a virtual certainty that the next session of Congress will act to accelerate the vast program of highway construction which the Country needs.

In Pennsylvania, there are more than 100,000 miles of public roads and streets.

The State highways are 41,100 miles long—a ribbon of road which, if in one continuous band, would go more than one and one-half times around the world.

City streets in Pennsylvania extend for 5,883 miles.

Boroughs streets are 6,050 miles.

There are 765 miles of county roads; 2,263 miles of first class township roads; and 44,978 miles of second class township roads.

It is a matter of interest that Pennsylvania's State highway mileage is greater than the combined state highway mileage in the six New England states, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Far more than in other states, our Commonwealth has assumed the responsibility for a truly State-wide highway system. But it is also true that a very heavy traffic is carried on streets and roads which remain as local responsibilities.

It becomes our duty therefore to shape a highway program for Pennsylvania with three objectives in mind. These are:

1. To increase the participation of local governments in the return from the motor vehicle licenses and liquid fuels taxes so that they may better meet their responsibilities for purely local traffic.

2. To prepare Pennsylvania for participation in any augmented program of Federal highway assistance which may be enacted at the next session of Congress. Any Federal program will almost certainly be restricted to the Interstate, Primary, and Secondary systems as they are presently classified for Federal aid.

3. To permit proper maintenance and modernization of the 20,476 miles of State highway which are a 100 per cent responsibility of the Commonwealth, and which are not included in any program of Federal assistance yet proposed.

We are all of course aware that the Constitution of Pennsylvania provides that all funds collected from motor vehicle and operator's licenses and from liquid fuels taxes must be used for highway purposes, except for the comparatively small amount of tax revenue derived from the sale of aviation gasoline.

The highways revenues are thus "untouchable" for the general purposes of the State. The budget for the State's highway program, the distribution of funds under it, and the revenue measures levied to support it are therefore completely outside of the area of disagreement which has unfortunately developed between the Chambers and between the political parties.

It is my earnest hope that the highways program can therefore be considered entirely outside that area of dispute, and that we can quickly agree upon both needs and methods of financing.

Since I submitted my budget message on April 19, 1955, events themselves have altered our situation.

The Legislature has enacted a one cent increase in the tax on gasoline to provide for the rehabilitation and reconstruction of the State highways and local streets and roads in the areas affected by the flood disaster of late August.

The Legislature also enacted, as a part of legislation revising weights limits for trucks, a series of increased charges for the licenses of such trucks.

We do not, therefore, now ask for any further increase in the liquid fuels tax, nor for additional increases in the licenses for trucks in the categories already raised.

As recommended in the budget message, it is still necessary to raise the license fee for passenger vehicles from $10 to $15, and also to raise the schedule of license fees for light trucks in the "R," "S," and "T" classifications.

These changes would increase the revenues of the Motor License Fund by approximately $17,000,000 annually. Legislation to accomplish the changes has been prepared, and will be introduced as a part of the highway program.

The $10 fee for passenger cras was fixed in 1943, when the price of an automobile in the low-priced field averaged $816. The average price of the same type car now sells for $2031, reflecting the increased costs and the changing dollar value which justify the license fee revision.

Many other states have already revised their charges in keeping with present day highway costs and needs.

Legislation will be presented to provide a permanent allocation from the liquid fuels tax to the local communities in Pennsylvania for the upkeep of their streets and roads. Previous allocations have been made at each session, without any assurance to the communities of their degree of State assistance from year to year. We now propose to make them full partners in the work of maintaining the traffic arteries of Pennsylvania, with a recognized degree of both responsibility and participation.

Under long-standing legislation, the counties have been receiving one-half cent of each five cents that the State collected on a gallon of gasoline. Under the legislation now proposed, the county share will continue but the municipalities will be allocated 20 per cent of the State's gasoline tax collections, less the one-half cent reserved for the counties and the one cent already allocated for flood area reconstruction. In addition, during the next biennium, any yield from the special flood area gasoline tax in excess of $45,000,000 secifically allocated will be distributed to the municipalities.

In all, the municipalities should receive about $60,000,000 in the biennium from the State's collection of the liquid fuels tax. This is an increase of $24,000,000.

It is further proposed that the allocation of funds to the municipalities be made on a basis of 55 per cent on road mileage and 45 per cent on population, instead of the 60-40 ratio used in the past. This recognizes the high cost of urban street construction and maintenance, but with due consideration for the special problems of thinly populated rural townships.

So that the State will be prepared to take full advantage of more favorable Federal highways legislation, it is proposed that increased borowing capacity be granted the State Highways and Bridge Authority to the full limit of the increase in matching funds required under the conditions of the Federal assistance. No general increase in the Authority's borowing power is sought, and no specific sum will be named. The increase will be conditional on Federal action, and in the amount that such action makes necessary.

In the 1953-55 biennium, the State's matching funds totalled $52,000,000. Only in the event that the matching funds required in the current biennium exceed that amount would be Authority's borrowing capacity be raised.

There is, however, an exception. The Authority would be empowered to issue bonds for the costs of such projects as may be specifically authorized by the General Assembly, provided that the Secretary of Highways certifies as to their cost and their necessity.

The increased revenues provided for highways use and the Highway and Bridge Authority's conditional power will be the implements by which the State may meet its third most pressing highways obligation—the maintenance and improvement of the 20,000 miles of State highway which are not eligible for Federal aid.

This mileage has been the neglected area in the State highways program. The compulsion of matching funds to obtain Federal grants, increasing costs for simple maintenance and the distribution of funds to the counties and municipalities, have for many years put an increasing "squeeze" on this portion of the highways system.

We now propose a rounded, balanced program which will make a reasonable allocation of State highways funds to the wholly State-supported roads. Under the legislative and fiscal program which is now advocated, that can and will be done.

It can hardly be necessary to emphasize the importance of the State's highway system to its economy, to its living standards, and to the desires of its people. There can be no argument as to the need; no phase of our public work has more nearly unanimous support.

In my judgment, the program now suggested has been carefully worked out, and is a reasonable approach to our problems. I strongly urge the General Assembly to give it prompt and favorable consideration.

GEORGE M. LEADER.
Governor.

The PRESIDENT. The communication will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

Mr. WATSON, on behalf of the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation, submitted the following report which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
COMMISSION ON INTERSTATE COOPERATION,
Harrisburg, Pa., September 27, 1955.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation, I have the honor to transmit herewith the Third Biennial Report of the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation, Session of 1955, for the calendar years 1953 and 1954.

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the Senate have been delivered to the Office of the Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Norman Wood
NORMAN WOOD, Chairman

The PRESIDENT. This report will be printed in full in the Appendix of the Legislative Journal.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, yesterday, the President pro tempore of the Senate named a committee from the Senate as a part of the Joint Investigating Committee. He named six Members of the Senate, three Republicans and three Democrats, designating me as Chairman. I think there is some misunderstanding regarding this.

I think the Speaker of the House made a statement to somebody that the President pro tempore had no authority to name a chairman of that committee. I do not think the President pro tempore of the Senate intended that I act as chairman of that committee any more than he did when he named me to be the Chairman of the Senate group on the Laurelton Investigating Committee. I think the reason he named me as chairman is so somebody would be in authority to call a meeting of the group of twelve members. Then, we will sit down and elect a chairman within our own group. So there is no misunderstanding, I do not have any idea that I am going to act as chairman of that committee unless the group elects me as the Chairman of the Joint Investigating Committee.

I wanted to mention that in order that there will be no delay in the naming of the six House Members. When they are named, then we will sit down and elect our own chairman within our own body. I just wanted to bring that out so that there is no misunderstanding.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, as I understand it, the gentleman from Armstrong takes the position that he was named by the President pro tempore of this Senate to serve as temporary chairman for the purpose of organizing this particular committee. If that is the case, I believe that the Speaker of the House will be satisfied. However, the President pro tempore of this Senate specifically stated that Senator Pechan was named chairman. As a matter of fact, the clerk read that Senator Pechan was chairman of the committee, and I felt that was entirely wrong because in the first place this is strictly a bipartisan committee. It is not dominated by either side and it would be the prerogative of the committee, itself, to elect their own officers.

Mr. PECHAN. That is exactly correct. The President pro tempore just named me as chairman of the Senate group so that somebody would be in authority to call an organization meeting and then we will elect our own chairman within our twelve members.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, speaking for the Democratic side, we are well satisfied with that explanation.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I think if Senator Lane reveals my remarks to the Speaker of the House, then we can get the ball rolling and perhaps call a meeting in the very near future for the purpose of setting up some rules and electing our own chairman.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, after hearing Senator Pechan's statement, I will be very glad to notify the Speaker of the House about the statements made, and which are in the record. I feel sure that he will be more than willing to cooperate and will have the Membership of the House named at once.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WOLF asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, in the Union-Centre County area there is a recreational park known as Half-Way, meaning half-way between two points. The road leading through this Half-Way area, between Buffalo Valley and Brush Valley, dates back to 1792. The present road dates back to 1860, which was probably about the date of the name Half-Way, because it was half-way through the mountains. At one time there was a tavern, dam and water power saw mill on the recreational site.

Half-Way Park is in the Bald Eagle State Forest, which has been developed into a recreational area where thousands of people enjoy boating, swimming, and fishing, hunting and the great outdoors.

Mr. President, one man is largely responsible for this development. He is Raymond Burrows Winter, who retired a few months ago after forty-eight years of service in the Department of Forests and Waters, most of which time was spent as District Forester. Upon his retirement, the Department of Forests and Waters issued an official release which I shall quote:

"Raymond Burrows Winter was born December 20, 1881, in Muncy, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania. He was graduated from the Muncy Normal School in 1906. After this he taught school awhile and then turned to what became a lifelong interest—Pennsylvania forests. He entered the Pennsylvania State Forest Academy in 1907 and graduated in 1910. Winter, better known to his friends as 'Foxy,' was first assigned as forester with the Department of Forestry on the White Deer Forest at Mifflinburg. As the old forest reserves developed into State forests and as the forest districts were organized under Gifford Pinchot, Winter became District Forester of the Bald Eagle District with headquarters at Mifflinburg. The end of World War I found Winter in the Officers Training School at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

"'Foxy,' who admits that he well deserves the nickname, saw the district develop from a badly burned, worn-out forest area to its present state. His early days with the Department were devoted to fire control and prevention, tree planting, road and trail building and gradually a little recreational work for the local people. These developments were speeded up during CCC days, when more physical improvements became available to the forester than perhaps any forester had dreamed possible for the next twenty-five years. The forests did grow, the forester protected and developed the forest; none among the foresters did this better or more conscientiously than 'Foxy' Winter.

"Today, the Bald Eagle State Forest is an established and thrifty forest. The management plan calls for an annual cut of close to 20,000,000 feet of timber per year. The district as a whole is quite and prosperous. The people believe in the forest, its use and its protection and the District Forester had much to do with bringing these things about.

"This year Mr. Winter rounds out forty-eight years of active service in Pennsylvania and retires from active duty. He is a member of the Society of American Foresters and the Pennsylvania Forestry Association. Some one else will pick up the district forester's activities but no one can ever take over the forester's job as Winter saw and lived it. No forester can see or live in the interest of Pennsylvania forests."

Mr. President, I am presenting a resolution today in which I am recommending that the recreational area, known as the Bald Eagle State Forest in Union County, and now known as Half-Way State Parks, be renamed "Raymond B. Winter State Forest Park" in lasting tribute to his untiring work in conservation.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

REQUESTING THAT HALF-WAY STATE FOREST PARK BE RENAMED RAYMOND B. WINTER STATE FOREST PARK

Mr. WOLFE offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish:

In the Senate, September 27, 1955.

The name of Pennsylvania was given to the colony of William Penn and inherited by the Commonwealth because of the verdant forests that once covered its territory. But indifference or lack of foresight to the future wealth in years past rapidly denuded Pennsylvania's hillsides of its trees; and carelessness and indifference to the value of second growths permitted repeated fires to ravage the cut-over area and to scorch the earth into a state of ugliness and unproductivity, robbing the land of its protecting forest growth.

A bleak and uninviting example of this catastrophe was what is now the Bald Eagle State Forest in Union County when Raymond B. Winter was sent there as a forester in 1910. The area was a charred wilderness of dead brush, stumps and a mud hole formerly a saw mill dam.

During his forty-five years of service there, Mr. Winter transformed the area into one of Pennsylvania's outstanding beauty spots. With far-sighted planning and tireless efforts he undertook the task of rehabilitation. His early days in the area were devoted to fire control and prevention, three planting, road and trail building and gradually a little recreational work for the local people, which later, with the help of the Civilian Conservation Corps during the early thirties and later improvements developed into a State Forest park of four hundred acres with a concrete and stone masonry dam on the site of the former saw mill dam, presently known as the Half-Way State Forest Park. And today the Bald Eagle Forest is an established and thrifty forest.

That Bald Eagle is one of the finest and best preserved forest districts in the State today is due mainly to the dilligent and conscientious work of Mr. Winter; therefore be it Resolved (The House of Representatives concurring), That the recreational area in the Bald Eagle State Forest in Union County now known as Half-Way State Forest Park be renamed Raymond B. Winter State Forest Park in lasting tribute to his untiring work in conservation.

PRAYER

The Reverend Franklin E. Kooker, Minister of Central Methodist Church, Honesdale, guest Chaplain, cousin of Mrs. Margarette S. Kooker, Member from Bucks County, and guest of Mr. Wall, Member from Wayne County, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we pause to bow for a brief moment in Thy presence before we begin the work of this day.

Help us to remember that Thou art near to guide and bless what we plan and do. Give us a desire to be fitted for our tasks today by the wisdom and grace which Thou alone canst supply.

We thank Thee again that Thou hast called us to the service of the people in the high office of government. Give us a vision of Thy throne, eternal in the heavens, from which all law and justice do proceed. As we seek to mould the laws by which our life within this state shall be governed, move us to seek Thy divine and holy will above all else, that our decisions shall reflect what is Thy desire for the good of the people.

Remind us that we are here, not only to represent the will of the people, but that we must give a good account of ourselves.

Forgive us for those times when we have looked upon our job as unimportant, or when we have been tempted to feel that our vote did not really count. Keep us from trading good conscience, integrity, and self-respect for what at the moment seems to be the expedient thing to do. Help us to be humble in our successes and teachable in our defeats and disappointments.

Stand, we pray, by the bedside of the President of the United States that he may know Thy comforting and healing power. Preserve his life and strength his spirit for the right handling of his many responsibilities.

Likewise do we pray for the physical well-being and the moral leadership of the governor of our Commonwealth.

And now in the further business of this day grant us patience, courage, and faith; for these things we ask in the name of Thy son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. DAVIS, GRAMLICH, MAGEE and KENT.

(Concurent) RESOLUTION No. 116.

In the House of Representatives, September 27, 1955.

Large areas in northwestern Pennsylvania continue undeveloped, generally marked by low population and a feeble, struggling economy. In many localities, their economies are limited to fishing, hunting and vacation-land activities.

Nevertheless, there exist in this northwestern region vast potentialities for commercial and industrial growth; a growth that is increasingly needed if this Commonwealth is to regain some of the dynamic quality of earlier expansion.

Such expansion is keyed to main-line, low-rated transportation service; and implicit in the coming operation of the St. Lawrence Waterway system, lies the means for bringing main-line, low-rated transportation to northwestern Pennsylvania.

The upper reaches of the Allegheny River flow close to the Great Lakes system, a system destined to become an American freshwater Mediterranean. Clearly, more than one of Lake Erie's ports will progress to the stature of trans-oceanic steamship terminals.

Logically then, to link the far-flung and industrially advanced inland waterway of the Allegheny and its connecting waters with the coming Lake Erie coastal expansion would add immeasurably to the welfare of both Nation and Commonwealth. Precedents all through history indicate that the resulting heavy flow of water-borne traffic would bring mounting industrial and commercial growth to the Upper Allegheny and its watershed; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concuring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to enact into legislation the measures necessary to connect Lake Erie with the Upper Allegheny River by canal, and to extend the existing lock system along the Allegheny to the river terminus of the canal; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate Resolution Serial No. 113, Printer's No. 260 as follows:

In the Senate, March 1, 1955.

The Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza is purportedly reminiscent of ancient and generally outmoded practices in its treatment of female prisoners

Recent reports from reputable sources state that the girls at Morganza are confined in cells with inadequate heating clothing food and no toilet facilities Conditions such as these are certainly not in furtherance of the new and enlightened concepts of training school techniques which our Commonwealth has adopted and therefore it appears an investigation is necessary to ascertain the truth of these reports and to determine how these conditions can be best remedied

These charges cast reflections upon the integrity of all public officials and must create serious doubts and grave apprehensions among the people concerning the good conduct of our government An immediate impartial vestigation of these charges is necessary in order to remedy these conditions if true or to protect the good name of public officials and institutions if false

In order to aid in the development of the program of this administration in cooperation with and approved by the Department of Welfare for the enlightened treatment cure and rehabilitation of these unfortunate patients therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concurs) that in the interest of fair play the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint six members of the Senate three of whom shall be Republicans and three Democrats and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint six members of the House three of whom shall be Republicans and three Democrats who together shall constitute a Joint Commission and be authorized and directed to make an immediate investigation of all the charges made and to hear all suggestions of an enlightened and progressive program for the proper operation of this institution

The Committee shall have the power to issue Subpoenas under its hand and seal requiring and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and answer questions touching matters properly being inquired into and to produce such books papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary Such Subpoenas shall have the force and effect of Subpoenas issued out of the Courts of this Commonwealth The committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before them Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to testify before the committee or to produce books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases and be it further resolved that the committee make a report of its findings together with its recommendations for appropriate legislation at the earliest possible date before the adjournment of this session of the General Assembly and has appointed Messrs. PECHAN, FLEMING, SCOTT, HOLLAND, HALUSKA and LANE a committee on the part of the Senate in accordance with the provisions of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk of the Senate informs the House that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House to Senate Resolution 113, Printer's No. 260, and has appointed the Members of the Senate provided for in the resolution.

It has also come to the attention of the Chair that the Presiding Officer in the other Chamber has named a Member of the other Chamber as Chairman of this particular Committee. This arrangement is unacceptable. The Chair will not appoint the Members of this particular Committee until the matter has been arranged and it is understood that the Committee itself names its own Chairman.

STUDENTS OF MECHANICSBURG JOINT HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House a delegation of students from the Mechanicsburg Joint High School of Cumberland County who are here under the supervision of their teachers, Messrs. Denton and Hoffman. They are the guests of the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. George.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

HIGHWAY PROGRAM

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, September 27, 1955.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Each member of the General Assembly shares with me, I am sure, the knowledge that the demands and pressures against our highway system are constantly increasing with the growth of population and automobile usage, and the conviction that we must act now so that our Commonwealth is prepared to go forward in maintaining and developing the best highway system in the Nation.

Every driver can see that traffic is increasing faster than our capacity to handle it on our streets and highways.

The National character of the problem has been recognized in the Federal establishment, and it is a virtual certainty that the next session of Congress will act to accelerate the vast program of highway construction which the Country needs.

In Pennsylvania, there are more than 100,000 miles of public roads and streets.

The State highways are 41,100 miles long—a ribbon of road which, if in one continuous band, would go more than one and one-half times around the world.

City streets in Pennsylvania extend for 5,883 miles.

Borough streets are 6,050 miles.

There are 765 miles of county roads; 2,263 miles of first class township roads; and 44,978 miles of second class township roads.

It is a matter of interest that Pennsylvania's State highway mileage is greater than the combined state highway mileage in the six New England states, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Far more than in other states, our Commonwealth has assumed the responsibility for a truly State-wide highway system. But it is also true that a very heavy traffic is carried on streets and roads which remain as local responsibilities.

It becomes our duty therefore to shape a highway program for Pennsylvania with three objectives in mind. These are:

1. To increase the participation of local governments in the return from the motor vehicle licenses and liquid fuels taxes so that they may better meet their responsibilities for purely local traffic.

2. To prepare Pennsylvania for participation in any augmented program of Federal highway assistance which may be enacted at the next session of Congress. Any Federal program will almost certainly be restricted to the Interstate, Primary, and Secondary systems as they are presently classified for Federal aid.

3. To permit proper maintenance and moderniaztion of the 20,476 miles of State highway which are a 100 per cent responsibility of the Commonwealth, and which are not included in any program of Federal assistance yet proposed.

We are all of course aware that the Constitution of Pennsylvania provides that all funds collected from motor vehicle and operator's licenses and from liquid fuels taxes must be used for highway purposes, except for the comparatively small amount of tax revenue derived from the sale of aviation gasoline.

The highways revenues are thus "untouchable" for the general purposes of the State. The budget for the State's highways program, the distribution of funds under it, and the revenue measures levied to support it are therefore completely outside of the area of disagreement which has unfortunately developed between the Chambers and between the political parties.

It is my earnest hope that the highways program can therefore be considered entirely outside that area of dispute, and that we can quickly agree upon both needs and methods of financing.

Since I submitted my budget message on April 19, 1955, events themselves have altered our situation.

The Legislature has enacted a one cent increase in the tax on gasoline to provide for the rehabilitation and reconstruction of the State highways and local streets and roads in the areas affected by the flood disasters of late August.

The Legislature also enacted, as a part of legislation revising weight limits for trucks, a series of increased charges for the licenses of such trucks.

We do not, therefore, now ask for any further increase in the liquid fuels tax, nor for additional increases in the licenses for trucks in the categories already raised.

As recommended in the budget message, it is still necessary to raise the license fee for passenger vehicles from $10 to $15, and also to raise the schedule of license fees for light trucks in the "R", "S", and "T" classifications.

These changes would increase the revenues of the Motor License Fund by approximately $17,000,000 annually. Legislation to accomplish the changes has been prepared, and will be introduced as a part of the highway program.

The $10 fee for pasenger cars was fixed in 1943, when the price of an automobile in the low-priced field averaged $816. The average price of the same type car now sells for $2031, reflecting the increased costs and the changing dollar value which justify the license fee revision.

Many other states have already revised their charges in keeping with present day highway costs and needs.

Legislation will be presented to provide a permanent allocation from the liquid fuels tax to the local communities in Pennsylvania for the upkeep of their streets and roads. Previous allocations have been made at each session, without any assurance to the communities of their degree of State assistance from year to year. We now propose to make them full partners in the work of maintaining the traffic arteries of Pennsylvania, with a recognized degree of both responsibility and participation.

Under long-standing legislation, the counties have been receiving one-half cent of each five cents that the State collected on a gallon of gasoline. Under the legislation now proposed, the county share will continue but the municipalities will be allocated 20 per cent of the State's gasoline tax collections, less the one-half cent reserved for the counties and the one cent already allocated for flood area reconstruition. In addition, during the next biennium, any yield from the special flood area gasoline tax in excess of $45,000,000 specifically allocated will be distributed to the municipalities.

In all, the municipalities should receive about $60,000,000 in the biennium from the State's collection of the liquid fuels tax. This is an increase of $24,000,000.

It is further proposed that the allocation of funds to the municipalities be made on a basis of 55 per cent on road mileage and 45 per cent on population, instead of the 60-40 ratio used in the past. This recognizes the high cost of urban street construction and maintenance, but with due consideration for the special problems of thinly populated rural townships.

So that the State will be prepared to take full advantage of more favorable Federal highways legislation, it is proposed that increased borrowing capacity be granted the State Highways and Bridge Authority to the full limit of the increase in matching funds required under the conditions of the Federal assistance. No general increase in the Authority's borrowing power is sought, and no specific sum will be named. The increase will be conditional on Federal action, and in the amount that such action makes necessary.

In the 1953-55 biennium, the State's matching funds totalled $52.000,000. Only in the event that the matching funds required in the current biennium exceed that amount would the Authority's borrowing capacity be raised.

There is, however, an exception. The Authority would be empowered to issue bonds for the costs of such projects as may be specifically authorized by the General Assembly, provided that the Secretary of Highways certifies as to their cost and their necessity.

The increased revenues provided for highways use and the Highway and Bridge Authority's conditional power will be the implements by which the State may meet its third most pressing highways obligation—the maintenance and improvement of the 20,000 miles of State highway which are not eligible for Federal aid.

This mileage has been the neglected area in the State highways program. The compulsion of matching funds to obtain Federal grants, increasing costs for simple maintenance and the distribution of funds to the counties and municipalities, have for many years put an increasing "squeeze" on this portion of the highways system.

We now propose a rounded, balanced program which will make a reasonable allocation of State highways funds to the wholly State-supported roads. Under the legislative and fiscal program which is now advocated, that can and will be done.

It can hardly be necessary to emphasize the importance of the State's highway system to its economy, to its living standards, and to the desires of its people. There can be no argument as to the need; no phase of our public work has more nearly unanimous support.

In my judgment, the program now suggested has been carefully worked out, and is a reasonable approach to our problems. I strongly urge the General Assembly to give it prompt and favorable consideration.

The temporary misunderstanding with the other Chamber having been resolved, pursuant to the provisions of Senate Concurrent Resolution Serial No. 113 adopted by the Senate September 13, 1955, and concurred in by the House of Representatives, as amended September 21, 1955, the Speaker appoints as a committee on the part of the House of Representatives to investigate conditions and treatment practices at the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza, Messrs. POLEN, FLYNN, WILLIAMS, VAUGHAN, WILT and TOMPKINS.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1560, entitled:

An Act to regulate the sale and distribution of commercial feeds in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Agriculture and prescribing penalties

The first, second, third and fourth sections were separately read and agreed to.

The fifth section was read.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ASHTON offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 5, page 6, line 18 by striking out "five cents ($.05)" and inserting in lieu thereof two ctnts ($.02)

Amend Sec. 5, page 7, line 6 by inserting after "Agriculture" and to be used solely

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, this amendment which was just read is, as I hope you understand, an amendment to reduce the amount of the fee, which in the bill itself is a five cent tax on commercial feeds.

This money is needed by the Department of Agriculture to enforce the law in policing the feed business in order to give a guarantee to the purchaser of feed. It is very necessary to farmers and anyone else who purchases commercial feed. It is only a five cent fee per ton on feeds that cost anywhere from $80 to $100 a ton.

At the present time, and for some time past, that business has been neglected, and this money is very necessary for the Department of Agriculture to take care of its needs in the laboratory and in the field to enforce lawful, unadulterated feeds being sold so that the people who buy them know what they are getting.

I plead with you to oppose the amendment which cuts the fee below that amount. Under the bill the Secretary of Agriculture may reduce the amount if it is not needed for that work. It will not be used for any other purpose.

I plead with you it is necessary for a good work that is needed, and I ask you to oppose this amendment.

Mr. ASHTON. Mr. Speaker, on the question of these amendments, I do not agree with Mr. Farabaugh that the five cents a ton is necessary to finance this program of inspection.

My amendments propose a fee of two cents per ton. Under five cents a ton it would produce about $100 thousand a year; at two cents a ton it would produce about $40 thousand a year or $80 thousand per biennium.

My contention is that a whale of a lot of inspection can be done for $80 thousand. I believe last year under the inspection $35 thousand was spent. The registration fee in the old law produced $37,500. Under the new act, this Act 560, the registration fees would also bring in about $37,500.

This inspection fee, or tax if you want to call it that, which the farmers would pay would bring in at two cents an additional $40 thousand, at five cents an additional $100 thousand. I believe the figure of $40 thousand to be much more realistic than the figures of $100 thousand.

The provision that the Secretary of Agriculture can reduce the fee at his discretion should it provide too much money, I think is just nonsense, because I cannot imagine any Department reducing a fee because it produces too much money when the money is in that Department to spend.

It would be much more businesslike, Mr. Speaker, to reduce the fee and get in the $40 thousand. If that is not enough after a year's trial, the Department could always come back and ask this House for an increase in fees. As it stands, I think it is giving the Department too much money. Our rural constituents are perfectly willing, I am sure, to pay a reasonable fee for services rendered, but I am equally sure that there are very few of our rural constituents who are willing to pay $10 for a service which only costs four dollars to render.

I am asking the Members of this House to vote for these amendments.

Mr. FARABAUGH. I would just like to reply, Mr. Speaker, to what the gentleman has said about the amount of money it has cost previous to this time.

I made some inquiry about the amount of inspection that had been made. One large feed dealer who turns out a good many hundred tons of feed in a year informed me that in the past year there had been samples taken from their feed four times. If that is the amount of work which has been done, is has been very sadly neglected, and the work in the laboratory has been sadly neglected, whereas the people should be permitted to go in, and would if there were money sufficient to take care of it, and have samples tested themselves. If that has cost, as the gentleman has said, in the neighborhood of $35 to $40 thousand in the past year, with the kind of job that has been done, it certainly is proof that the amount of money that five cents a ton would raise certainly is not going to hurt anybody and that it is needed to do the job as it should be done.

Mr. ASHTON. Mr. Speaker, as far as the five cent fee being so large as to hurt anybody, I doubt that it would hurt anybody in the dairy industry too much. In the chicken industry where the purchase of feed is much heavier, I believe it would hurt those farmers.

However large or however small the fee that the farmer would have to pay is purely an academic question.

I reiterate even though the farmer only pays $10 a year for this service, he will be unwilling to pay that when the service he gets is actually only costing four dollars.

Mr. YETTER. Mr. Speaker, I think the five cent fee per ton to enforce this law is a great bargain for the farmer, because it is very easy without any enforcement, or without proper enforcement, to let a small ingredient out of the feed, and it would make an awful lot more difference than the five cents that it is going to cost for the enforcement and the inspection of the feed.

I ask the Members to vote against the amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Messrs. READINGER and CAPANO and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Polen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, consent to be interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was on the calendar some time ago, it was contended that in changing or redefining the word "resident" and providing for the other rules of eligibility for public assistance it would increase the cost of public assistance.

I believe the bill was sent back to the gentleman's Committee for that study to determine whether there should be an additional appropriation made, with a further question that if it does cost more money, is it in the present appropriation for public assistance?

Mr. POLEN. That is correct.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I realize that was rather a double barreled question. May I rephrase the question for further interrogation of Mr. Polen?

After the gentleman has studied the bill, will it cost the Commonwealth any more money by reason of redefining eligibility?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, it will not. In fact it is anticipated that it might cause a slight decrease.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker. will the gentleman please explain to the House why it is anticipated that it might reduce the cost of public assistance?

Mr. POLEN. If the gentleman desires, I shall read the letter from the Secretary of Public Assistance, which gives her comment and her reasons why. I will briefly state her final statement on the bill.

> This bill relates to resident requirements as a condition of eligibility for public assistance and is primarily a clarification of existing laws as interpreted by the Attorney General.
> I feel that I am conservative when I say that the net cost of the provisions of this bill is zero and there is some reason for believing that there may actually be a slight savings to the Commonwealth in view of the features, on which I have commented last.

Mr. JOHNSON. I Thank the gentleman. That is the information we wanted. We want it in the record two years from now when if public assistance goes way up we would rather you did not say that if we had not changed the eligibility in this bill we would not have had the increase.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I am going to speak very briefly on House Bill 501, to call to the attention of the Members that it is the bill relating to the regulation of lobbyists. This is a subject that has been talked about for many years here in Harrisburg, and as you know, the Democratic State platform of 1954 contained a plank concerning the regulation of lobbying.

Those of you who have read the bill, I believe, will agree that in its present form it is not going to be an onerous burden on any person who seeks to influence the passing or defeat of legislation in the state legislature of Pennsylvania. In the main it requires the filing of certain reports by people who solicit and receive money for these purposes. It requires the registration of the people who are goin to do the lobbying, if they are employed by somebody and paid money to do so. And it requires any person engaged in lobbying for or against bills to list the amount of money that is spent in that endeavor.

It is my fervent hope that the public of Pennsylvania will understand that what we are doing here is not trying to ferret out one or two crooks. I believe most of the Members of this House believe that practically all of the lobbyists who have been working around Capitol Hill are honest, decent people and they are carrying out an honest function which is oftentimes very helpful to us. I know I have requested lobbyists over the years for much information and I have found it to be very valuable ad usually completely correct. This is in no way a reflection on the profession or the business of lobbying.

We believe that we have a perfect right to find out how much money is being spent to influence us one way or the other, and by whom it is being done. That is about all this bill does and I think we can, in all good conscience, vote for it and can expect good to come from its final passage. I ask the membership to vote for House Bill 501.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair hopes the Members will realize that the Speaker has gone to extraordinary lengths in order to insure the integrity of the roll call. The Chair does not think any Speaker could have gone farther than the Chair has, and thinks it is an effort with which the Members of this House should cooperate.

Here at the rostrum and on the floor it would be quite possible, unless we are on the ball all of the time to get a vote here and there that should not be recorded. The Speaker announced the day he took the Chair that if there is one thing he would insist upon it was insuring the integrity of the roll call, and the Chair does wish that while the rolls are called there be order so that the Members may be recorded.

The very heart and soul of parliamentary government is that the Members be properly recorded.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate Mr. Lovett, one of the sponsors of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, one of the provisions of this bill splits the fine taken from overloaded trucks fifty per cent to the state and fifty percent to the counties. I would like to inquire whether or not that applies to all sixty-seven counties.

Mr. LOVETT. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Speaker, it does.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I should like to call the attention of the House in that respect to Article V, Section 13 of the Constitution, which states that "all fees, fines and penalties in said courts (of Philadelphia County) shall be paid into the county treasury." This bill as it stands would apply to all counties and in its present form is unconstitutional. Furthermore I do not see why we should grant a privilege to one county which we do not grant to the other 66.

On the question recuring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SPECIAL ORDER HOUSE BILL NO. 1413

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next bill on special order fixed for this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1413 as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (1951-52 P. L. 533) entitled "An act relating to mental health including mental illness mental defect epilepsy and inebriety and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by changing the qualifications of superintendents of State institutions

Section 1 Section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (1951-52 P. L. 533) entitled "An act relating to mental health including mental illness mental defect epilepsy and inebriety and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" as amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two (1951-52 P. L. 2053) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 226 Qualifications etc of Superintendents The superintendent of every State institution shall be a physician with at least seven years training or experience or both in the care of patients [In institutions for the care of female patients the superintendent shall be a woman]

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was on second reading I at that time asked the Majority Leader to obtain certain information in connection with it prior to the time of its consideration on third reading.

Those questions were:

(1) How many institutions in the state are affected by this bill?

(2) What institutions affected by this bill now have male physicians, superintendents?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's interrogation of a couple months ago, may I state I contacted the Secretary of Welfare and was advised that there is only one institution in Pennsylvania affected by this bill, and that is Laurelton State Village.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, this is an innocent looking bill both in size and content. All the bill does is strike out the following:

"In institutions for the care of female patients the superintendent shall—I repeat—shall be a woman."

Let us take a look at the background and history leading up to the introduction of this bill, together with subsequent events.

In January of this year the present Secretary of Welfare launched a "reign of terror" in the institutions under his jurisdiction. designed to drive the rascals out—and I don't mean the patients in the institutions.

From Allentown to Torrance for one reason or another he succeeded and substituted his own brand of rascals

One thing he failed to reckon with, however, is that the Reign of Terror spread further than was intended for soon good qualified personnel began to leave the department and the institutions either because of political interference, as in the case of Danville, to the disrupting of a program at Laurelton.

The market for qualified personnel for such institutions is at best extremely tight. You can see that in an editorial in "Life" magazine of July 11, 1955.

But all the money in the world won't induce good qualified personnel to take employment under a "Mad Tyrant." It is not psychiatrists (although the Secretary has repeatedly indicated this was part of his solution to the problem) * * * *

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. READINGER. The gentleman is not speaking on this bill and his remarks are not even related to this bill. I think he is out of order.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, what I am saying is the background leading up to the introduction of this bill. I think it is entirely apropos

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed. The gentleman is as well acquainted with the parliamentary proprieties as is the Chair, perhaps more so.

The Chair would suggest the gentleman is not arguing in court, but is discussing House Bill 1413 and would suggest that he adhere to discussion properly in consideration of the bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I contend this is a part of it, Mr. Speaker. If you rule it is not a part, I can still get out to the people of Pennsylvania what the truth of this situation is, if the House does not care to hear it.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of my point of order.

If I am in order, I would like to make a statement in support of the point of order I have raised.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has already ruled and has admonished the gentleman from Cameron to confine himself in his further remarks. There is nothing the Chair can do regarding the remarks already made. The Chair has requested him to confine his remarks in the discussion of the bill to those matters pertaining to the bill.

The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I am going to file as part of the record in this debate this prepared statement, which I contend leads up to this bill, in order that the entire record may be had for the benefit of the public, but will confine myself specifically to female physicians.

(Following is the statement filed by Mr. Tompkins.)

* * * * * who will send up costs; there is only a limited number available and the various states have now declared a truce in bidding against each for those that are.

The Secretary then took to the blowing up technique in certain instances, for the declared purpose of shocking the public in order to obtain additional funds which he claimed was needed to operate his Department. But with all his sensationalism and grandiose programs, after 4½ months in office, January 18, 1955 to May 31, 1955, he was unable to spend all the money appropriated by the previous Republican Administration. He turned back $6,700,000 of it. Now, if he had and has such wonderful programs for the care, treatment and rehabilitation of patients in these institutions, how come he did not spend some of this money for that purpose. The suspicion grows with each succeeding day that the increased sums requested by him, 52 million dollars, is desired not so much for the benefit of the patients, but for the building of a huge political machine at the expense of human misery.

He writes letters to anxious and worried parents that their children cannot be admitted to Polk because of the long waiting list caused by the Republicans. If this is so (but the record will show the Republicans were constantly expanding the facilities at this Institution) then why did not the Secretary use or have allocated a part of the $6,700,000 he turned back, for the purpose of expanding these facilities to take care of the demand? The people to whom he wrote such letters are entitled to an answer on this one.

Then, of course, the Secretary announced with fan fare, there would be no more politics in his Department, or under his jurisdiction. This was short lived however when a Gentleman from the other Chamber, a Democratic Gentleman, threatened to introduce a resolution to investigate this choking off of patronage. Well, just what happened on this one—Let the Harrisburg Evening News of September 9, 1955 tell you:

"Democratic leaders today had a "ray of hope" that patronage problems in state institutions under the Department of Welfare will work out "satisfactorily for everybody.

"This is the first day of hope that we have had which indicates that the situation will work out satisfactorily for everybody in the end," said Sen. Hugh J. McMemamin (D-Lackawanna).

"He made the statement yesterday following a meeting of Democratic leaders from Lackawanna County with Harry Shapiro, secretary of Welfare. The meeting was called by Gov. Leader.

"Shapiro recently announced that employes of state hospitals must not participate in politics.

"Following the announcement McMenamin drafted a resolution for introduction in the Senate after September 12 which criticizes the Leader administration on patronage.

"But after yesterday's session McMenamin said the resolution will be held up "at least for the time being."

"The senator said additional conferences will be held with Shapiro in an effort to get action on recommendations for state posts by Lackawanna County leaders.

"McMenamin said Shapiro told the group he wanted to cooperate with them but that he "has a lot of problems".

In February of this year the services of a good and well qualified female physician was lost at Laurelton. The Commissioner of Mental Health, Dr. Hilding Bengs was placed in temporary charge of the Institution. In April of this year the Secretary went to the then Board of Trustees and ask them to approve the appointment of a male physician as Superintendent of an exclusively female institution. This the Board refused to do, contending that in doing so they would be making themselves a party to an illegal act. The Secretary thereupon proceeded on his own initiative to appoint a male physician as Acting Superintendent, the Secretary well knowing at the time the appointment was illegal.

So on May 23, 1955 House Bill No. 1413 was introduced, which if passed and approved by the Governor would legalize an Act of the Secretary which at the time it was done was illegal.

Therefore, I, like the then Board of Trustees, refuse to make myself a party to an illegal transaction by voting for this bill. I think what the Secretary has done in this instance clearly constitutes malfeasance in office, and I ask that the Secretary resign for such malfeasance.

I think the welfare of the unfortunates in the Institutions under the jurisdiction of the Department of Welfare, the welfare of the Department of Welfare, and the welfare of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania could best be served by the resignation of the Secretary of Welfare.

Because of his reign of terror, his no hope letters and misery politics, his patronage deals, and his malfeasance in office, I ask that the Secretary of Welfare resign.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I simply desire to point out to the House that this bill does not prevent the appointment of a qualified female physician as head of this institution. It simply removes the requirement that the superintendent must be a female.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Committee on the part of the House which conducted the investigation at Laurelton State Village, may I say to the Members of the House that the statements made by the gentleman from Cameron may lead some people to believe that the state lost some very valuable and irreplaceable employes in Laurelton State Village by the action of the Secretary of Welfare.

Let me say to you, Mr. Speaker, and to the Members that in the opinion of at least three Members of the House Committee the loss of these employes was far too long delayed * * *

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TOMPKINS. A point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Is the gentleman from Allegheny now speaking upon the provisions of this bill?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would admonish the gentleman from Allegheny that the Chair does not believe the details which the gentleman is beginning to discuss are pertinent to the consideration of this bill. They are matters that the gentleman, I believe, would be privileged to file for the record, but we are discussing the merits of House Bill 1413 and the Chair would admonish the gentleman from Allegheny as he admonished the gentleman from Cameron.

Mr. BOIES. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

May I say then that this bill refers only to Laurelton State Village. The Members of the House should be, if they are not, acquainted with the circumstances which I wish to bring out.

I would say to the membership that we have now a Secretary of Welfare who is trying to do a job, who is capable of doing a job, and if he thinks that this is the best bill and the best procedure for Laurelton State Village, I appeal to you to support him and do the thing that is best, not only for the inmates but for all those who are concerned about the inmates.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. READINGER. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. READINGER. Does the gentleman from Cameron offer to file his remarks which were excluded from being read into the record?

I believe he stated while he was debating that he intended to file certain comments which he was about to make.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman stated his intention of filing for the record comments that he desired to make.

Mr. READINGER. Has the gentleman offered to file them?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Yes, I have offered to file them, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. He has offered them for the record.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I object to the filing and printing of any comments which have been excluded during the course of this debate and which might be contained in his written document.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would rule that the proposed filing of a statement by the gentleman from Cameron is not now within the purview of the Chair, or within the purview of the Members of this House, because we have not heard it and we have not read it.

The Chair would rule that the gentleman be permitted to file his statement. When it is a part of the record, the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, or any other Member, may move that it be stricken from the record.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides that the superintendent of every state institution shall be a physician with at least seven years training or experience, or both, in the care of patients, and in an institution for the care of female patients, the superintendent shall be a woman.

I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that the Superintendent at Muncy Home is also a woman, so there is more than one institution in the state involved under the provisions of this bill.

I would also like to call your attention to the fact that when Laurelton State Village was first created there was written into the law that the superintendent shall be a woman. That was done because of the fact that it was an exclusively female institution and it was felt by the Legislators at that time that it was best to have the viewpoint of a woman in the treatment of women. That is the reason it was written into the law at that time and why it has been in the law ever since.

I cannot see any virtue in changing that procedure at the present time.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, consent to be interrogated?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell us how many female psychiatrists we have in Pennsylvania who would meet the qualifications set up in this particular bill?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I have not made a survey of medical colleges, female physicians, or otherwise, so I could not tell the gentleman.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman say then, if there were only one or two, that that provision should remain and the Commonwealth be compelled to hire somebody who in the opinion of the Secretary was not the proper person?

Mr. TOMPKINS. By the same token, Mr. Speaker, I might answer that with another question.

Does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, know how many female physicians there are in the state of Pennsylvania?

Mr. LOPRESTI. I don't know, Mr. Speaker, but here we are seeking to amend a bill which would permit either a woman or a man, doctor, phychiatrist, properly trained. We are not asking that females be eliminated, they can be hired if they are available.

As the present law is, we could not hire one if there were none available, and that is why I asked the gentleman if he knows whether they are available.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I don't know how many there are in Pennsylvania and I don't know how many there are in the United States, but the Secretary so far has gone beyond the borders of the state to get an awful lot of his professional personnel. His question would cover the entire United States, maybe the world. We have a few DP doctors up at Laurelton at the present time.

Mr. LOPRESTI.Mr. Speaker, I think for one time we should set aside political considerations. Perhaps something did happen at Laurelton that was political, I don't know and I don't care. The thing that I am interested in from now on is the treatment and the care of those patients who are in that particular institution.

I have no fear of placing women under the custody of qualified male phychiatrists. We all know that females all over this country, in fact, females all over the world, are being treated constantly for mental illnesses and for all other types of illnesses by male doctors. There is no reason why, in my opinion, we should place a limitation on the hiring of psychiatrists for any institution.

There is no reason, for example, why a female psychiatrist could not properly, under certain circumstances, be employed in an all male hospital. I think we do an injustice to the patients when we attempt to limit professional services to one sex or the other.

I think this bill should be voted upon merely on its merits. We want psychiatrists, and we do not care whether they are female or male psychiatrists. We want the best that we can have, and those who will give the best treatment to the patients under the circumstances.

Mr. AGNEW. Mr. Speaker, there is one point here which is undisputed and which the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, conveniently overlooks.

The law as it stands today says that the Superintendent at Laurelton must be a woman. The Secretary of Welfare, Mr. Shapiro, removed a woman and replaced her with a male superintendent.

Mr. Shapiro took an oath of office to uphold and defend the Constitution and the laws of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Shapiro has violated his oath of office.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny County, I wish to inform him that Mr. Shapiro did not remove the woman, she resigned.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, further in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, I purposely did not discuss the thing he talked about because it is not pertinent to this bill.

If Mr. Shapiro has committed malfeasance, if he has violated some law, that is not for this Legislature to decide under this bill. We are talking now about what we shall do in the future, whether or not Laurelton shall be restricted to female psychiatrists in the future. I am not concerned about what went on in the past.

If the gentleman from Allegheny or the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, is concerned about that, there is a proper remedy in the courts and not in this Legislature to decide that question.

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I happened to be a Member of the Committee that investigated Laurelton. I do want to say that I can see the purpose of this bill. As I see it, the purpose of this bill, when the lady physician resigned up there, where was the Secretary of Welfare going to find another lady to replace the lady that resigned.

He, therefore, had to place Dr. Bengs in her place. If circumstances should exist, if he were to comply with the law and could not find a lady physician, what is going to give him the proper authority to act according to the law?

I can see the purpose of this bill. In case a lady physician or psychiatrist should resign and this bill is not changed, they are going to wait for a lady physician. If there is no one going to be up there, no physician is going to be available privileged to take her place.

I think the bill is a good bill and we should support it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, there has been a lot of discussion by the gentleman from Cambria and others regarding the provisions of this bill

This bill does not relate to the hiring of psychiatrists, or the hiring of physicians, or anything else, it relates to the hiring of a superintendent. It says the superintendent must be a physician. There is no reference to any of the other employes. It is just that the superintendent must be a female physician, that is what this bill did provide and that is the provision you are trying to strike out.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The gentleman of the Press well know they are not privileged to confer with Members of the House while the House is in session. There have been repeated offenses of that kind which the Chair cannot tolerate.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TOMPKINS. I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as it has been brought out on the floor of this House that the Secretary of Welfare has committed an act of malfeasance in office, I am asking the Chair the procedure for his removal from office.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, will effect an immediate amendment to the Constitution granting to the Chair the power and privilege of removing cabinet officers, the Chair might have a bit of a holiday some morning.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I was not inquiring as to the Speaker's duties to remove the Secretary, I am asking the Speaker what the legislative and constitutional procedure is for the purpose of removing the Secretary.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman the Chair will read the Constitution.

Article VI, Section 1. Power of Impeachment.

"The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment."

Section 2, Trials of Impreachment. "All impeachment shall be tried by the Senate."—there is trouble right there—"when sitting for that purpose the Senators shall be upon oath or affirmation; no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Members present.

The House starts the impeachment proceedings with a bill of particulars and the Senate tries it.

SPECIAL ORDER HOUSE BILL NO. 1618

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the next bill on special order fixed for this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1618, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9 1929 (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards and commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Licutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments board and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" Prescribing powers and duties of the Department of Welfare with respect to juveniles

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate one of the sponsors of the bill or the Majority Leader, whoever desires to be interrogated.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader, Mr. Readinger, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, this bill repeals a section which was added in 1945 to the 1929 Act. I am now asking what this bill does which is not already provided for in the Act of 1945

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, at the moment I cannot answer that question, I do not have the Act of 1945 before me. I presume that it broadens the powers of the Department of Welfare in respect to the treatment and control of juvenile delinquents. I would suggest to the gentleman that he sometime read the Act of 1945 and answer his own questions.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I have done that, Mr. Speaker, and that is why I am asking this question. I am trying to find out what the difference in the two acts is, what the purpose and reason for this particular bill is that is not already included in the Act of 1945.

Mr. READINGER. I can't answer the quqestion, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the provisions of this bill cover all state-wide agencies, organizations, and so forth?

Mr. READINGER. I believe that is right, Mr. Speaker. On page 4 it says, "offer a recommended program of coordination among existing public and private institutions . . ."

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does this also cover other governmental agencies?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I am beginning to think the gentleman did not even read the bill.

On page 5 of the bill under subsection (e) it states: "To assist counties and local public and private agencies to establish research projects," and so forth.

I would say it allows cooperation and coordination with all institutions, public or otherwise, which deal with juveniles.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, specifically I would like to ask the gentleman, there are two institutions in this state, Huntingdon and White Hill, that are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice. Would this bill cover those two institutions?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, to the extent of cooperating with them, yes, I would think it does. If there is any problem relating to prevention treatment and so forth of juvenile delinquency to the extent that the Department of Welfare could cooperate with any other existing state institutions, I believe it does provide for it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Then, Mr. Speaker, the Welfare Department would be in a position under this bill, as I understand it, to go over and advise the Department of Justice how to operate Huntingdon and White Hill?

Mr. READINGER. No, I wouldn't say that, Mr. Speaker. I don't think it goes that far. I think it provides for cooperation.

I think the gentleman's question could best be answered by reading Section 2322, subsection (b) on page 3 of the bill, which says:

"The Department of Welfare shall have the power and its duty shall be . . .

(b) To offer consultation, guidance and assistance to public and voluntary agencies and institutions including the Juvenile Courts in developing strengthening and improving program for predisposition study probation supervision," and so forth.

That certainly would not entitle the Department of Welfare to go over and tell the Department of Justice how to run the affairs with which it is specifically charged. This is a cooperative bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, the present law provides, I believe, that the Department of Welfare has jurisdiction in operating institutions which are state subsidized —or at least controlled by it.

Mr. READINGER. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, I did not hear the question.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, the present law provides for the jurisdiction of the Department of Welfare in institutions which are state aided, is that right?

Mr. READINGER. I believe so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, would this bill extend that jurisdiction beyond state aided institutions and to private institutions?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, this would allow the Department of Welfare to cooperate with any private agency dealing with the subject. It has nothing to do with only state aided institutions. I believe I read a minute ago it pertains to all public or private institutions which deal with juvenile delinquency.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Just one more question, Mr. Speaker. I don't want it to appear that I am trying to halt any good program that might be for the prevention of juvenile delinquency, I am trying to find out what this bill covers.

Should this bill perchance obtain the approval of this House, I would like to call the attention of the gentleman to the fact that the title does not contain any reference to the repealer which is contained in the bill, the title merely refers to it as an amendment and not as an added section. So for the preservation of the act I would like to call the Majority Leader's attention to that particular fact in order that the bill cannot later be defeated maybe for constitutional reasons.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for the suggestion and assure him that when it is passed over to the Senate we will have that matter checked thoroughly, and if that correction should be made it will be made.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Now, Mr. Speaker, just two more questions.

The SPEAKER. will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be further interrogated to the extent of one more question?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the Welfare Department has endorsed a bill which is in this House at the present time relating to the control of comic books?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would have no knowledge whatsoever of whether the Department of Welfare endorsed any comic book regulation bill. It may have, but I have no knowledge of it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further inquire whether the Welfare Department has endorsed a bill which is now in this House relating to camps for juvenile delinquents?

Mr. READINGER. I have no knowledge of whether it has or not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I am trying to find out exactly what this bill covers, and for the life of me I cannot quite figure it out because of the fact that the Act of 1945 provides as follows:

> "The Department of Welfare shall have the power and its duty shall be:
> . . . (c) To visit, study and evaluate conditions in communities throughout the Commonwealth, and advise local agencies as to organization and development of needed programs."

This all relates to juvenile delinquency and the prevention of crime.

It also provides that the Department of Welfare shall prepare and sponsor legislation bearing upon the many specific problems incident to crime prevention.

The reason I asked about the comic book control and the camps for delinquent children, they both seem to be in that direction and I am wondering whether the Welfare Department has endorsed those, too. Furthermore, they already have the power to go out into the communities and advise and help them on problems of juvenile delinquency.

I am wondering what this bill has behind it that we cannot see on the surface, whether it is an extension of state control over a number of matters that we do not know anything about or whether it is an effort on the part of the Welfare Department to start advising a lot of private agencies that have existed over the years in a manner that, perhaps they have no right to at present. In other words, is this an attempt to extend the power of the state into private matters in a way that to me is abhorrent? I do not know. There is nothing on the surface of the bill that indicates any of that. With the power the Welfare Department now has under the Act of 1945, I am wondering about the necessity of this bill. Just what is there so magic about the state getting into something that is going to solve everything? Pretty soon the people will not have any reliance in themselves at all.

Just how far is this bill intended to go? I do not know, and I would like to have an answer to that before I vote on it. I would like to have some better information than has been forthcoming from the floor so far, and until I get such information I am going to be compelled to vote "no" on this bill in its present form.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I could not hear all the remarks the gentleman made, but I gathered he is perplexed as to the advisability and need for this legislation.

I am holding in my hand a small pamphlet entitled "Social Legislation" published by the Pennsylvania Citizens Association for Health and Welfare, a publication which we frequently receive. I believe it is a monthly or a weekly publication which deals particularly with social legislation. I would like to read one short paragraph on the front page of this, it is entitled, "Blueprint for Action on Delinquency."

> "House Bill 1618 makes the Department of Welfare a partner with local communities in an effort to provide adequate treatment and prevention facilities for juvenile delinquency. In essence, it sets up a broad framework for responsibility and action by the Department on this crucial social problem."

I think that is the answer to the gentleman's question. He knows, as we all know, that juvenile delinquency has been a growing problem in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as it has in many other states.

If the state of Pennsylvania were unwilling to participate in some small, perhaps but sensible way to help these local agencies which have been doing such a good job, but which cannot do the job entirely, if we were to withhold that help, I think we would not be legislating properly.

This bill I believe calls for a maximum expenditure of about $450 thousand for the next 18 months. If the gentleman thinks that is too much for the state of Pennsylvania to contribute to this great problem, then I am afraid I must disagree with him.

I believe on September 26th the Governor sent a message over to this House which was read and which is still available to every Member in which he outlined the problem which he hoped would be solved by this legislation. We cannot cure the entire situation, that is true, but we can certainly take as many steps in the right direction as this Citizens' Association states. I believe we are going in the right direction by passing this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, to preside.

MR. HELM IN THE CHAIR

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I am somewhat mystified also about the particular bill on which we are voting. It would seem to me that the old law contained all the provisions that the amended bill seeks to bring forth.

I, too, would like to have more details and more of the reasons why this particular bill is necessary. If there are things which the Department should have under legislation that are not now provided for, and this bill will provide them, I am for it. I can see no reason why we cannot have a full explanation of what we are attempting to correct, what existing deficiency we are trying to correct by this bill.

I agree with the gentleman from Cameron that we should have some specific reason for the bill. As I read it, I can see nothing in it that is not already in the law. Maybe I am missing something, maybe there is something in there that I am supposed to miss, and that is what I want to know.

Mr. READINGER. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOPRESTI. I shall, Mr. Speaker, but I have already pleaded ignorance so if he intends to get anything from me, I do not know how he will do it.

Mr. READINGER. I want to ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, whether there is anything in the present law allowing and directing the reimbursement of the counties and the departments of public welfare of cities of the first class for part of the net cost of maintenance, correction, re-education, rehabilitation and treatment of juvenile delinquents?

Mr. LOPRESTI. That I do not know and I do not have the full law before me. That is why I am pleading ignorance.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, will the Gentleman then inform me why he states he sees nothing in this bill which is not covered by the present act?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I was merely looking at the parts which were cut out and the parts which were added. The last part about reimbursement, whether that is already in the law, I do not know. I say I am pleading ignorance. I am not speaking against the bill. In the final analysis it might be a good bill, but I want to know why.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the lack of information on the part of the gentleman from Cameron and the gentleman from Cambria, I would suggest that we pass this bill over and call it up at a later date at which time we can supply everybody with all the information they might desire.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair withdraws its decision as to this bill having been agreed to on third reading. The Chair hears none.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection
House Bill No. 1116, Printer's No. 978, was passed over at the request of Mr. READINGER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1390, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section one article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania excluding income taxes and taxes upon the transfer of property from a decedent from requirement of uniformity and limiting the rate and use of proceeds of income taxes

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows

tions of purely public charity and real and personal property owned occupied and used by any branch post or camp of honorably discharged soldiers sailors and marines Uniformity shall not be required in the case of income taxes and taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent which may be graded or graduated and provide for exemptions but all taxes shall be levied and collected under general laws

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I think this bill deserves just a brief comment before being voted on. It is a joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section I, Article 9 of the Constitution, which is the uniformity clause of our Constitution. Briefly the bill or the resolution would allow the imposition of a graduated income tax as well as a graduated inheritance tax. The matter has been before the public, I believe, on four different occasions in the past and has always been defeated.

This question is whether or not we should have in Pennsylvania a graduated income tax. Many of us on this side believe that we should have and that it is the most equitable manner in which funds can be raised to finance the Commonwealth.

I might point out to you that something new has been added to this resolution in that it has a maximum rate of six per cent. Under the resolution, if it were adopted by the people, the Legislature could not have an income tax rate in excess of six per cent. All of the money would have to be devoted to welfare, public assistance, education and I forget the fourth category.

I am hoping that the Members will see fit to vote for this bill. Last week I agreed to the amendments submitted by Mr. Auker, which would also include a graduated inheritance tax. I think too, that is a wise provision and it is my hope that the Membership will vote for this bill.

Mr. AGNEW. Mr. Speaker, I wish to debate this bill and give my reasons for voting against it, which are my reasons for voting against any sort of a state wage or income tax.

The Democratic party has tried unsuccessfully to impose a classified income tax on the people of Pennsylvania. We have on the calendar today this bill which calls for a constitutional amendment permitting a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania.

This bill is sponsored by the Captain and the Lieutenant of the Democratic House command. Last week a bill was submitted by the ranking Democrat in this House proposing a percentage tax on the amount of federal income tax. If all of these proposals fail as they must, is there any question in anyone's mind that the Democrats will propose a flat wage tax.

The Democratic party is the wage tax party in Pennsylvania. So desperate are the Democrats for some sort of a wage tax that they are outdoing each other with bigger and better plans to tax the income of the average Pennsylvanian.

The Legislative mask of hypocrisy has been ripped off and exposed to full view the grim determination of the wage tax party to confiscate more of the income of the average Pennsylvania citizen.

You Democrats have some idea that with a wage tax you can soak the rich. In their anxiety to accomplish this, they overlook two things. One, there are no rich people any more. Two, those who do have large incomes are very well taken care of by the federal government.

If the federal government confiscated all income in excess of $10,000 there would only be enough additional money to operate the federal government for five days. Ninety-eight per cent of the people in this country have incomes of $10,000 a year or less. Two per cent have incomes of more than $10,000. So the average man pays the great bulk of federal taxes. The average man in Pennsylvania will pay the great bulk of state taxes, no matter what kind of a broad base tax we pass.

Those with large incomes in Pennsylvania are not, I repeat, not opposed to the graduated income tax. A man in the highest state bracket under this bill, six per cent, may pay $3,000 to the state and deduct almost all of it on his federal income tax return. Because those with large incomes always itemize deductions.

The average man does not itemize deductions and the one per cent he pays comes entirely out of his pocket. The man with a large income taking advantage of his federal income tax deduction will not pay six per cent out of his pocket but it will be approximately the same one per cent. The big man and the little man will each pay about one per cent.

For all practical purposes the federal income tax prohibits a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania. The Republican party wants the rich man to pay his fair share of the state taxes according to his ability. The Democratic party apparently does not.

When we talk of state taxes, we must take into consideration the impact of the heavily graduated federal income tax. Listen to this example. A man with a wife and two children making $350 a month, pays in federal taxes $360 a year, or more than one month's gross pay. In addition half the people in Pennsylvania pay a local wage tax.

Recognizing this fact, no state since 1937 has imposed an income tax of any kind. Members of the Majority, the federal government has preempted the income tax field.

These are some of the reasons why the people in Pennsylvania are overwhelmingly opposed to a state wage tax of any kind. Is there one Member in this House who believes that the people of Pennsylvania will vote for a constitutional amendment permitting a graduated income tax? As Representatives of the people why don't we vote the way the people want us to vote? But the party of Davy Lawrence, the wage tax king, and the party of George Leader, the wage tax crown prince, is the wage tax party in Pennsylvania. The wage tax party has a temporary majority in this House.

Let the people of Pennsylvania remember, and remember well, the Republican party is the anti-wage tax party in Pennsylvania.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I want to make a few remarks about this particular piece of legislation.

If you noticed the past few days I have been wondering why we passed this bill over. I didn't think we had a Republican on the other side of this House who would vote against this particular bill.

I recall back one session or so ago that we had in this House a bill calling for a constitutional convention. I listened very attentively to the gentleman, Mr. Davis, the Admiral on the other side of the House, explain to this House that we had a means of amending the constitution in Pennsylvania. I must say that to some extent the words of wisdom of the Admiral sank in. I just wonder if the Admiral is here in the House today, because I intend to interrogate the Admiral a little later on.

The gentleman that spoke prior to me called the Democrats the wage tax party in Pennsylvania. I have pointed out quite a number of times in this House that the only wage tax you have in Pennsylvania is the Republican wage tax. You have the Sterling Act which was enacted by the Republicans. That was enacted by the Republicans with the Democrats trying their best to defeat it.

Now let us be fair and honest about the thing. Let us look at the record, as my old friend Al Smith used to say, and be honest, and admit that the Republican party is the only party that has given us wage taxes in Pennsylvania.

As to this particular amendment to the constitution, I must somewhat disagree with my Floor Leader. I don't think to my knowledge the people of Pennsylvania have ever had before them a vote on just an amendment to the constitution, to give us the right of a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania. It has always been tied on in some other way or some other form.

This six per cent limit that is on this, I will go along with but I don't think we should. Let me just read you a little clipping out of a very good Republican newspaper, one of the Harrisburg papers, which said during the debate on Governor Leader's classified income tax—It is short and to the point:

> We are not against the Governor's proposed taxes because we think the sales tax is great.
> We are against it because of its manifest unfairness to thousands of Pennsylvanians.
> We're not against it because we're out to protect the "big buck" boys.
> If we were out to protect the "fat cats," as the labor politicians call them, we wouldn't be urging—as we have now for several years—that as soon as possible a graduated income tax be made possible for the Commonwealth. Then the "fat cats" really would get clipped with a lion's share of the tax load. The really big incomes could be taxed at a lot higher rates than the highest one the Governor now proposes. We don't think that's unfair. That's real honest-to-gosh "ability to pay."
> Rule out the Governor's proposals, and only an absolutely flat income levy or a sales tax is left. Until such time as a graduated income tax can be placed before the people again in a constitutional amendment and, we believe, get their okay, we feel that a sales tax would be the best and fairest for all Pennsylvanians.

Now my friends, I say to you again, when is the Senate of Pennsylvania going to give the people of Pennsylvania the right to amend the Constitution in the way that the Admiral, Mr. Davis, suggests.

May I ask at this particular time permission to interrogate the Admiral, Mr. Davis?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if I am not asking too much would the gentleman kindly tell me if he is going to vote for or against this bill.

Mr. DAVIS. I shall probably vote against this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. SPEAKER. If I may, without getting away from the question at hand, we passed a resolution in this House during an early stage in the session, which dealt with a constitutional amendment. Am I out of order if at this time I refer to that in regard to this legislation?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is out of order if it does not apply to the question before the House.

Mr. LOVETT. Would the Speaker please give me the right after this measure has been passed to make a statement in regard to that legislation?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection from the House the Chair will recognize the gentleman from Westmoreland at that time.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, why does the Admiral admit that he is going to oppose this legislation? He has voted at times for constitutional amendments. He has done so within the last session and a bill that he voted for to amend the constitution is somewhere in the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Would the Admiral agree with me that if the Members of the House of Representatives support legislation with a large majority, then would he go along with me over to the Senate of Pennsylvania and ask the Senators to please give some consideration to the legislation which the House passed? Would the gentleman agree to do that?

Mr. DAVIS. I would say to the gentleman from Westmoreland that I represent a constituency, and I vote exactly in line with what my constituents want, as near as I can figure out their wishes, and in voting against this I am merely reflecting what my constituency wants me to do. I believe that is perfectly in accord with good constitutional procedure.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman believe that when the House of Reprsentatives by a large majority passes legislation that the Senate should give consideration to that legislation, especially when it is legislation giving the people of Pennsylvania the right to vote on that legislation?

Mr. DAVIS. I would say that is solely a matter within the province of the Senate. It is their problem to determine their own course just as over here it is our problem.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, for his very frank remarks.

I say again to you when, oh when are we going to quit boondoggling? When is this House going to quit shadow boxing? We have passed amendments before to the Constitution for a graduated income tax, they went over to the Senate in Pennsylvania and there they stayed. The people never get the opportunity to vote for these amendments to the constitution.

The Admiral believes that the people should have that right. He debated that issue here on the floor and I agreed somewhat with him, that that was the proper method to solve the amendments to the constitution, but I say to you that if the Senate of Pennsylvania would give the people the right to bring our Constitution out of the stone age, bring it up to date and give us at least the right to amend our constitution, then we would not be here struggling, struggling month after month in order to solve a tax program.

I was for the Leader Tax Program because I said at that time it was a fair and honest program until we have the opportunity to have a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania by one means or another. I do not think that is good for Pennsylvania. I pointed out before that every labor organization, every newspaper, every commission that we set up comes back and says we should have a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania. So my friends, today I ask you to join with me and pass this. I realize that it has to pass another session of the legislature. Our Senate would possibly kill it this time, but we will pass it two years from now and they will kill it again. That is the boondoggling. Let us get something from the Senate of Pennsylvania, let us ask them to be men and not just stand over there and think because they oppose this that the people of Pennsylvania have no rights.

My friends, I hope there is not a Republican in this House that will vote against this amendment to the constitution. We are for, always have been for, and always will be for a graduated income tax fair to the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to correct the gentleman on a couple of statements that he made.

One of them was that all of the wage taxes that were being imposed in the state were Republican taxes. I would like to correct him in as much as Pittsburgh enacted a wage tax, and certainly Dave Lawrence is not a Republican.

Further, he referred to the Sterling Act and Act 481. Neither one of these acts imposed a wage tax. They merely permitted these political subdivisions to impose a tax or taxes that were not already imposed by the Commonwealth. Now if these councilmen or commissioners or what have you in the political subdivisions did impose an objectionable tax in the next election they certainly could get them out of office, which is merely home rule, so I do not think that he can term any of these taxes that I know of at least, as Republican wage taxes. Certainly the City of Erie imposed one and that is Democratic too.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland consent to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that the proposed Constitutional amendment allows unlimited taxation rates with reference to inheritance taxes?

Mr. LOVETT. The present, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. The proposed resolution to be submitted to the people, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. LOVETT. As I understand, Mr. Speaker, the amendment to this particular bill would graduate the inheritance tax the same as it graduates the income tax.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, first of all we know that the power to tax is the power to destroy. We also know this particular bill is submitted as a compromise, because the people of Pennsylvania would not vote for an unlimited taxation power with relation to lack of uniformity. Therefore, the six per cent clause was added.

If that were the only feature of the bill, I believe that in order to solve our continuous dilemmas in this state I could be for the Constitutional amendment because the people would then say whether they desire a tax of that character.

But, coupled with this bill is a provision that lack of uniformity shall not apply to transfer inheritance taxes. Let me show you the evil of that provision and the reason why the addition of said provision will make this particular Constitutional amendment fall before the people

Under this Constitutional amendment, as I read it, the lack of uniformity not applying to inheritance taxes, the state Legislature could pass legislation taxing an estate in the hundred thousand dollar bracket at the rate of 40 per cent, and an estate in the five thousand dollar bracket at the rate of 2 per cent.

What is the result of this? If you are familiar with the Federal Estate Tax you may be taxed at the rate of 35 to 40 per cent in that bracket by the federal government and you will also be taxed by the State of Pennsylvania at a similar rate and the credit allowed to you under the Federal Estate Law may be seven or eight hundred dollars.

I say to you, and I say this sincerely, that when the gentlemen on the other side permitted this amendment to be added to their proposed six per cent Constitutional amendment, they were merely fooling the people. Because they are not submitting a clear cut issue to the people of this Commonwealth, and feeling, as I do, that the six per cent issue should have been resolved as a unit and there should have been no rider regarding inheritance tax with the unlimited right to tax estates, I am compelled to vote against this particular resolution and I think that anybody who studies the issue will agree with me.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I might say to the gentleman from Allegheny that the amendment that was offered to this bill was offered on his side of the House, not on our side of the House.

I admit that I did not pay too much attention to the amendment when it was offered. I thought that the six per cent would apply. I find now that it does not. I was willing to go along on the amendment. My idea in the first place was an outright amendment to the Constitution, written out in plain language to the people of Pennsylvania, for a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania with no strings attached. That is what I have said has been wrong with it. But in order to get by, get some help. try to get some form of taxation I am willing to go along so that we would not be here month after month trying to solve the tax program.

My friend, Mr. Waterhouse, made the statement that Dave Lawrence put a tax on in Pittsburgh, they put a tax on in Erie. Mr. Speaker, my own borough was among one of the very first to put a wage tax on; a Demacratic council. When I went back home after the session of the Legislature, the councilmen said to me,—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McCORMACK. I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, the bill under discussion is the proposed amendment to the constitution and any reference to wage taxes or what councilmen have said is not in order, I submit, at the present time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman's point of order is well taken, and the Member will confine their discussion to the merits of the bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I will be only too glad to confine my remarks to the bill. I do however think that it is unfair to allow other people to get up and talk all they want about wage taxes, and then say that I must confine my remarks to the bill before the House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will remind the gentleman that the point of order was raised by another Member of the House.

The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker this is a very important piece of legislation to my mind. I know it is late, I am just as tired as anybody else in this session of the Legislature is, but I feel it is so important that we should impress upon the Senate of Pennsylvania that they should at some time give the people the opportunity to vote on whether or not we have a graduated income tax in Pennsylvania.

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, I have no objection to permitting the people of Pennsylvania to vote on a graduated income tax, I have no objections to permitting the people to vote upon a graduated inheritance tax, but they are two different questions.

It is true they are both taxes, but nevertheless they are different classes of taxes. I believe one issue is going to cloud the other issue and is going to influence either for good or bad the other issue.

I think we ought to have here two distinct and separate resolutions, one on the graduated income tax and one on the graduated inheritance tax. I am opposed to it as it is, not that I do not want it to go before the people, but because I think there should be two different resolutions. There are two distinct questions.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I find myself on the floor of the House advocating the passage of an act or bill which most of my side of the House will probably vote against and the Majority side of the House will vote for it.

I had not intended to speak on it until the question of the inheritance tax amendment came into the discussion. It is a part of the bill.

I want to say to the Members of this House that I am really sincere in that amendment. I feel that if any change in the Constitution of Pennsylvania is needed, even more so than to give the people the right to vote on a graduated income tax, it is to give them the right to vote on a graduated in heritance tax.

I am not afraid of the thinking of the people of Pennsylvania. I am not afraid of the thinking and the voting of the Members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, even if such an amendment would pass, as to voting confiscatory taxes on inheritance. We are about the only state—I think there are three or four states in the union that do not have graduated inheritance taxes. We tax the poor widow and children who only inherit maybe $2 or $5 thousand at the same rate that we tax the millionaire who inherits $1 million or $100 thousand, or $150 thousand. I am thinking of the poor widows and children who have to pay the same rate as the more wealthy people have to pay.

Nobody has moved out of other states into this state because of graduated inheritance taxes in other states. As a matter of fact, I think if you will search the records carefully you will probably find them moving out of this state into other states where they do have graduated inheritance taxes.

Therefore, I sincerely ask the Members of this House to vote for the entire bill.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, with respect to House Bill 1390, a Joint Resolution, I would like to state that I am going to vote in favor of this joint resolution. I am very mindful of the fact, and I want to specifically state, that I would not vote in favor of a graduated income tax.

The resolution as it is today I do not think is in very good condition. It carries two features, the income tax and the inheritance tax. I do think they should be separate, but I am voting for this resolution for just one purpose, and that is if it passes today and if it subsequently passes it will give the people of Pennsylvania the opportunity to say whether or not they wish graduated inheritance tax.

At the same time I want to say that if and when it ever comes to a referendum I will just as vigorously oppose the passage of it.

Mr. AGNEW. Mr. Speaker, briefly I would repeat for the benefit of the gentleman from Westmoreland that those to whom he referred as "fat cats" are not opposed to a graduated income tax bill in Pennsylvania.

I would ask him to listen very carefully to what I have to say. The man with a large, a very large, income who would pay perhaps $3 thousand to the state under a graduated income tax in a six per cent bracket will pay more than $2,700 less to the Federal Government, so that out of his pocket that $3 thousand to the state will cost him less than $300. He is not paying six per cent, he is paying one-half of one per cent, and the little man making between $4 and $10 thousand a year will pay a full one per cent.

Those are facts, and we cannot have any tax program in this state that does not take into consideration the impact of the heavily graduated income tax.

I will agree with the gentlemen on my side of the House, Mr. Frost and Mr. Ziegler, that I have no objection to letting the people of Pennsylvania vote on this subject or on any other subject, but in respect to this matter why waste their time?

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I realize that it is late, but to me I have waited and waited at times to make statements, and I think the proper time is here.

I promise not to delay too long. I appreciate the opportunity that you give me at this time, but I just want to call to your mind that House Bill 55, Printer's No. 27, passed the House finally on February 28, 1955. The vote on that particular bill, an amendment to the Constitution, was 179 votes for, 8 against, and 23 not voting.

That bill provided for an annual session of the Legislature. I might say to my friend, Mr. Davis, the Admiral, I found that he supported that bill when it passed the House of Representatives. For that reason I take it that his people are in favor of annual sessions of the Legislature.

May I interrogate Mr. Davis at this time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if the statements I have made are true in regard to the gentleman's vote on annual sessions, would he then go along with me to the Senate of Pennsylvania and try to persuade, or try to influence, or try to have, the Chairman of the Committee and the Senate as a whole take some action on this amendment to the Constitution? If it fails at this time, we will then have to wait two more years?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I must respectfully submit to the gentleman it is still my contention that that is a matter solely within the province of the Senate and I do not believe it would be fitting to journey on such a course as that.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

I say again to you Members of the House, when, oh when, is the Senate of Pennsylvania going to allow my good friend, the Admiral, Mr. Davis, . . .

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will suspend. The gentleman is not permitted to criticize the actions of the Senate on the floor of this House in a matter that is not before them or us. It is an indipendent branch of this legislative body.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if I have committed that error, I apologize, but I do not feel that in asking the Senate of Pennsylvania I am criticizing the Senate of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman did criticize the Senate of Pennsylvania in his remarks to the House.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I apologize if I have criticized in my remarks.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will continue with his remarks.

Mr. LOVETT. But I say again, Mr. Speaker, when, oh when, under Mr. Davis' program of amending the constitution will the Senate allow that to happen?

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. READINGER. Tomorrow's session will be a consent calendar session. It is obvious to everyone that without hotel accommodations many of the Members must go home tonight and will not be here tomorrow.

We are planning to meet next Monday at the usual time. How many Members will be here is anybody's guess in view of the hotel situation. However, since the Senate of Pennsylvania has decreed that we must come back, we will return on Monday.

I would also like to announce that following a motion I am about to make concerning a certain House Bill we expect to close for the day and not take up any more bills today.

SPECIAL ORDER HOUSE BILL NO. 257

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 257 on page 23 on today's calendar, bills on third reading, be made a special order at this time.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair lays before the House the special order fixed for this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 257, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 12 1951 (P. L. 90) entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto regulating and restricting the manufacture purchase sale possession consumption importation transportation furnishing holding in bond holding in storage traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the person engaged or employed therein defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant prescribing penalties and forfeitures providing for local option and repealing existing laws" authorizing licensed establishments to sell until two o'clock antemeridian on Sundays

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN HENRY FRIZZELL, Chaplain Emeritus of the Pennsylvania State University, offered the following prayer:

O God, our Heavenly Father, stop us for just a minute of prayer. Stop our minds from wandering and our hearts from desiring anything but to find out what is Your will. Let us stand at attention for a minute before You and hear what You have got to say to us.

Help us to believe that You can tell us not only what to do but how to do it. If it means making up our minds. You, who made our minds in the first place, can show us how to make them up. If it means changing our minds, You can work even that miracle.

O Lord, we ask Thee to speak to us and help us to hear You, not so much for ourselves as for those whose servants we are. In Thy Name, Amen.
